Columbia Semi-Maleable Ranges

The Columbia is the Acme of Quality in ranges it embodies all the latest improvements in construction and design. It is attractively finished, and the general construction is extremely strong and substantial. The top is semi-maleable iron, highly polished and requires no blacking. All exposed parts, or parts liable to breakage are made of maleable iron. The top rim is of one solid piece of maleable iron without seams or joints. The main body is of one piece Wellsville polished steel, known for its rust resisting qualities. As a quick, perfect baker, the Columbia Range is unequalled. Nickel plated towel rail, full length of the stove.

These ranges can be supplied with or without reservoir. Note the sanitary construction of the shelf. They are equipped with white porcelain panel in the oven door and white porcelain splashers on high closet.

LOCAL DOINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Harry Lusted and family, of Lenta, visited his mother, Mrs. L. T. Lusted, last Tuesday evening. When driving into Gresham one of the wheels of his car came off, but as he was on a level road and going slowly, no damage was done.

Mrs. Fred Todd is just recovering from an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

LaDessa Davies, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past week, is improving and it is hoped will soon be able to return to school.

Wm. Thom has bought the Will Maxwell property on South Roberts avenue, formerly belonging to Joe Exley.

Florence Kern celebrated her 14th birthday last Sunday with a dinner party at which Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Botkin and children were guests. True to the traditions of the day, Florence is a very patriotic girl. Flags and national colors made up the house decorations.

Rev. Robert Kay, who was recently called as pastor of the Gresham Baptist church, will preach his first sermon at his new pastorate next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He expects to preach here every Sunday morning hereafter. All are most cordially invited to attend and give the pastor a warm welcome. On next Sunday night Rev. A. J. Ware of Oregon City will preach and the Aldridge quartet of that place will sing.

The W. F. and George F. Honey families entertained last week Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kester of Valier, Montana and Mr. and Mrs. West of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Canada, old friends of the Honeys in North Dakota. They also had as guests this week their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris of Cavalier, North Dakota.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society will meet next Wednesday, March 3, for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. B. L. Walrad, to finish the sewing for the sale on March 17. Those coming please bring lunch. All ladies are invited.

A marriage license was issued Thursday to W. J. Mershon and Miss Susie Shelley of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Brasswell have moved into the Helney cottage on Third street.

The regular meeting of the Queen Esther circle will be held next Monday evening, March 1st, at the home of Miss Esther Peterson. All members are urged to attend.

Cards are out announcing the marriage at Toledo, Oregon, Wednesday, February 25th, of Miss Rose Schlecht to Donald C. Metzger. The young couple will reside at Hood River. The bride engaged in nursing in Gresham a few months ago.

The directors of the Home Builders' association met on Tuesday night and took favorable action on an application by W. R. Gorsage for a loan of $2000 toward the erection of a dwelling on his property in the northwestern part of town.

Increased patronage has taxed the facilities of the Gresham Steam laundry during the past few weeks and much added equipment in the way of sorting and marking tables and other convenient ways to handle the clothes have been added. Many other improvements are planned but the work proceeds slowly on account of the amount of work which is being turned out by the capable laundry force. There are about a dozen employed in the different departments and they are busy all of the time.

Mrs. H. H. Eling and sons, Herb and Jerry, are visiting the auto show in Portland today.

Miss Ruby Emery came home early this week from the east where she attended the funeral of her late employer, Thomas Prince. Miss Emery is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Mrs. Alice Roberts Mears is confined to her home with influenza.

Tailoring
For men and women—cleaning, pressing and repairing done well. Peter Lenard, Powell street.

E. L. Thorpe of Portland, was in Gresham one day last week on business. Mr. Thorpe is selling stock in a home builders association.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Cameron and the latter's sister, Mrs. Kellogg, visited the automobile show one day this week.

One county in Oregon (Umatilla) produces 1 per cent of the wheat of the United States.

Oregon has a knitting mill that ships its products into 11 Western states and two foreign countries. This factory's extensive advertising carries Oregon's story throughout the West. The raw material from the sheep's back goes as a finished product to gather new money from many distant places to make Oregon more prosperous.

Who Is Who in Gresham?
"Religion as an essential to life is recognized and provision made for the religious needs of the army." If the army needs it how about the rest of the nation? How long would religion last if every one assumed the attitude you do?
If all the people did as you do, how long would there be a church in Gresham?
You are invited to the Methodist Episcopal church, "the church that serves Gresham," Sunday, Morning services 11 o'clock. Subject, "Stayers by the Staff." Evening services 7:30. Subject, "Reclaiming the Desert."

Fairview Grange Passes Protest.
At the last meeting of the Fairview grange the following resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, one of the fundamental principles of the Patrons of Husbandry forbids the discussion of religious or political subjects in our grange meetings, and
Whereas, we are entering soon upon a great political campaign in the selection of president of the United States and other state and national officers, now therefore be it
Resolved, that we the officers and members of Fairview Grange No. 344 do hereby protest against the use of the name of the grange in or of any official alliance with any political organization.
Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Gresham Outlook and the Oregon Grange Bulletin for publication therein.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

STRENGTH

Our best authority defines as solidity, protecting power, ability, energy, concentration.

The First State Bank's greatest appeal for patronage lies in its exceptional strength.

This exceptional strength is not only in resources (though more than one-half million dollars) but also in administrative ability, organization, extraordinary facilities, wide experience, operative energy, initiative and progressiveness.

The United States Government's recognition of this exceptional strength is evidenced by the recent admission of the First State Bank to membership in the Federal Reserve System.
