PLEASANT HOME

In spite of the fact that so many people of the community were ill last week there was a good attendance at the church services Sunday morning. Many expressions were heard about the helpfulness of the service.

The topic of the sermon for next Sunday morning will be "Our Future."

The Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. and preaching services begin promptly at 11 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Meyers and son, Harry, also Charles Weiss of Fairview, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz, Sunday.

Mrs. M. A. LaDue, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Edsol Markell, left this week for Enterprise, Oregon, to visit her son who lives on a large wheat ranch near that town.

Grandpa and Grandma Day have sold their place at Pleasant Home and moved last Wednesday. They will make their home with their son Emerson Day who lives near Salem.

Mr. Baun and family, who have bought the home of the Days have already taken up their residence here.

Mrs. A. G. Rich and W. A. Proctor Jr., are both seriously ill with pleurisy. Their many friends wish them a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell spent Wednesday in Portland where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Markell's niece, Miss Gertrude Manary, who was married to G. W. Smith of Ogden, Utah.

POWELL VALLEY

Mrs. Frank Gustafson and son Lloyd visited Monday with her sister, Mrs. Richard Gustafson, in Portland.

E. A. Taylor has just finished winding his raspberry vines on the wires. Mr. Taylor is using the new method of winding the vines instead of pruning them. The vines look very attractive when handled in this way. He is also grafting a number of the fruit trees on his place.

The Powell Valley road has received a coat of fine gravel which will do much to put the roads in good condition.

There will be no preaching services at the Lutheran church next Sunday on account of the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. Truedson. Rev. Mr. Truedson will be at Brush Prairie, Washington, where he will preach.

Ed. Elliott's family are all better now. They have been ill with influenza.

Miss Florence Johnson is seriously ill with pleurisy at the home of her brother, Axel Johnson. Miss Hilda Staffenson is helping to care for her.

Mrs. J. Lundquist has been ill for the past few weeks, neighbors are caring for her.

Olive Woodie, who was quite seriously ill with scarlet fever, has recovered. No other members of the family have contracted the disease as yet.

Jas. Williams and family, who have been living near the oil tanks on the Powell Valley road, are building a house on their farm near L. Berg's home. They expect to move in a few weeks.

Mrs. Frank Gustafson and Mrs. Alta Gentry called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sell Wednesday evening.

Miss Elinor Lindberg has entirely recovered from her recent illness and will be ready to resume her place in the primary room whenever it is thought wise to open school.

LUSTED

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Rauw and children spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Rauw.

Among the recent real estate transfers is the John Sleret farm of 80 acres to Morgan Bros., of the Victory district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffls are moving to the Blackburn farm near Cottrell station.

Mrs. L. Ostrand, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Smith and children, Irma and Mabel, of Dallas, were week-end visitors at the J. H. Weeks home.

F. E. Weatherwax is clearing several acres of land.

Among those ill with grip are the Ralph Neibauer and Abner Griffls families.

TROUTDALE

The regular preaching service will be held at the Troutdale church Sunday evening and the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, will take for his subject "Our Future." The service begins at 7:30 p. m. An invitation is extended to all to attend this service and also the Sunday school which meets at 11 o'clock.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

The adult Bible class will continue the study of the question "Was Christ divine at the same time He was human?" The balance of the hour will be spent on lesson six "The Ministry of Jesus." The junior class will commence the study of the life of Joseph.

All the children having attendance cards will be glad to know that a new supply of the large cards has been received and will be ready for distribution Sunday.

Harlan Hayden and Floyd Stafford are recovering from operations for the removal of their tonsils and adenoids last Tuesday.

FAIRVIEW

The county clerk has appointed R. R. Morrell to register voters in Fairview. There is no charge for registrations. If you are registered yourself tell your new neighbor about it, so that this precinct may be 100 per cent registered.

There will be services as usual in the Fairview church Sunday. Sunday school 10 o'clock. Preaching by Dr. Benson at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7:30. Dr. Hays will speak.

Bad breath, colorless lips, sallow cheeks give a girl little chance for "a man"—Don't give up, try Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea and see how popular you get.—Powell's Pharmacy.
