

TROUTDALE

The attendance in school has been stimulated lately by a contest for the possession of a flag which was presented to the school for the purpose by the Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. Isaac Buxton has come to Troutdale to live and is occupying the cottage across from the church with her son, Roy.

The Halloween party given by the Parent-Teacher association Friday evening was a great success, the only drawback being lack of room to comfortably hold the large crowd attending.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid meets this week Wednesday afternoon, November 5, with the president, Mrs. Wm. Crawford.

Former residents of Troutdale greeting old friends at the Halloween party were Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker of Gresham and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boscoe and son Billy, of Portland.

Mrs. H. E. Northup, of Portland, with her son Daniel and daughter, Nancy, spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. C. I. Thomas.

CORBETT

James Pounder has bought 17 acres, across the highway from the high school building, from the Corbett estate. Mr. Pounder has farmed this tract of land for the past two years and knows well the fertility of the soil of this immediate vicinity.

Mrs. J. I. Heins, of the Latourell Heights school, entertained the patrons of the school by a musical and literary program given by her pupils Friday evening, October 31.

Columbia grange held its monthly meeting Saturday, November 1. In the absence of the master, James Benfield overseer, filled the chair of honor and conferred the third and fourth degree on a candidate.

The society voted to have a Thanksgiving dinner at the hall to which all patrons of husbandry, their families and friends are invited to come with well filled baskets and enjoy the day together. The grange will give a dance on the evening of Nov. 22.

Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart, who is visiting her mother at Fernside Place, spent the week-end in Portland.

Fred C. Reed, accompanied by several of his gentlemen friends, attended the dance at Fairview Saturday evening.

Mr. Bader, a tenant on the Mrs. Ira Byers farm, has bought 40 acres of the Corbett estate and expects to become a permanent resident of this community.

Mrs. Grace Ferguson Krieriem, of Portland, visited at the Geo. Krieriem home recently.

Mr. Letsinger recently purchased 14 acres of uncleared land just west of the church, of the Corbett estate.

Miss Bessie Krieriem motored to Goble Saturday to visit her brothers George and Robert, who have work near there with the Warren Construction company.

Mrs. James Pounder has been afflicted with rheumatism the past week.

PEACE TIME RED CROSS FACES HUGE TASKS

War Task Not Finished--Public Health Problems Must Be Solved By Red Cross

The American Red Cross, according to a statement just issued from Washington, D. C., believes that its first duty is to finish its war task, one hundred per cent. The Red Cross must also continue to carry on even more effectively than in the past, its established system of National and International relief, in mitigating the suffering caused by famine, fire, floods, and great national calamities.

The responsibilities of the Red Cross are greatly increased as a result of the lessons taught by the war, the statement continues. Higher standards of responsibility have been set to prevent needless suffering and loss of life. The Red Cross, with its traditions and its established organization, will aid in maintaining these standards by co-operating with all recognized agencies engaged in conserving human life and happiness.

War time developments have given every community in the United States a recognized and organized center of Red Cross activity through which the people of that community may, if they wish, serve themselves, with all the advantages of national leadership, national standards, national and international contacts.

You're in mighty good company when you belong to the Red Cross.

So long as there's sickness, suffering, disaster, the Red Cross must stand by!

The H. C. of L. hasn't hit Red Cross memberships. They're still a dollar.

If nine million youngsters believe in the Red Cross, it must have the right idea.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

Plans are completed for a jolly time Saturday evening, when a community social will be given at Iliff church at 8 o'clock.

An entertaining program will be given by members of the Sunday school and others, after which a cafeteria supper will be served.

Ladies will bring sandwiches, cakes and pies for the purpose. The proceeds of the evening will be used to purchase new doors for the church.

The program will include solos by Crystal Hayden, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, and Miss Marian Robertson; a duet by the Misses Ocea and Ruby Jones and one by Mrs. Edward Backstrand and Mrs. Karl J. Hagberg; a trio by Bessie Jones, Ethel and Annie Moffitt and recitations by Reginald Fulton, Floyd Stafford, Harlan Hayden, Percy Carlson, Annie Moffitt, Bessie Jones, Mrs. George Armstrong, Harry Moffitt, Mrs. Bert-Olsen and Miss Bessie Strebin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke have moved from their farm here to Sandy, where they will make a home for their son, Cecil, who is employed in the bank at that place.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary," but the Red Cross is there.

At the present time in the Northwestern Division alone—comprising Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington—there are 750,868 Red Cross members. Alaska has 13,562; Idaho, 103,055; Oregon, 248,614; Washington, 390,637.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.

Save the Grizzly.

There are no game laws to protect the great American grizzly bear, and unless some are made he will become extinct like other wild creatures which once abounded in this country but are to be found no more.

It is doubtful, according to Enos Mills, a Colorado naturalist, if the grizzly is holding his own anywhere except in the national parks where there are laws against shooting.

Most of the crimes ascribed to this member of the bear family are set down as fiction. He is said to be a distinct asset as a destroyer of field mice and other pests, besides being one of the most splendid representatives of the animal world.

"He is the greatest animal without a voice, and the most impressive animal on our continent," pleads Mr. Mills in his latest book, "The Grizzly". Certainly the extermination of his tribe would mean the sacrifice of one of the greatest figures in the annals of hunting.—Rocky Mountain News.

TRIBUTES FROM THE WORLD'S LEADERS

"It is on membership more than money contributions that the stress of the present campaign is laid, for the Red Cross seeks to associate the people in welfare work throughout the land, especially in those communities where neither official nor unofficial provision has been made for adequate health and social service."—President Wilson.

"The American Red Cross is the mobilized heart and spirit of the whole American people."—Henry P. Davison.

"A magnificent spirit breathes in the American Red Cross."—Marshal Foch.

In giving prompt and efficient relief the Red Cross has won the eternal gratitude of millions of people."—General Pershing.

"It requires no organization to allow one of us as an individual to buy a dinner for a hungry man. It requires the greatest degree of organization to deal with the foes of a world. The Red Cross seems to be essentially demanded."

Without the Red Cross I do not know whether the world would have been able to bear the horrors and devastation of this weariful war."—Newton B. Baker.

"The Red Cross is the great Neighbor. If the world is made a little more comfortable, a little happier, a little stronger for the struggle of life through its effort, the Red Cross is content."—The Secretary of the Navy.

"The Red Cross is not going to turn its back on its responsibilities."—Livingston Farrand, Chairman, Executive Committee, National Red Cross.

"I don't know what we would have done without the help of the Americans. I thank you from the bottom of my heart."—Ignace Paderewski, Premier of Poland.

"Mr. Davison has spoken to me of how the Red Cross hopes to continue work even in peace time. This is a noble enterprise. Wonderful results could be obtained if all countries would join hands, especially in all questions concerning small children, tuberculosis, and sanitation in general."—Queen Marie of Rumania.

"We surely can do no better than to emulate the human and social work of our sister organization, the American Red Cross."—Signor Cirio, newly elected President of Italian Red Cross.

"Our heartiest thanks go out to our American friends."—Union des Femmes de France.

"The help given by the Red Cross is but another proof of the great heart and sympathy of the American people."—Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia.

"The Polish people look upon the American Red Cross as their salvation. It holds in its hands the destinies of nations. This world war has been fought in vain if there is no early restoration of normal physical and moral conditions in the newly born Republic of Poland. Poland is the keystone of the world's permanent peace."—Lieut. Col. Francis E. Francezak.

"I wish to express to the millions of Americans, who have made the work of the American Red Cross possible, the deep gratitude of my people."—The young King Alexander of Greece.

"I have confident hope that the American Red Cross' world-wide plans for charity and mercy will be largely realized, bringing the grateful appreciation of suffering millions as a partial recompense, and a greater reward, the richest blessings of God."—Gardinal Gibbons.

"One is honored by the privilege of membership in the Red Cross, and blessed in being permitted to make any kind of contribution to its work."—William Fraser McDowell, Presiding Bishop, Methodist Episcopal Church.

"The Red Cross is America at her best. Money given to the Red Cross is not an investment, nor is it a charity. It is a sacrament."—Charles A. Eaton, Pastor Fifth Ave. Baptist Church, N. Y.

"It is extraordinary what can be accomplished when a free people all unite and work together for their common good and for the good of humanity."—Cardinal Mercier.

"Better to hunt in fields for health unbought, Than fee the doctor for a nauseous draught; The wise for cure on exercise depend; God never made His work for man to mend."—Dryden.
