DISTRICT CONVENTION OF REBEKAHS HELD HERE

The annual district convention of the Rebekah lodges of Boring, Sandy and Gresham was held Friday night at the lodge home of the Gresham Rebekahs.

In honor of the occasion the hall was decorated in pink and green, the colors of the order. In attendance, beside a fine turn-out from Sandy and Boring, were Mrs. Jessie Jarvis, president of the Rebekah assembly, and visitors from eastern Oregon, Estacada, Montavilla and Portland.

Of course, secrets can not be told, but one commendable feature of regular lodge business can be given publicity, namely that the Rebekahs give as a part of the work of each meeting a flag drill ending with a salute to Old Glory and the singing of our national anthem.

Election and installation of the convention officers for the next year were presided over by Mrs. William Morand, convention chairman. Boring was selected the place for holding the 1920 district meet.

Some weeks ago, to arouse interest and enthusiasm in drill work, Boring challenged Gresham to a contest which the latter accepted. This drilling contest came off Friday evening with honors going to Gresham. There is a rumor that Gresham will return the compliment presently and challenge the Boring team to try it once more. All of which goes to show that competition does arouse interest.

A musical number furnished by an orchestra composed of piano, two violins and a cornet concluded the formal program. A big supper in the banquet hall put the proper finishing touches to an evening crammed full of much business.

Wife—There's a burglar at the silver and another in the pantry eating my pies. Call for help!
Hub (at window)—Police! Doctor!

Turkey Talk

In order to have a fat turkey for Thanksgiving you must fatten it with chicken feed steadily.

In order to have a fat bank account, one that means Thanksgiving the year-round, you must feed it also with "chicken feed" steadily.

"Chicken feed"—quarters, dimes, nickels and even pennies—will fatten your bank account amazingly fast. It's remarkable how the little coins pile up into good-sized deposits. Make your "chicken feed" talk turkey.

SALE OF PROPERTY TO SATISFY CREDITOR

Last Saturday Constable Squires conducted an auction sale of some of the household goods formerly owned by C. R. Burch, one time jitney driver between Gresham and Portland, but whose present whereabouts is unknown. The sale was held to settle the claim of George Kenney for arrears in the rent of his house which the Mr. Burch and his wife occupied. Other claims have been presented which will be settled by a second sale to be held under the warehouse lien law, some time in December.

The authorities have done everything possible to locate the party by inquiries and advertising, but there has been no response.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Risher and children were Sunday visitors at the Hans Larsen home in Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Blodeau are happy over the arrival of a fine baby boy. Mrs. Blodeau was formerly Irene Miller.

Howard Mewhirter, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Mewhirter, came home from Myrtle Point where he has been working in the Sugar Loaf cheese factory for the past seven months, without so much as a Sunday off. That perhaps accounts for Coos county cheese taking the highest honors at the state fair this year—something Tillamook cheese did not dream could happen as it had carried off so many gold medals before. Howard is well known as an expert cheese maker. Tillamook county is going to take no chances another year, but has secured his services for the coming season—just naturally grabbed him away from Coos without a qualm of conscience.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs left today for Seaside where they will spend a few weeks.

The usual choir rehearsal will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Wednesday evening. Following the practice a brief social time will be enjoyed, with Miss Mildred St. Clair as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin G. Gates, of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kimber of Dundee, who have been engaged for some time at Hood River in the apple orchards, spent last Friday night the guests of Mrs. L. M. Arthur.

John Honey of Port Angeles, Washington, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey, by a visit home this week. He is enjoying his work at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Calaghan and children of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Calaghan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Emma Gilmore. Important business will be considered and a good attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Johnston, living near Gresham, have heard from their son, William, who is in the Base hospital at Camp Lewis, that he has undergone another operation on his arm and that he is hoping to be able to come home in a short time. The young soldier has been suffering for 14 months from the result of a wound received in France, when his arm was broken and it did not heal properly.

Next Sunday night at the Methodist Episcopal church, Judge George W. Stapleton will give the opening address on "The Four Pillars of Civilization," which will occupy four successive Sunday evenings. Judge Stapleton's topic will be "The Home." Following speakers will be Principal Elmer F. Goodwin of the high school, Attorney B. F. Mulkey of Portland, and Rev. R. E. Myers. Their topics will be, respectively, "The School," "The States" and "The Church."
