THE REASONS FOR THE CLUB

- To provide a way for those of moderate and even small means to bank their money.
- To teach "the saving habit" to those who have never learned it.
- To give young folks a practical education about money—by showing them that if they give up the little things they want today, they can get the big things later.
- To give you a "bank connection" and show you how our bank can be of service to you.

WHO GETS THE MONEY YOU EARN?

Money spent is money gone—Money Banked is money SAVED.
It isn't the money you make that counts, but the money you save, and there is no better way to acquire a bank account than by joining our Christmas Banking Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Hyman, of Colton were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moor's Wednesday, of this week.

Any way the 24367 voters who cast their ballots for Victor L. Berger's return to congress were better citizens than the good (?) people who stayed at home and did not go to the polls.

When you start over the beaten path it's astonishing to note that the woods are fairly filled with attractive by-paths and that your feet just naturally pull you into them while your head is pulling the other way.

TROUTDALE

Services at the Methodist church Sunday will include Sunday school at 10 o'clock in the morning with good classes for all. The young people's class is in the midst of an attendance campaign under the leadership of Belle Parsons and George Wilson.

Regular preaching services will be held in the evening at which time the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, will discuss several questions of interest under the topic of "Man's Arch Enemy." Of whom shall man be afraid? Of weather prophets? Of the end of the world? This is the third of the series "Fundamentals of the Christian Faith."

Affairs are gradually getting settled back to normal here since the storm. All emerged from shut-in conditions soon enough to enjoy a happy Christmas, which was celebrated by many a contented family group.

School was resumed Thursday of last week and continued up till Christmas, thus getting in five days after the storm. The teachers, Mr. Bradley and Mrs. Janet Grant, sent the children home happy Wednesday with a treat of cuts, candy, and oranges and appropriate gifts for them.

Christmas exercises were held by the Sunday school in the church Wednesday evening. The storm had seriously interfered with preparing a program, but by dint of earnestness and energy with the valued assistance of Mrs. Grant, the teachers and pupils gave a very creditable program, after which a treat of candy and popcorn and puffed rice balls was given to all present which treat was provided by the superintendent, George Lumsden, and the young people's class.

Mrs. Hattie Bailey, of Seaside, Oregon spent Christmas at the home of her cousin, A. D. Kendall.

The Hensley road just west of Troutdale was cleared out so mail got through Christmas, much to the joy of the patrons of Route A, Portland. It is good to have the mail daily in the boxes once more.

Morris McGinnis and family have moved to the house on the Spence place, formerly Huxton, recently occupied by the Jay Bailey family. The Baileys moved out just the afternoon before the storm, and the McGinnises were packed and ready when the fury of the storm prevented their going. They were kindly invited by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Low to remain with them till the weather was better. They are now getting settled in their new home.

The L. A. Harlows spent Christmas in town this year. The eldest son, Jack, has been ill for some time, and they have taken him to Portland to be nearer the doctor for treatment.

And ask him about the

I will try and get in with him and be initiated and slip a $1000 policy into sweetheart's stocking on Christmas eve.

IF YOU'LL GIVE US JUST ONE TRIAL - THEN YOU'LL TRADE HERE QUITE AWHILE!

WE KNOW TO A POSITIVE CERTAINTY that if you will give us a trial order you will become a steady patron of this shop. It's happened so many times that a person has come in and purchased a small order of meat, and then come back to express their delight and gratification and leave another order. This sort of thing surely helps our business.
