

PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. Chas. Berney, who has been quite sick with pleurisy, is much better.
Miss Alice Daniels returned to her home on the Base Line after having spent several weeks with her uncle, Robert Larson.
Mrs. Chas. Bramhall is visiting with friends in Portland.
Dolph Vandever came down last Thursday from Kellogg, Idaho, to see his mother, Mrs. R. J. Babbitt. Dolph has been in the navy for the last two years, only receiving his discharge about the first of September. He will probably stay in this vicinity for some time. Mr. Babbitt also came down on Sunday to spend the cold weather here with his wife and family in their new home at Springdale.
Mrs. Wm. Harding and daughters were visitors Saturday in Portland with Mrs. L. L. Courtemanche, who will be remembered as Miss Mary Sunderland, who taught here a few years ago.
Miss Maudie Henkle returned from several days' visit in Portland Saturday and is staying at the C. E. Bramhall home with her parents, who are waiting for their own home in Springdale to be vacated.

Storage battery repairing and recharging, starter and generator work. Raker & Son.

LUSTED

A surprise party was given on Oscar Carlson last Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carlson. This is one of a series of parties which have been given lately in honor of returned service men. A happy evening was spent in games and music, with refreshments at the close.

The meeting of the Baptist Aid society last Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Lusted was largely attended and was a fine social occasion, in addition to the fact that the women did some quilting and other work in preparation for their annual bazaar. The hostess served dinner at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Patterson, of Newberg, visited on Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson.

Mrs. Jake Hosner has gone to Columbia, Nebraska, for a visit with her parents.

HALEY

The Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Baptist church at Haley will have an auction sale of useful and fancy articles in their church next Saturday evening, December 13 at 7:30 o'clock. Coffee and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to attend.

TROUTDALE

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid bazaar held Saturday evening was a wonderful success. There were two serious obstacles in the way; not enough room, and shortage of made-up articles, but the large crowd was good natured enough to make the best of it, and besides making the affair a financial success, they made of it a pleasant get-together social event. No program was given for lack of a suitable place for it, so people went home early, all lights being out by 10 o'clock.

The sale began at 5 o'clock, the general booth, with Mrs. Harlow and Mrs. Thomas in charge, being practically all sold out before the evening was over. Mrs. J. R. Knarr, assisted by Miss Olive Wilson, had a very fine assortment of delicious candies, and Misses Opal Monahan and Celena Wethers sold punch to the thirsty. Mrs. Janet Grant and Miss Belle Parsons managed the fish pond of perennial interest to the youngsters. Mrs. Brink and a corps of efficient helpers served the supper which was the chief event of the evening. There is a good range in the kitchen of the church basement, and Mrs. Brink, with assistants, made all the individual chicken pies there, which insured them being all fresh, and uniformly full of chicken, the only trouble being the unexpected rush on them which exhausted the supply before the supper was over. It is hoped that everybody interested who sees this will raise one extra chicken for next year's supper. The rest of the supper was good, up to the usual standard. The coffee was generously donated by Mr. Cady, merchant of Fairview. The ladies of the Aid wish to thank all who helped with donations or work, and all the patrons who by their presence helped to make it a success. The sum of $114 was taken in, which will be swelled to $120 when all is collected in, with no more than $25 expenses for materials.

The young peoples' class in Sunday school back in October started a membership contest to be concluded at Thanksgiving, the losing side promising to give a party to the others. Great interest was aroused, and at the end of the contest there were enrolled 35 of as fine young people as you could find anywhere. Clarence Parsons was the leader of the losing side, which lost by only one, and the party was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Evans. Mrs. Evans and the losing side proved themselves very efficient hosts, and it was a merry party, there being not one dull moment the whole evening. The refreshments were cake and cocoa. Miss Olive Wilson was leader of the winners. Mrs. C. I. Thomas is the teacher of the class. A new contest is on based on attendance alone to end with another party about new years. Belle Parsons and George Wilson are the new leaders.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spence and family are getting settled in their newly purchased home, formerly the Buxton place, recently occupied by Ran Bailey and family.

The Multnomah County Council of Parent-Teacher association meets at Troutdale next Saturday in the church basement for an all-day session. Lunch at noon. Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, newly elected president of the Oregon P. T. A., will be the speaker. Professor Coleman will also speak.

Parent-Teacher association meets next Friday afternoon.

A heavy concentration on ages ending in five and zero are always reported at a census. The Census Bureau has made many efforts to overcome this inaccurate tendency on the part of the people when stating ages.

POWELL VALLEY

The December meeting of the Powell Valley Parent-Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday, the 19th. This is a most important meeting. Club work which has proved so very successful in Powell Valley during the past year is to be discussed. Miss Ethel Calkins will be present and will discuss club work in general but especially the subject of what the district can do to help the state canning team, to win at Spokane next fall. While club work is very well liked by both parents and children in Powell Valley, action on the part of a few recently makes it necessary for the parents to endorse the work of the club leader in the school, before it will be possible for club work to be carried on in anything like its former enthusiasm. Plans are already underway for another canning team, perhaps two, to compete at the county fair next fall. If the parents of Powell Valley approve of the opportunities for practical education for their children which the club work affords it is desired that they give this their attention.

The friends of Mrs. Sarah Swedberg were shocked Sunday evening to learn that she had quietly passed away about 7 o'clock. She was ill only a short time and no one thought but that she would soon be well again. Mrs. Swedberg had lived for a number of years with her son-in-law, J. J. Johnson and family. She was born in Westmenlud, Sweden, February 2, 1837. She leaves to mourn her loss, her son-in-law, J. J. Johnson, and the following grandchildren, Axel Johnson and wife, Powell Valley; the Misses Florence and Hulda Johnson, Portland; Oscar Johnson who lives in the east. The funeral has been set for 2 o'clock, Wednesday from the Mission church in Powell Valley.

The regular meeting of the Luther League will be held at the church next Sunday evening. As usual an excellent program will be given by the young people which all are invited to attend.

The Luther League choir will hold their next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson.

The Swedish Lutheran Aid society will hold their annual bazaar at the church Saturday evening, December the 13th. Refreshments will be sold after the sale. The ladies have gathered a collection of useful and beautiful articles for sale. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Staffenson Wednesday afternoon. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The new parsonage which has just been finished by the Lutheran congregation for their pastor will be dedicated with appropriate services December 17th. Rev. and Mrs. J. Truedson are to move into their new home today.

BORING

The Country Culture club met at the home of Mrs. Roy White, December 4. It was decided to dispense with any further meetings until after the Christmas holidays. The first meeting of the club after the holidays will be held at the home of Mrs. H. M. Johnson on January 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Zivney, of Canada, are spending the winter at the home of Mrs. Zivney's brothers, Joe and Cornelius Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandstrom and children, of Portland, have moved onto the Guy White place.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview grange held its regular meeting on Saturday, with the master, Jessie Miller, in the chair. Mrs. Miller has been away for some time and members of the Fairview grange were glad to see her back. S. B. Hall was there and gave a very interesting talk. Election of officers was held and the following were elected: master, Jessie Miller; overseer, Mrs. J. W. Townsend; lecturer, Mrs. C. H. Stone; secretary, Roy Stone; steward, Mrs. Windle; assistant steward, Clyde Stone; lady assistant steward, Mrs. J. W. Moller; gatekeeper, Mrs. S. Bliss; chaplain, Rev. I. B. Self; treasurer, J. W. Townsend; Ceres, Margaret Jonas; Pomona, Josephine Townsend; Flora, Clara Sales; pianist, Mrs. S. Dixon.

George Shaw is reported as improving nicely. He is in a Portland hospital where he underwent an operation on Wednesday.

Mrs. Jenkins Moore is improving slowly from a severe spell of erysipelas.

A Want Ad costs only a few cents. Dollars in return.

CORBETT

Columbia grange enjoyed a very profitable session at their regular meeting Saturday, December 6. The forenoon was taken up with business and the afternoon with the regular annual election of officers. The following were chosen: James Benfield, master; Clara Smith, overseer; Ada O'Connell, lecturer; James Ross, treasurer; H. C. Vee, secretary. H. W. Snashall and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons of Gresham grange were welcome visitors. The grange will give a dance on the evening of December 20th.

One of Corbett's greatest needs at present time is tenement houses. We have a fine school and people who desire to locate here to give their children advantage of the schooling contest cannot do so on account of no available houses.
