Near East Situation Now "Most Desperate in World," Says Hoover.

© 1919, Underwood & Underwood.
Herbert Hoover.

Herbert Hoover, who has now become a member of the Executive Committee of Near East Relief, which is caring for nearly 2,000,000 Armenian and Syrian refugees and who, if any one, speaks with authority when he tells of human suffering, says in a formal statement:

"In my opinion, the situation in the Near East is the most desperate in the world."

Mr. Hoover has sent a letter to Cleveland H. Dodge, treasurer of Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York, in which he says:

"In accepting your invitation to become a member of the Executive Committee of the Near East committee, I do so with reluctance, but out of a sense of duty towards one of the most difficult situations in Europe. Until some political settlement can be obtained for the Near East and some government established in responsibility for the care and repatriation of the Armenian population in the Caucasus, this mass of people must live sheerly by the charity of the United States. There are in the Caucasus approximately 1,800,000 Armenians, of whom 800,000 are entirely destitute—refugees from Turkey—and amongst them a tremendous mass of children.

"I cannot too strongly urge upon the members of the committee and their supporters the critical necessity of concentrating every possible effort to support Colonel Haskell's administration in the amounts that he requires; otherwise we shall witness one of the greatest tragedies of the entire war."

BANDITS ATTACK HARBORD, THINKING HIM ARMENIAN

Because he and members of his party were mistaken for Armenians, Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord, head of the American Mission to Armenia, narrowly escaped death at the hands of a band of marauding bandits a few miles from Mount Ararat. Major General Harbord has just returned to the United States and made a report to President Wilson on the distressing conditions in the Near East, where American charity is saving thousands of lives through the Near East Relief.

What would you make of the following?

That that is is that that is not is not is not that it it is.

This shows the importance of punctuation, for, behold how simple the whole thing becomes when properly punctuated. Here it is:

That that is, is; that that is not, is not. Is not that it? It is.

CORBETT COUPLE WED ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Clara Mannthey, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mannthey, and Charles A. Lofstedt, both of Corbett, Oregon were united in marriage yesterday afternoon, December 25, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, of Gresham officiating. After the ceremony about 30 relatives and friends partook of a splendid wedding dinner. The newly married couple will live on the 40-acre farm near Corbett, recently purchased by the groom.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. Erickson, who for the past year and a half has lived in Portland, has returned to her home in Powell Valley. Her many friends are glad to see her home again.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Swedberd, who died December 7, were held at the Swedish Mission church Monday afternoon. Many friends gathered to pay their last respects to a beloved friends. Interment was in the Douglass cemetery.

P. A. Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson and C. A. Johnson were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lind.

There was a splendid program in the primary room of the school Wednesday afternoon which a large number of friends and parents attended. Each of the pupils received a drawing book from their teacher, Miss Elenor Lindberg. There was also a grab bag in which the children found a gift from some other pupil in the schoolroom. After the distribution of gifts to the children, Santa Claus (Cecil Gustafson) found he had left one package, which proved to be a gift from the children to their teacher.

A splendid program was given by the Mission church Christmas night. Everyone who was fortunate enough to be present express themselves as delighted.

A delightful day was spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson when they entertained a party of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustafson and children of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Swan Magnuson and children, and John Larson and daughters, Judith and Helen, of Powell Valley.

There was a family party at the home of Mrs. Minnie Nystrom Christmas when her children all came home. The Misses Florence and Hulda Johnson and J. J. Johnson were also present.

PLEASANT HOME

Of whom shall man be afraid? Of weather prophets? of the end of the world? These timely questions will be discussed at the Pleasant Home Methodist church Sunday morning, December 28. Rev. Earl B. Cotton, the pastor, will give the third in his series The Fundamentals of the Christian Faith. Sub-topic, "Man's Arch Enemy." Sunday school will meet at the usual hour, 10 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood entertained a jolly dinner party at their home Christmas day. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Calder of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larson of Boring, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams and Miss Elva Dolan of Pleasant Home.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz Christmas were the Misses Jennie and Carrie DeShazer of Portland.

Services at the Baptist church Sunday will be the Bible school at 10 a. m. Rev. E. A. Leonard will preach at 7:30 p. m. After the preaching services the members will meet to consider the calling of a pastor.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

A splendid program was given by the pupils of the Cedar school Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance of friends and parents and everyone had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eberlie are leaving this week for a visit in Ohio where they have many friends and relatives. Mr. Eberlie's brother, Otto Eberlie will manage the farm during his absence.

Sunday school will meet at Iliff church next Sunday at the usual hour, 3 o'clock. On account of the storm, there has been no services for the past two Sundays. It is planned to have several Christmas numbers by the scholars, after which Rev. Earl B. Cotton will tell one of Henry Dykes beautiful Christmas stories. A special collection will be taken for the relief of the Armenian children. All are invited to attend.

A much enjoyed Christmas program was given by the pupils of the Victory school Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Marion Robertson, the teacher. There was a community Christmas tree in connection with the program and many gifts were received by those present. The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held after the program. Plans for a drama and supper, to be given in January, were discussed, the proceeds to be used in standardizing the school. Cake, sandwiches and coffee were served. Everyone, young and old, had a delightful evening.

Pearl Oil is Growing in Favor.

More Pearl Oil (kerosene) is being sold this year for heating, cooking and lighting than ever before, according to the Standard Oil company. Since the chilly weather has come, the demand for this convenient and economical fuel has almost exceeded the supply. Housewives everywhere are evidently coming to appreciate fully the comfort, convenience and economy of heating with a good oil heater and Pearl Oil. There is no greater combination of chill and damp chasers anywhere.

An easy victory makes the victors soft.

Notice

Gresham grange will hold an all-day special session on Saturday, December 27, for the purpose of electing the local grange officers for the coming year and also to vote for five officers of the Oregon state grange. All members are earnestly requested to attend.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.

The most arbitrary city boss in the world, it seems safe to say, as well as the most unscrupulous politician of modern times, has turned up in Aintab, Armenia, to judge from an official report recently made by Major Stephen Trowbridge, under Gen. Edmund H. H. Allenby's orders.

He is a Turk named Besim Bey. Until the Near East Relief agents stopped him, he practiced upon the terrified Armenians such forms of super-graft as might well make every other corrupt politician in the world green with envy, and such cruelties as make all other heartless rulers, from Nero down, seem sweet and gentle characters. His office was that of Municipal Chief Accountant of Aintab; but, as all dishonest office-holders know, it isn't the job that matters, but the sugar-plums that go with it. Besim Bey plucked sugar-plums with both hands, night and day.

Even inspired city bosses have their day. Besim Bey's came when the Near East Relief agents found that no thorough Armenian relief work could be done in that city while such conditions of terrorization existed. General MacAndrew ordered the arrest and removal of the six worst Turks in the ring that ruled the city, and Besim Bey qualified, as usual, for first place.
