CORBETT

Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, of Mosier, is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. May Neilsen, where she is reported to be confined to her bed. Mr. Bader has purchased 40 acres from the Corbett estate and expects to build a home here. Mrs. Floyd Reed is visiting friends at Salt Lake City. Mrs. Augusta B. Leader, of Portland, is spending some time at her farm here. Mr. and Mrs. St. Joseph Leland went to Sherwood Sunday to spend a few days visiting friends. The dance given by Columbia grange Saturday evening was very well attended. This section of the country was visited by a real blizzard Saturday night and Sunday morning as snow fell during that time and the thermometer registered freezing Friday night. Some winter!

COTTRELL

Mrs. M. C. Brown of Ocean Park, Washington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Craswell. Mrs. Brown is leaving Monday, November 3d, for California to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, of Estacada, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Andre were Portland visitors Saturday. A number from this locality attended the W. O. W. rally in Gresham Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilbreath, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Andre. Miss Maud Colvin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Manary.

PLEASANT HOME

Rev. R. F. Jameson, formerly of Astoria, will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Bible school will meet at 10 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

At the Methodist church next Sunday morning Rev. Earl B. Cotton will preach from the subject "Beginning at Jerusalem." You are invited to Sunday school and preaching service.

The Methodist Aid will meet with Mrs. John Sletret next Wednesday afternoon. All ladies urged to come.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

A community social will be held at the church Saturday evening, November 8. A program is being arranged by Mrs. Geo. Hayden and Mrs. Alta Gentry. It is planned to have a plate supper which will be sold at a moderate sum. The proceeds will be used for new doors at the church which have been needed for some time. The program and further announcements will be made in Tuesday's Outlook.

Sunday school will be held at the usual hour Sunday and all are invited to attend. The large reward cards are on hand for the children who have attended Sunday school for 12 Sundays.

Sincere Gratitude.

Mrs. William Bell, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."—Adv.

POWELL VALLEY COUPLE ENTER WEDDED BLISS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Saron Lutheran church of Powell Valley last Wednesday evening when Miss Ida Emelia Unis was married to Paul N. Palmblad in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. The church was artistically decorated with ferns and white alyssum.

Miss Esther Bergstrom, of Portland, sang very sweetly, "O Promise Me," after which the bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Earnest Lundbom. The groom entered first with his brother, David Palmblad, of Portland, and they took their places at the altar under the wedding bell which was suspended from a graceful bower of ferns and alyssum, to await the bride. Mrs. David Palmblad, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She was charmingly gowned in a dress of white net and lace which she wore on her own wedding day a few years ago. The bride entered on the arm of her father, C. J. Unis, who led her to the altar. She was lovely in an exquisite gown of silver beaded Georgette crepe over satin. Her veil was charmingly arranged with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Miss Ellen Unis, the bridesmaid, was daintily gowned in pink Georgette beaded in pearls. She entered with Richard Staffenson who was the groomsmen. The ushers were Albert Palmblad and John Johnson. The simple and impressive ring ceremony of the Lutheran church was read by the Rev. J. Truesdon.

Following the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the happy couple, after which a short program was given which had been arranged in their honor. The Misses Lillie Nelson and Emma Johnson sang a delightful duet. Mrs. Alta Gentry gave an appropriate reading about the time that "they" went out awalking" which has been arranged for the occasion. Carl Johnson, of Portland, sang a beautiful selection and S. M. Staffenson and Rev. Mr. Truesdon each gave a talk.

A bountiful wedding supper was served after which the evening was spent informally. Carl Johnson sang another selection by request and the Luther League choir and others of the young people sang a beautiful selection. Rice was showered over the bride and groom to wish them luck and prosperity.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Palmblad have grown up in this neighborhood where they are popular with both young and old as the many beautiful gifts of linen, silver and cut glass, which they received show. They will leave Friday to make their home at Evergreen station, near Oak Grove, where Mr. Palmblad has been employed since his discharge from the army last winter.

The blessings and good wishes of scores of friends follow them to this new home and along life's journey.

A Beautiful Woman.
Do you know that a beautiful woman always has a good digestion? If your digestion is faulty, eat lightly of meats, and take an occasional dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen your digestion. Price 25c.—Adv.

POWELL VALLEY

Services for the week-end at the Swedish Mission church are as follows: young people's meeting on Saturday evening at the usual hour, Sunday school at 10 o'clock on Sunday. There will be no preaching in the forenoon but at 8 o'clock in the evening Rev. M. Anderson will preach. On Monday evening of next week at 8 o'clock Rev. Mr. Train of Seattle will preach.

The Ladies' society of the Swedish Mission church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Ekstrom next Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Wm. Hawkinson is in Bellingham, Washington, where he has been holding a series of meetings during the past week.

Bronchial Trouble.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenberder, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears."—Adv.

Fordson Tractor

Price $835 at Gresham

The FORDSON Is Truly a Universal Tractor

In developing the "FORDSON" Tractor, the aim has been to produce a small tractor which will be low in first cost, reliable, and above all—efficient.

Being small, light and economical, the "FORDSON" Tractor is adapted for use on small farms, as well as on the largest. It will pull all farm implements and do the work generally done by horses on the farm. In addition, by its belt pulley the tractor will drive farm machinery such as a thresher, ensilage cutter, sawmill, etc., making the "FORDSON" a truly universal tractor.
