GRESHAM LOCALS

Rev. F. R. Jameson and family will have charge of the services Sunday morning, at 11 a. m., at the Bethel Baptist church at Gresham, which will consist largely of sacred song. Come and hear some fine music. Bible school 10 a. m.

Boyd O. Braswell and wife are moving into M. M. Squire's house on Wallula heights.

All girls over 14 years old, who are interested in the organization of a Queen Esther circle, will please meet at the home of Mrs. A. Hevel, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Be sure and come, girls, you will be interested when you know of the object of this organization.

John Berg, 86 years old and an inmate of Multnomah Farm, was taken up by Constable Squire one night recently near John Bliss' residence on the Base Line road and returned to the farm. The old man had wandered away and become exhausted and was calling for help.

Nearly a score of singers were present at the Methodist church for the chorus choir rehearsal last Wednesday evening, besides a few specially invited guests who had been informed that something unusual was going to happen. At the close of the singing ice cream and cake were served by Chase and Miss Mildred St. Clair, assisted by their mother and their sister Margaret.

The Sunday morning sermons on "The Dynamics of the Kingdom" by Rev. R. E. Myers of the Methodist Episcopal church are creating a very favorable impression. They are not of the conventional type but treat the subjects from the modern viewpoint. Wednesday, Miss Montague plaid some new library books at the book stations in Powell Valley and Pleasant Home.
