The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

the farmer refuses longer to be the goat in the round-robin argument between labor and capital.

If the 8-hour day is forced upon the country the farmer will welcome it as a relief from his present 14-hour, 7-day schedule, with unpaid help from his wife and children—but both capital and labor must pay his price or starve! Wheat at $3 instead of $2.26; pork at 20 cents instead of 14; milk at 20 cents instead of 14—these are 8-hour farm-day figures. You ought to read "The Farmer's 8-hour Day" through my eyes.
