"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham Official paper of the Town of Fairview.

Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

PERPETUATING AMERICANISM.

A letter of appreciation from Clark Leiter, publicity manager for the Roosevelt memorial fund, expressing thanks for the generous support given in this locality, says that the main purpose is "to keep alive and perpetuate the ideals of true Americanism" as represented by the life and utterances of the great American.

The sentence quoted strikes the keynote of the present-day need in this country. This should be and is the ideal of every liberty loving citizen of the United States. Anyone failing to live up to this ideal isn't worthy of citizenship and should soon be made to find his place elsewhere.

"America for Americans" should be the universal slogan here. It is our duty to let it be known what true Americanism is so that no one on our soil can remain long in doubt. It is one of the first things that should be taught in our schools, and perpetuated by our pulpits, our patriotic orders and our newspapers and periodicals should be full of it. Our votes should express it.

And it is the one great test that should be put up to every candidate for public office from constable to president.

The time has come to lay the foundation principles of this government anew, deeper, stronger, more securely than ever, in the minds of our people and institutions of our land.

Entertainers Captivate Audience.

For real variety, spice and human interest we never heard anything to beat the entertainment features put on last Wednesday night at the Woodmen rally by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jones of Forest Grove. In songs, stories, jokes and character acting they kept the audience for a long time convulsed with laughter and left them calling for more. This was not their first appearance at Gresham. Here's hoping they come again.

Another "Dry" Vote.

"A burned child dreads the fire," announced the teacher during the lesson in proverbs. "Now, give me a sentence different in wording but meaning the same thing." A grimy hand shot up from the back of the class.

"Please, teacher," came a small voice. "A washed child dreads the water."

The safety and progress of our country depend on the mass of sober, intelligent, industrious and saving workers.

Pork is said to be on the toboggan in Chicago, but the side we want to see it on is toward the home-plate.—Exchange.

Mary had a little lamb, very small thin slice, for that was all she could afford at the prevailing price.—Ex.

House Plans at the Library.

The exhibit of plans for small houses and bungalows will remain at the library until November 1st. Pictures illustrating interior decorations and household conveniences have been added to the original exhibit. Gresham has great possibilities as a rival to the garden cities of England and the eastern states. With a little forethought every building added can count toward a beautiful country town that will become as much sought after by the traveler as are the natural advantages. Books on town planning, gardening and tree planting will be found useful in connection with the house plans.

Now is the time to plant with the house plans for next year's garden. Sweet peas and roses can also be started. There are helps upon all these subjects for the asking. A new book for boys is Homer Green's patriotic story, "The Flag." Not only boys and girls but most grown-ups will want to read to the very end if it takes all night.

Obituary.

Hannah S. Bond, a pioneer resident of Gresham, died at her home October 26 after an illness of several months. Her death was caused from angina pectoris brought on by diabetes. She was born in Burlington, Iowa, October 21, 1842. On March 18, 1858, she was married to Edward Forbes. Three children, Elizabeth Jane, Mary Ellen and Frank S. were born to them. In 1864 she crossed the plains and since that time she has lived in Oregon. Three sisters and one brother reside in Iowa.

Only one daughter, Elizabeth, now Mrs. Geo. Curran of Gresham, survives. Her husband, Edward Forbes died March 22, 1888. She married Wm. H. Bond November 28, 1889, and since that time she has resided in or near Gresham. Mr. Bond died about a year ago.

The funeral service was held last Tuesday morning, when large numbers of old friends and new gathered to pay their respects to the memory of a faithful friend. Rev. A. J. Ware of Oregon City preached the funeral sermon. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. A. W. Shipley, Mrs. S. C. Jones, Guy Jones and H. L. St. Clair, with Miss Mildred St. Clair as pianist.

Card of Thanks.

To all our friends and neighbors we extend our sincere thanks for their help and assistance during the illness and death of our dear mother and grandmother.

MR. and MRS. GEO. J. CURRIN AND FAMILY.

Husband (looking up from paper which he has been reading)—I see Thompson's shirt store has been burned out.

Wife (slightly deaf) Whose? Husband—Thompson's shirt store. Wife—Dear me, who tore it?—Ex.

Can Now Eat and Sleep in Comfort.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Illinois, has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."—Adv.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.

Dinner For Five

$11.00 —.82 ?

Five Middle Western farm leaders sat down to dinner in a big hotel. Modestly they ate steak, potatoes, corn, bread and butter and drank coffee—and the check was $11. Then one of them, says figured roughly from the day's market reports what share the farmer had got of the $11—and the answer was 82 cents! And still some folks say the farmer is a profiteer!

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

First, last and all the time THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN stands for a living profit for the farmer. Its articles are aimed at better and more economical methods in cropping; at more scientific breeding and feeding of animals; at greater use of tractors and other labor-saving machinery; at more efficient marketing. In other words, the chief aim of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is to help the farmer to make more money—to get more of the consumer's dollar—to get more than 82 cents out of an $11 dinner. One dollar that you spend for a year's subscription may save you a hundred dollars or more. Why delay longer?
