"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins." Official paper of the Town of Gresham.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

PATRIOTISM IN PEACE.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, speaking before an editorial association at Springfield, Ill., last Friday, emphasized the need of patriotism in peace as well as in war.

Mr. Hays thinks we need more attention to politics in this country, meaning by politics the science of government.

This certainly strikes the keynote, especially for us who individually help to make the government what it is.

"Let us have the patriotism of Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt—not a patriotism which moves us only when an enemy is at our gates, but a patriotism which moves us every day to realize what we owe to the country in which we live, which moves us to discharge that debt by aiding in every way we can to make and keep conditions right in this country."

THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS

If President Wilson wants any further proof that congress has a mind of its own and that the administration is losing power, and has lost control, it will doubtless be forthcoming.

Wise a man as the president is and as great a statesman as he is recognized to be, his reasons for vetoing the prohibition enforcement code appear weak and insufficient.

The vote in the senate in favor of overriding President Wilson's veto of the prohibition enforcement bill was 65 to 20. The vote in the House was 175 to 55.

Now, it is announced that the president will proclaim the end of wartime prohibition as soon as the peace treaty with Germany is ratified.

All Oregon's representatives and senators, except Congressman McArthur, voted to override the president's veto on the prohibition enforcement bill.
