COUNTY COUNCIL PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

An excellent program has been arranged for the meeting of the Multnomah County Council Parent-Teacher association to be held at Troutdale on next Saturday, January 24. Mrs. John Lynch, president of the association, announces that the meeting will be called to order promptly at 11 o'clock, when a large delegation from the Parent-Teacher associations of the county is expected.

After the business session in the forenoon dinner will be served in the basement of the church. Visiting patrons will supply themselves with sandwiches, other articles of food being furnished by the Troutdale circle.

Prof. R. Coleman of Oregon Agricultural College will speak at the afternoon session on physical training, and Judge Jacob Kanzler will give an address on the work of the domestic relations court. All members and others interested are invited.

Some of the honey is taken out of honeymoon when either the bride or bridegroom begins telling of the good times he had "before we were married."

FAIRVIEW

A pleasant social evening was held by the Fairview Parent-Teacher circle last Wednesday, which consisted of a program by pupils of the school and others from away. Mrs. John Lynch, president of the County Council, talked on the work of that organization. Miss Gladys Michel of Gresham sang a much-appreciated solo, accompanied by her sister, Miss Maude Michel. These special features, together with the part taken by the pupils of the school, made a most enjoyable evening.

SANDY BLUFF

Jerome Brook visited home folks Sunday.

A. J. Ault has gone back to the Cameron & Hogg mill where he is employed, after several weeks off on account of snow and repairs.

A. Browning purchased a very fine heater at the R. I. Anderson sale.

Harry King, of Grass Valley, was a recent visitor with his sister, Mrs. Laura Barnes.

Impostors always believe that a soft-hearted man is soft-headed.

FAREWELL RECEPTION GIVEN SHRINER FAMILY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz at Pleasant Home was the scene of a delightful reception which was given under the auspices of the Methodist Aid, Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Shriner and their son, Lloyd, who are leaving soon for Ashland where they will make their future home. Dr. A. B. Calder, of Portland, a former pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, the pastor, and G. H. Bickford, Sunday school superintendent, were the speakers of the evening. A violin solo by Leon Caddy was much enjoyed, also a trio by Mrs. Mary Johnson, Miss Helen Bickford and G. H. Bickford.

The Ladies' Aid society presented Mrs. Shriner with a silver nut bowl as an expression of their appreciation of her work for the society. Mrs. Shriner was a charter member of the organization. Rev. Earl B. Cotton made the speech of presentation.

After the more formal part of the program was over the young people gathered in one of the larger rooms where they had a delightful time in games. Informal singing added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Refreshments were served at a late hour after which the guests departed with many expressions of appreciation for the delightful evening which they had enjoyed and best wishes for the future success and happiness of the Shriners when they go to their new home. There were about 75 members and friends present.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

The Victory Parent-Teacher held their regular meeting last Friday evening at the schoolhouse. They plan to start work on the drama this week.

Mrs. Iva Littlepage, of Portland, visited over Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Alder.

Charles Tallman is just recovering from an attack of mumps. Miss Caroline Tallman, the teacher, is staying at the home of Mrs. Grace Fritz during her brother's quarantine.

Wm. Metzger, of Lakeview, is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. W. Alder, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larsen, of Boronia, spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood. Mrs. Emma G. Lousignont, of Portland, is visiting this week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Wood.

Lawrence Wilhelm is in a Portland hospital where he was operated on last Saturday. He was some better Sunday evening. Miss Florence Wilhelm is home from Grass Valley for a few days until her father is out of danger.

Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoover Died This Morning

LeRoy Franklin Hoover, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Hoover, died at the home of his grandparents at Hoover station, at 3:45 this morning after a battle with pneumonia. He was one year, three months and fifteen days old, an only child.

Funeral services will be held at the Baptist church, Thursday, January 22, but definite arrangements regarding the hour have not yet been made. Interment will be in the Mt. Scott cemetery.

PLEASANT HOME

C. L. Williams, who has been for some time in Portland, where he was operated on for cataract of the eye is home again. He is slowly improving.

I. N. L. Shriner will hold a public sale at his home Wednesday, Jan. 21. It is expected there will be a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Edsol Markell attended the meeting of the Eastern Star at Troutdale last Saturday evening.

There is a growing interest in the prayer meetings held at the M. E. church on Wednesday evenings. Attendance is increasing and the meetings are proving very helpful. The meeting opens at 7:30 p. m.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the grange hall at Orient Saturday, when the Multnomah grange gave their program and pie social. There were a number of recitations by the smaller children, and a duet by Harlan and Crystal Hayden. Miss Marion Robertson sang a beautiful solo which was heartily encored. She responded with a witty little song which was much enjoyed. Mrs. Geo. Hayden and Mrs. Alta Gentry gave entertaining readings. R. I. Anderson auctioned off the pies which brought in the sum of $32.30.

Lively interest developed Sunday over the efforts of the Sunshine club to win the attendance and collection banners. The Up-streamer's class gave them a good race. The Sunshine club won both, however, by one member and one cent in collection. It is likely they will have to work even harder next Sunday to hold their honors. There were 12 present in the Sunshine class this Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. S. Ford and the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Hatton from Minneapolis, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lennartz. Rev. and Mrs. Ford are busy greeting the many friends they made here during the time Rev. Ford was the pastor here. He is pastor at Banks this year.

The Orient Parent-Teacher association will hold their regular meeting at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon, January 23, at 2:15 p. m.

The subject to be discussed will be "The Value of Milk as Food." C. H. Johanson who attended Farmers Week at O. A. C., will present the subject, and a general discussion will follow. The purpose is to popularize milk as a part of the noon lunch.

Plans will be made to have the association represented at the County Council which will meet the following Saturday, January 24, at Troutdale.

Mrs. Clara Lauderback and Mrs. Howard Lake will serve refreshments.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid has sent out a S. O. S. call for help. They are planning on a house cleaning at the church and the Aid of several men is needed. Work will commence about 10 o'clock. Dinner will be served at noon and they expect to be through early in the afternoon.
