Governor Lowden's "Declaration of Principles."

Gov. Frank O. Lowden has issued a "declaration of principles" in his race for the Republican nomination for president.

"Immediate return to an efficient, economical and business administration of public affairs."

"Reduction of taxes."

"Abolition of numerous agencies for war purposes which have been continued at enormous expense in times of peace."

"A protective tariff measured by the difference in cost of production at home and abroad."

"Rigid insistence upon government by all the people and not by any class."

"Ratification of the Peace Treaty with reservations substantially, as proposed by the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate."

"Encouragement of agriculture and recognition that it is, and must remain, our most important industry."

"Exclusion or deportation of aliens who place the red flag above our own."

"A stalwart, uncompromising Americanism which puts this country's interests first."

"International friendships, not international partnerships."

"Fearless enforcement of law and order."

"A speedy return to normal relations."

"Justice to all."

H. L. St. Clair, editor and manager of the Gresham (Ore.) Outlook, grabbed opportunity by the forelock and when Oregon's most severe storm in many seasons broke in December—hurried about, got photos, and engravings made for pictures in his special Christmas edition on December 16.

These with Autocaster's up-to-the-minute cartoons made his twice-a-week look like a snappy metropolitan daily.—The Autocaster Bugle.

The Ideal Brother.

Whenever and wherever my work, by day or night, in peace or in war, on land or sea, outside or in office, home or at large, confined or free, may I be patient, poised and thorough, loyal to women and men, unselfish in labor and pure in life.

May I hold that to be true is better than gold, that service is proportionate to preparation, and reward to labor. May I respect, but not worship my own opinion, seek the advice of others often, be slow in judgment and cautious in word and deed and mingle in mind and touch with good men and women.

May I be strong with the weak, the foolish, honest with myself and kind to all others. May I shun jealousy and eschew envy, follow progress, beware lest the demand of life chill my enthusiasm, play sometimes and wander when I may.

May I take injustice gracefully, disappointment easily, fight affliction cheerfully, believe victory and defeat equally a part of life's plans and rise from both fresh for repeated conflict. May I remember that I must meet sickness like my brothers and face death and pass with them beyond the river, and may I go with a smile.

Those who attempt to make noise take the place of intelligence in their conversations would object to paying a silk price for a piece of cotton cloth.

WOMEN'S CLUBS ENDORSE BUDGET SYSTEM

The United States government is putting on an active campaign to teach the American people the need of saving to offset the mad craze of spending which has followed the good wages and prosperity attending war times.

The general Federation of Women's clubs is co-operating with the government in an effort to interest housewives in the budget system in the management of their households during 1920. More than four million women have already pledged themselves to start this month using this system.

"Thousands and thousands of women", said Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight, state chairman of thrift for the California Federation of Women's Clubs, "never know until the end of the month when the bills come in what they have spent during that month."

The women of the nation, through their great organization, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, have at last recognized that it is not enough to make both ends of the income meet. The ends must overlap, and overlap sufficiently to provide a margin of saving for the future."

When the women get their budget systems running they will invest their savings with the Government in Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates. The household budget system is an idea which the Savings Division of the Treasury Department has been advocating for more than a year, and the government anticipates that when it is generally adopted in the American home waste and extravagance will be cut to the minimum.

PASTOR BEQUEATHS HIS CHRISTIAN FAITH

The will of the late Rev. T. E. Ford, superintendent of the Salem district of the Methodist church at the time of his death, was filed for probate in Oregon City yesterday.

It provides for the payment of his debts and his funeral expenses and directs that his burial and casket shall be simple. It divides his money equally with his four children and provides for the disposal of books and manuscripts and makes the following striking and unusual bequest:

"I hereby bequeath my Christian faith in God Almighty, the most precious and priceless possession which I have, or which any person can have, to my beloved children, and I commend them to the saving power of the Lord Jesus Christ, whose faithful servant I have been and still am, world without end."

The will was drawn April 8, 1918, and was witnessed by Rev. E. E. Gilbert and Roy B. Cox.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Donley, of Portland, spent a few days last week visiting at the home of Mr. Donley's mother, Mrs. M. E. Donley.

Mrs. L. R. and Laura E. Downing, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Campbell last Sunday.

Mrs. C. F. Kesterson, who has been visiting relatives and friends hereabouts for the past two weeks, has returned to her home at Kellogg, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rolfe and family, of Damascus, were callers at the home of T. P. Campbell one evening recently.

Henry Troge was looking after business matters in Lents Wednesday.

G. H. Richey is visiting with friends at Corvallis this week.

G. H. Richey attended the fair board meeting held in Gresham Monday.

C. A. Windle, editor of Braun's Iconoclast, writing on socialism says, "Members of the working class who accept as truths the absurdities of socialism, naturally lose interest in religion. They also cease to be concerned about morality, justice, truth and patriotism." "A philosophy based on atheism, invites error, encourages deception, undermines reason, laughs at honor, defies religion, and prepares the victim to accept every species of heresy known to folly and ignorance."

The best way to get out of trouble is never to get in. All other ways are imitations.

TROUTDALE

A new enterprise coming to Troutdale this year is a wool pullery, Bissinger & Company of Portland, wool and hide dealers, have bought twelve acres across the railroad track from the town, and expect to begin building the plant about April 1. A. Shields, the manager of the company, was here this week arranging for the wrecking of the old buildings of the former packing plant which are still standing. The largest building burned down about three years ago. The business, when it gets going, will employ from 100 to 125 men.

The young people's class in the Sunday school made preliminary plans for an organization last Sunday. The following officers were elected: president, George Wilson; vice president, James Spence; secretary, Clarence Parsons; treasurer, Merle Monahan. A meeting is called for three o'clock next Sunday at the home of the secretary, Clarence Parsons, when committees will be appointed and organization will be completed.

An unusually interesting meeting of the Ladies' Aid society was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Mary Parsons. Twenty-four ladies were in attendance. Routing business was attended to, and the ladies worked at piecing a quilt and other sewing. Mrs. Parsons' dainty lunch was very much enjoyed, also the singing and piano selections by Mrs. L. A. Harlow. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Herbert Bradley on March 3d.

Evelyn Kendall, who is attending the University of Washington at Seattle, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kendall. Last week Mrs. May Kennedy and Wallace (Jack) Johnson were married in Vancouver. They are living in Troutdale at present, but expect to move to Vancouver soon.

The Troutdale Parent-Teacher association will have their regular meeting next Friday afternoon, February 13 at the schoolhouse.

Word was received here from Portland Thursday morning of the serious illness from grip, of Lou Kummer, formerly of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wallace left Thursday morning for Condon to spend the summer.

SPRINGDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wyllon and baby are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. H. It is reported they intend to locate near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Love recently left here to make their home in California. It is said the house vacated by them is to be occupied by Mrs. Lucy Kincaid.

The Eugene Birney family will soon return to this neighborhood, having purchased land north of this place. When their children enter school here, the enrollment will be 49 or 50 pupils, as we now have 45.

Our "peppy" little teacher, Miss Ruby Alexander, has great ability, but we hope our directors will shorten her vacation to the fact that two teachers should be employed. It is asking too much of one teacher—education now-a-days, asks about three times as much of a teacher as it did 25 or 30 years ago. Miss Alexander is to be commended for her extreme faithfulness to her duties.

The Vance family will shortly leave to make their home in the Yakima valley. It is understood that a family by the name of Coons will occupy the farm they vacate. The Windsor children had a siege of the grip last week. All are now recovered.

Both Will Shelley and little daughter, Pearl, were afflicted with the grip for a few days last week and other members of the family had had colds, but all are well now.

Mrs. Emma Bourgeois and Mrs. Walter Shelley visited in Portland Sunday last.

Mrs. George Shelley, who has been quite sick with smallpox, is making a glow recovery. No other member of the family has as yet come down with the disease, and it is hoped that by the isolation of the patient and the strict sanitary measures employed, they may escape.

Mrs. James Jefferson, who is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Mershon, is rapidly recovering from a slight indisposition.
