

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITION CLUB BOYS TAKE PRIZE

About 40 animals are being shown by club boys, including sheep, goats, pigs and calves.

The winners of these blue ribbons are a total prize budget of $61.

The winners of these blue ribbons are Grant McMillan who carries away the first on sheep.

Donald Grant, a blue ribbon on his first on sheep.

Herbert Eling had the best and heavy weight class so far.

Walter Anderson's Holstein calf won highest recognition in a contest with a Jersey calf owned by Walter.

Clackamas calf club of six boys, through Walter is but 19 years old.

He has raised a calf that measures a higher than his head.

He has his calf to the world at three weeks. Multnomah county fair, Salem and Stock show and has won $23 in prizes.

Grant McMillan's sheep have realized $29 in cash prizes and a trip to the summer school.

Other boys they will not let another stock go by without their pigs and other prizes.

The boy livestock judging created much interest among the adults.

There were 16 teams, 48 boys in the contest with a Jersey calf owned by Walter.

Washington state teams. That contest was close is shown by the fact that the highest scoring team scored 1254 points and although the Multnomah team scored 1125 there were teams in between the 1254 and 1125.

Our Multnomah team did good work it is understood.

The live stock judges from over the state are being entertained at headquarters in the old Exchange building.

They have inspected Seiff's packing plant, the Journal Building, library and Meier & Frank's department store.

Yesterday they were taken on the Columbia highway to the Portland Commercial club.

Donald Grant, although not taking part in the judging contest is spending the week in camp with the boys.

He may gain in practical knowledge with the other boys.

Where are other Multnomah county boys? Never mind, they'll be there next year.

REV. H. GEBHARDT HOME FROM EASTERN TRIP

The Rev. H. Gebhardt of the Zion Evangelical church returned last week from a six-week trip, including stops at Winnepeg, Chicago, St. Paul, Kansas, New Mexico, Arizona, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

This is the first trip Rev. Gebhardt has taken since he came here over 20 years ago.

He said the weather was delightful everywhere he went, the Minnesota and kindred regions had passed. The coldest temperature was experienced at Tucson, Arizona.

He especially enjoyed the visit with his folks in Illinois and at his home, the Eden Theological Seminary at St. Louis. A few days ago he also spent with his brother at San Francisco, a sergeant in the ordnance department.

Although the trip was a very pleasant one and many fine places were seen, Rev. Gebhardt is glad to be back in Oregon.

The Gresham Post of American boys will give an all-night dance Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, November 26. A jazz orchestra will furnish music. At midnight a supper will be served. Let the World for veterans show you a good time.

Tailoring for men and women—cleaning, pressing and repairing done well. Mrs. Leonard, Powell street.

Farm for Rent or Sale. Twenty-five and half acres close to city limits of Gresham. Have 40 acres leased. Can go with place if desired. O. W. Tarr, Gresham, phone 503.

SUNDAY SERVICES AT 'THE HOME CHURCH'

You are invited to enjoy the services of the M. E. church 'The Home Church', Sunday.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. offers a fine chance for mental and spiritual growth. Try it.

Epworth League at 6:30 affords a good chance for the young people to have an enjoyable hour. Be there.

The worship hours 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., will refresh and stimulate the community. It is yours, use it. There is always for you a comfortable pew and a welcome.

'The Home', as one of the foundation stones of civilization, a theme of vital importance, will be discussed by Judge Geo. W. Stapleton, a man who by his experience as circuit judge and close observation of life, is thoroughly qualified to speak with authority. Hear him at the M. E. church Sunday night, November 23, at 7:30.

FAIRVIEW PARENT-TEACHERS ORGANIZE

After a lapse of 17 months, owing to war work, the Fairview Parent-Teacher association reorganized recently, electing a full corps of officers and enrolling 45 members.

The officers are, president, Mrs. Ethel Miller, principal of the school; vice president, Mrs. John Jonas; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. M. Hoslin.

The question of a playshed for the school has already come up and is arousing considerable enthusiasm.

Entertainments for the winter evenings, the first of which will be held in the city hall on Friday evening, December 5. This will be free and will be a sort of get-together meeting. A short program followed by games will occupy the evening.

Meetings will be held in the schoolhouse the second Wednesday in each month.

Children's and Misses' Hats this week at the Gresham Hat Shop, $1 and $2. Miss.

All-Night Dance. Every Saturday night, at Clackamas, Oregon. Six-piece jazz orchestra. Supper at midnight.—Adv.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

A very entertaining evening was spent at Cedar school Tuesday when a few of the patrons of the school met to discuss the subject of organizing a Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. John Lynch, president of the County Council, gave an enthusiastic talk in favor of Parent-Teacher work and especially the county council work. Owing to the fact that there were so few present, it was decided to postpone action until a later meeting.

The sentiment is rather strongly in favor of an association. County Superintendent Alderson entertained the pupils and parents with a victrola which he is urging that the schools use in their school work. Many club pictures were also shown, winners of different projects at Gresham and Salem this year. Mr. Alderson concluded by reciting "Beautiful Willamette," illustrated with beautiful pictures of the river, a very pleasing feature of the entertainment. Several numbers by the pupils were much enjoyed and a salute to the flag was remarkably well done. Miss Caroline Tallman is the teacher at Cedar this year.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood have returned from an auto trip to Salem, where they visited several families of former neighbors. They returned by way of Willamina where they visited with their daughter, Miss Mabel, who is teaching the primary grades of the Willamina school.

Sunday school will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday as usual. Every one is cordially invited to attend. At the recent social there was a very good attendance and the committee are very grateful to all who helped to make it the success it was. A number of friends from Powell Valley, Pleasant Home and Terry were present.

GOVERNOR IS AFTER DISLOYAL PERSONS

Governor Olcott in a recent letter issued, urges peace officers, including district attorneys, sheriffs, mayors, chiefs of police and others, to co-operate with the executive offices in enforcing the law relating to syndicalism and in bringing to quick justice all those who commit disloyal acts. He writes:

"The nation has been forcibly and suddenly brought to realize, through the tragedy at Centralia, that the Industrial Workers of the World, the radicals, the agitators and any coming under the category of 'reds' are a menace to the present and future peace and welfare of our country and all of its truly American and law-abiding citizens.

"When American citizens, but a short time relieved from duty in the service of their country, are shot down in cold blood by men who are actuated only by a spirit of hatred for our most holy and most sacred institutions, it is tantamount to a declaration of war and in the minds of our citizenry nothing short of treason.

"Utmost Vigilance Urged. "Our protection lies in the machinery of the law. The execution and processes of that machinery rest with the executive offices of this state and with you as arms of the governmental power. Our first duty is the protection of our country and of our homes. To secure that protection requires the utmost vigilance and an unswerving enforcement of our laws. The people of the state are depending upon us to root out the evils which are resulting from a propaganda too long tolerated.

"I bespeak your heartiest co-operation in this as a duty of the highest patriotism.

"I am taking the liberty of calling your attention to chapter 12 of the general laws of Oregon for 1919, this being an act defining criminal syndicalism and sabotage and also to chapter 95 of the general laws of Oregon for 1911, being an act defining vagrancy.

"Governor Asks Reports. "In every situation arises in any community of the state which may be considered beyond the power of local authorities to cope with I earnestly request that the executive office at Salem be notified forthwith. Every power of the state machinery of government necessary and available will be set in motion to the end that our laws are enforced and the lives and property of our citizens safeguarded.

"I also would greatly appreciate reports from any community of the state as to the possibility of trouble arising and as to the status of those who may be suspected of being aligned with those forces which have avowedly started a reign of terror in direct defiance of the laws of our state and nation."

JUDGE GANTENBEIN OF CIRCUIT COURT DEAD

Calvin Gantenbein, judge of the state circuit court for Multnomah county, died Wednesday morning at his home in Portland.

Judge Gantenbein served in the Spanish-American war, at the end of which he received the rank of lieutenant colonel. He had the rare distinction of being one among the few civilians in the entire United States to receive a commission in U. S. army above the rank of major. In the early part of the World War he was made a lieutenant colonel at Presidio. He tried to get into active service, but was refused—a great disappointment to him.

With the exception of a short time when running for congress and his brief period in military service, he had not been off the circuit court bench since he was elected 18 years ago.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH BAZAAR A SUCCESS

The bazaar given by the ladies of Zion Evangelical church at grange hall yesterday afternoon and evening brought out a very gratifying crowd. Most articles on sale found ready buyers. After supper, the remaining pieces were auctioned off and the proceeds, $12.50, donated to the Gresham Red Cross auxiliary.

High praise is spoken for the ladies who prepared the chicken supper. The tables covered with silverware and china were pleasing to the eye. The whole man rejoiced when he beheld the elegant spread of chicken with dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, salads, celery, olives, pickles, jellies, pumpkin and apple pies, and fruit. Thirty-five loaves of Kleen-made bread were donated by the Royal Bakery for this supper. For this, the ladies wish to thank Mrs. Matt Schanno who was instrumental in getting this generous offer from the bakery.

The program was good. Mrs. Theod. Brugger and Miss Katherine Bratzel were called back to sing an encore. They also took part in a quartet with C. E. Rusher and A. G. Wehrli. Their first selection was "Forget Me Not" and for encore they gave "A Hunting."

Beautifully rendered piano numbers were played by Miss Frieda Bratzel.

Miss Marguerite Vchbrecht read "How Sockery Set a Hen." Those who heard poor Sockery fall through the bottom of a barrel which he was standing on when setting the hen—up so high, can sympathize with his trouble in getting out of it. Part of it saved off by a neighbor and the rest of it whittled off by himself—and his wife sitting there laughing at his predicament.

The play "The spot on the stairs" furnished plenty of fun. Two couples, each with a maid lived in adjoining flats. Emil Exley and Anna Hoecker employed Marguerite Volbrecht as their bridget. Elizabeth Schwedler was servant girl for Conrad Hoecker and Frieda Bratzel. The two maids fell to quarreling as to which one was responsible for the spot on the stairs. The quarrel grew. The two families fell out over the trouble, so one decided to move away—at midnight so the other wouldn't know a thing about it. That was exactly the plan of the other family. The two found themselves moving at midnight and what was more surprising still, they were moving into the same place. Of course, in the end, they make up and resume their old friendly ways and lived happily ever after.

BORING

At the Pacific Livestock exhibition H. C. Compton got third prize on his Duroc Jersey boar, under a year old.

Among the marriage licenses issued Monday is one for Homer Lee Revenue and Josephine V. Haworth. The date of the meeting of the Country Culture club advertised for Thursday, December 4. Mrs. Roy White hostess.

The consolidation of the Union and Rock Creek districts with Damascus is being talked. There is lots to learn about the advantages and disadvantages of such a venture, but there is one point on which Union is quite unanimous—they need a new schoolhouse. In looking into that matter, there are no disadvantages to consider. Here is hoping that the children of Union will get what is their just dues—a nice, pleasant place to study in.

This month's honor roll for Union District 26: Eighth grade—Philip Gran, Estelle Johnson, Clara Hoffmeister. Seventh grade—Thomas Lovelace, Gladys Holterman, Garrett Lyon. Sixth grade—Sylvia Rolfe, Allie Bartell, Dora Hoffmeister, Ada Lovelace, Grace Lyon, Edna Zinsli, Eldore Johnson. Fifth grade—Mildred Gran, Marjorie Heacock. Fourth grade—Irene Johnson, Austin Rolfe, Marguerite Welch. Second grade—Vivian Gran, Florence Adams. First grade—Harry Schantlin.

Royce Childs writes home that he has now passed the trials and tribulations of the rigid training at Goat Island, and is with the Pacific fleet stationed near San Pedro. The "grind" is reduced to almost nothing. The frequent shore leaves and side trips make sailing pleasant.

Otto Boese visited his mother last week. Although he is not entirely over the injury received from the fall off of a wood wagon, he is a good way towards complete recovery, considering how serious the accident was.

ALL-DAY MEETING AT FREE METHODIST CHURCH

The quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held here this week, beginning Friday and continuing over Sunday. Rev. J. A. Hopper, district elder, will preside. He will preach on Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30. A short session of the Sunday school will be held, beginning at 9:45, which will be followed by the love feast at 10:15. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Alexander Beers will preach and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. A basket lunch will be served after this service.

After noon there will be some good rousing singing by Mr. and Mrs. Donald McPhee and Mr. and Mrs. William Randall of Portland as well as congregational singing. These folks are splendid singers and will be a real treat. The sermon at 3 o'clock will be by Evangelist B. C. Dewey. We are expecting a gracious day in which all are invited to join.

TILLAMOOK CHEESE TAKES HIGHEST HONORS

Tillamook county cheese is receiving the recognition to which it is entitled, at the Livestock show in Portland, and at the same time demonstrating the fallibility of judges—at some fairs.

F. W. Christensen, cheese inspector for Tillamook county, took eight cheese entries to the Oregon state fair and went away from the state exposition without a ribbon—even a white one. Undaunted, he brought the same six entries to the Western Dairy Products show and secured the first six prizes and a tie for seventh out of his eight entries.

To show the difference in judging, he sent the head of cheese which secured the lowest score at the state fair to the national show at Chicago a month later and secured ninth place out of 120 entries. They were brought back to the Pacific International show and carried off every ribbon that was given for high-grade cheese.

DON'T DRIVE AT NIGHT WITHOUT TAIL LIGHTS

Constable M. M. Squire went out last night gunning for automobile drivers who had become slack about their lights. In less than two hours he found ten drivers without tail lights and ordered them to appear before Justice John Brown this forenoon and receive sentence.

All were well-known young men of Gresham and vicinity and the list included two Gresham garage men. They were Leo Dolewicz, Byron Pullen, Ernest Brugger, Ellsworth Raker, Roy Burton, Glenwood Miller, W. Everetts, Ed. Osborn, Hans Koch and J. Kiyohara.

The men were each fined $5 and were given a little legal advice by the justice, which was intended to prevent any future recurrence of the infraction of the law.

It is said that the officers will continue the campaign against auto drivers who are disregarding the provisions of the law and that they are watching for speeders, defective lights and drivers who are under 16 years of age. In the latter case the parents of minor drivers would be responsible.

SOME NEW BOOKS AT THE LIBRARY

The most popular Christmas gift is a book, but if carelessly selected, may be the most disappointing. Poorly written books are often put up in attractive bindings and placed before buyers who, unless they are forearmed, will be duped into purchasing them for their pleasing exterior.

This week is "good books" week. The book stores are displaying the best literature, special prominence given to children's and young people's books. The Portland Council of Boy Scouts has a slogan, "A child plus good books equals a citizen of greater usefulness." On the leaflets, distributed this week by the council through the town librarian, is printed:

"Lincoln's whole life and character was moulded by the books he read. Start your children right. Select the right books, or they may select the wrong ones. Do it now. The public library will tell you what is right."

Miss Montague has made out the following list of new books at the Gresham library, everyone of them a "good book":

Ashley—American history. Clemens—$30,000 bequest. Collins—How to fly. Fite—History of the United States. Greene—The Flag. Husband—America at work. Johnston—Limp. Morris—Apple woman of the Kleeftat. O'Shea—Health and Cleanliness. Stenkiewicz—With fire and sword. Scott—How the flag became Old Glory. Tarkington—Ramsey Millhoolland. Wilson—Ma Pettengill. Young—Alaska days with John Muir.

For Children Under 10. Child's garden of verses—Steven-son. Peter Rabbit, and others, by Potter. Reddy Fox, and others in series, by Burgess. Peter and Wendy—Barrie. Little Bird Blue—Finley. Why the Chimes Rang—Alden. Alice in Wonderland—Carroll. Little Lame Prince—Mulock. Nurnberg Stone—Ouida. Posy Ring—Wiggin & Smith.

For Children over 10. Golden Numbers—Wiggin & Smith. Man without a Country—Hale. Blue Fairy book—Lang. Robinson Crusoe—Defoe. Oregon Trail—Parkman. The "twin" series—Perkins. Rolfe in the Woods—Seton. Heidi—Spyri. Toby Taylor—Otis. Bears of Blue River—Major. Little Women—Alcott. Hans Brinker—Dodge.

These are but a few of the many good books for children of all ages. Everyone who buys Christmas gifts for boys and girls is invited to look over the lists at the library. Those contemplating the buying of "handy books" should look over the series published by Harpers. For those intending to spend more than one dollar there are delightfully illustrated editions of most of the favorites.

SCHWEDLER GRADE COWS BRING HIGH PRICES

According to W. S. Wood of the Wood & Son, auctioneers, who conducted the E. Schwedler sale last Wednesday, the auction was a remarkable one. To his knowledge, no sale on the Pacific coast has brought such high bids for grade cows.

The highest price grade Holstein cow was sold to Dr. E. A. Pierce of Hillsdale, Oregon for $300. J. Webber of Estacada paid $250 for a grade Holstein. Shannon B. Schafer of Deer Island bought one for $225.

Other grade Holsteins sold for $190, $175, $160, $140 and $115. Two registered Holstein cows went to M. Kehrli on the Sandy road, at $400 and $225.

A registered 11-months-old heifer was sold for $155; a 3-year-old bull for $135; a bull calf, three weeks old, sold for $50.

Barred Plymouth Rock chickens soared. Prices flew as high as $2.25 for a pullet and hens $2. Farm machinery and implements sold well.
