POWELL VALLEY

The Misses Martha and Mary Larsen, of Omaha, are visiting with Mrs. L. Berg, this week.

Mrs. Frank Gustafson and Mrs. Swan Magnuson called on Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lind last Wednesday evening.

The Mission Ladies' Aid will meet at the church, Thursday, February 5. Mrs. O. F. Lind will be the hostess. All are invited to attend.

Services at the Mission church Sunday are as follows. Sunday school at 10 o'clock in the morning. In the evening the service will commence at 7:30 p. m. and will be in charge of the deacons. Rev. Mr. Hawkinson will be in Portland.

The pupils of the primary room had a vacation Wednesday when their teacher, Miss Ellnor Lindberg, was taken ill. Miss Lindberg went to her home in Portland. Later reports are that she is improving and will probably be able to teach the first of the week. Miss Ruth Hartley taught the last two days of this week in the primary room.

THE FIRE FLINGERS

The impersonation of a dead man by one who would be accused of his murder if the death were known, is the novel situation that forms the basis of "The Fire Flingers," Rupert Julian's latest Universal picture, which will be at the Gresham Theater, Saturday, January 31 at 7 and 8:45 p. m.

Julian plays both the dead man and the impostor. The picture is based on a Saturday Evening Post story of the same name by William J. Neidig.

In the cast with Julian—who also directed the picture, are Jane Novak, Fay Tincher, Fred Kelsey, Clyde Fillmore, Fritzie Ridgeway and E. A. Warren. Waldemar Young wrote the scenario.

LOCAL DOINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

John Afolter of Neskowin, Oregon, was a visitor at the Fred Mewhirter home, Thursday.

Pat Collins has bought the Carl Alder home in Regner's addition and will take possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Alder plan to leave soon for southern California. They will travel by auto camping out and taking in as many of the sights as possible. They will visit friends and relatives on the way. They expect to go as far south as Los Angeles.

Dr. E. E. Gilbert, of Salem, will preach at the M. E. church this evening (Friday). Dr. Gilbert is the newly appointed superintendent of the Salem district of the Oregon Methodist conference and is considered one of the most able speakers of the conference. The Watts sisters of Beaverton will be present and sing in their usual charming manner. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mrs. Sherman Lyon, who lives east of town, is quite ill with the grip. She was just recovering from an attack of the grip when a daughter in Portland was taken ill. Mrs. Lyon helped to care for her and contracted the disease again. She is somewhat better today.

Miss Ethel Calkins was in Gresham on business Thursday driving a new Overland car which she has just received.

W. H. Cooley, who for the past week, has been seriously ill is reported somewhat improved this morning.

Richard Heiney and Davil Cathey have each purchased new Fords recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Turnbull, who have been visiting in Canada since the middle of September, returned about two weeks ago and are visiting Mrs. Turnbull's family and other friends in this vicinity. They had a most delightful trip through Canada visiting many large cities. They traveled as far east as Winnipeg. At the present time they are with Mrs. Turnbull's sons, Fred and Hector Morgan, in the Victory district.

Miss Ruth Hartley is substituting at Powell Valley school this week for the primary teacher, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larsen, of Borling, have purchased the house on Main and Fifth street which was owned by Bert Thomas. The deal was made through Krider & Elkington.

Mrs. Reed Chamberlain and Mrs. Earl Preston, of Portland, spent last Tuesday with the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilbur McCollaugh. Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. McCollaugh are cousins. They had not met for 14 years.

Mrs. Bert Inman and Miss Lillian Jager, of Dayton, Oregon, are visiting with Mrs. R. D. Bailey.

A very pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman last Wednesday when the Methodist Ladies' Aid society met and started work on the aprons for the sale to be held some time in the near future. There were about 30 ladies present during the afternoon session. Several ladies were present during the morning and prepared work for the afternoon. A good start was made and the aprons were most attractive. The members reported 29 calls made on the sick and newcomers. A number of members were absent on account of sickness. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses at the close of a busy afternoon.

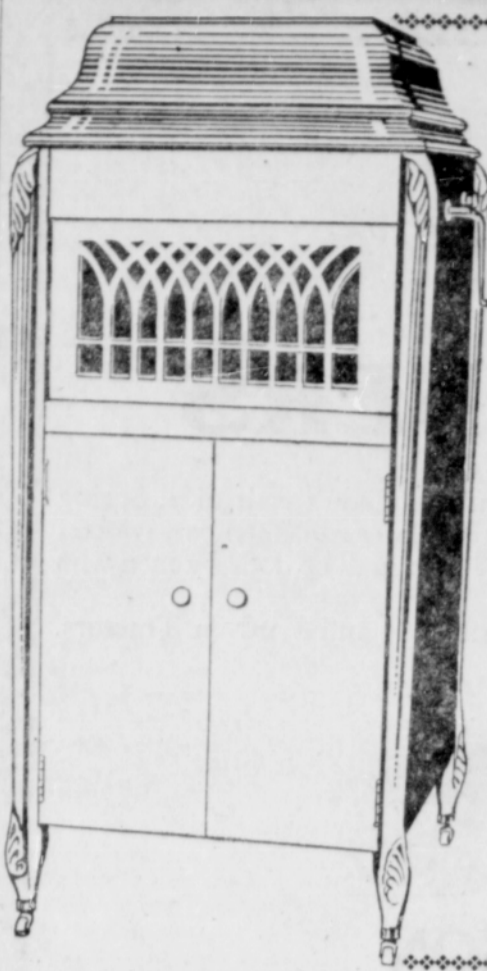

Krider & Elkington report the sale of 12 1/2 acres of land at Barton station to E. B. Leonard of Portland. Mr. Leonard will make his home there. The sale was made for Sherman Lyon. Another piece of property which has just been sold by this company is the house and lot on Third street and Hood avenue. Geo. W. Kenney has purchased this property from Mrs. Nellie K. Wirtz. Seven property transfers have been put through this month through this one company which total $44,200.

The regular meeting of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella Middleton, west of Gresham. Installation of officers was held with Mrs. D. D. Jack installing officer. Lunch was served which proved to be a veritable banquet. A very delightful time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss took a load of Gresham ladies with them in their car.

The Baptist Missionary circle will meet Wednesday, February 4 at the home of Mrs. A. J. W. Brown. The usual date is on Thursday but was changed to Wednesday in order that Miss Burch, a worker from the Italian mission in Portland, might be present. Miss Burch will speak on missionary work. A full program will be published later.

Miss Mamie Hoss had the ligaments broken apart in her hand last Tuesday. Since the cast was removed her hand has been useless because of the ligaments having grown together.
