The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins.

Official paper of the Town of Gresham
Official paper of the Town of Fairview.

Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

VOLUME 19, NO. 1.

When a healthy boy gets to be nine years old he feels that he is some lad. He begins to feel that this is a big world and that its varied activities invite his ambitions and possibilities.

That's natural and proper for a boy.

The Outlook is nine years old. It feels like a healthy boy ought to feel. It can say without fear of boasting that it has had a healthy growth, feels something of the strength of youth and the call of the world for service.

The credit for the Outlook's growth is due to not one person but many, and especially to the loyal and steadily increasing support of the locality in which it is published.

The paper has in many ways fallen short of its ideal. That ideal is still away ahead of its attainment but it will press on toward the mark of its high calling.

A newspaper has to be conducted on a commercial basis but its mission is far higher than merely that of making money.

A good newspaper seeks to meet a community need and strives to be a force making for community strength, intelligence and good citizenship.

It cannot do and say everything that everybody wants it to do and say. It would soon please nobody if it tried to please everybody. It must have a well defined policy and method and above all it must be progressive and constructive.

The Outlook hopes, with the cooperation of its readers and advertisers, it may continue to be an uplifting and guiding force in its chosen territory.

GRESHAM AS A CENTER.

More and more Gresham is developing those activities which are making it a business, commercial and educational center.

There have been two things that have led to this result. One is its natural location, with fine roads and rapidly developing surrounding localities. The other is the aggressiveness of its business men and citizens.

It is this last that secured for this locality the county fair, the cannery, the library, and the high school.

A study of the map of the county as to the educational advantages, as pertaining to a union high school, will disclose that Gresham is in the center of the territory that such a school should draw from.

It is hoped and expected that the substantial citizens of this locality will grasp the real situation in relation to the enlargement of the Union High school, now an urgent necessity, and, when the plan shall be worked out, that they will respond as befits a progressive community.

It's a peculiar thing that when a man loudly demands more liberty, whether of law or conscience or creed, generally it is because he wishes to do something he ought not to do.

Nobody actually wishes to know the truth about himself.

Nothing succeeds like the appearance of success.

U. S. INCOME TAX EXEMPTS NOBODY

Nobody is exempt from income tax. An obligation is laid directly on the shoulders of each citizen and resident to consider his own case and to get his return in on time if one is due.

With each return showing a tax due a payment must accompany the return in the full amount of the tax or at least one-quarter of the tax.

All returns for 1919 must be filed on or before March 15.

Must Show True Figures. In figuring up his earnings for income tax purposes a person must take into consideration all items of taxable income, and each item itself must be accurate in amount.

Everybody who had an income during 1919 must now determine whether his or her net income was sufficient in amount to require an Income Tax return.

One of the important points to keep in mind is that a person's net income is found by a computation prescribed in the law, and that each item of income from every source must be considered, unless specifically exempted.

Another thing to remember is that the personal exemption allowed taxpayers by law has no relation whatever to the requirement to file return.

Crops as high as 13,200 pounds to the acre have been harvested and an average yield of about four tons to the acres was made last year.

Small fruit crops have become so important and profitable that the successful grower will have to give more attention to cultivation.

A rogue always has plenty of friends. That's one reason why he can be a rogue.

Heavy Penalties in Law. For failing to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 and an addition of 25 per cent to the tax, if any.

Many Sources of Income. Aside from what one may earn by his services, there are many other sources of income.

Bank interest is a common source of income and is taxable whether withdrawn or not.

Interest on mortgages and notes is taxable; also bond interest received from corporations.

A taxpayer who cashed his insurance during 1919 must report as income any excess received over the total of premiums paid.

Members of partnerships or personal service corporations or beneficiaries of an estate or trust must report their shares of income distributable to them whether or not actually withdrawn.

Dividends of domestic corporations must be reported. Many other forms of income are taxable, unless specifically exempted.

An Oregon life insurance company has the best financial record of any company founded during the last 20 years.

It is hoped and expected that the substantial citizens of this locality will grasp the real situation in relation to the enlargement of the Union High school, now an urgent necessity, and, when the plan shall be worked out, that they will respond as befits a progressive community.

It's a peculiar thing that when a man loudly demands more liberty, whether of law or conscience or creed, generally it is because he wishes to do something he ought not to do.

SUBSCRIBER OBJECTS TO CALLING METHOD NEW

Gresham, Oregon, Feb. 25, 1920. To the Outlook:

Your article on the "New Trick" of telling sheep's ages by their teeth is a "new one on me."

My first introduction to the trick was 25 years ago while pumping water for a farmer's sheep.

The telling of sheep's ages as well as cows' ages by their teeth is being taught in the Agricultural Department at the High School and according to that department the practice is "as old as the hills."

Small Fruits Thoroughly Tested. Small fruitgrowing for jam plants, canneries, juice factories and evaporators has passed the experimental stage and is as stable as wheat or corn.

For over twenty years western Washington and western Oregon and northern California have grown berries and small fruits for market.

The first loganberry plants were set out in the Willamette valley 29 years ago, plants directly from the farm of the originator.

The originator of this combination berry, a cross between the wild blackberry and the red raspberry was Judge Logan of Santa Cruz, California.

From this planting the cultivation of this small fruit was extended all over the territory west of the Cascade mountains, and still going.

Crops as high as 13,200 pounds to the acre have been harvested and an average yield of about four tons to the acres was made last year.

Small fruit crops have become so important and profitable that the successful grower will have to give more attention to cultivation.

MRS. LUCY A. QUAY IS BURIED AT DOUGLAS

Lucy A. Scott was born August 22, 1878 at Humboldt, Nebraska. She was married March 7, 1900 to Elwood E. Quay at St. Johns, Oregon.

Mrs. Quay died at her home near Pleasant Home on Wednesday evening, February 25 after a brief illness. The cause of her death was pneumonia following an attack of influenza.

She leaves to mourn their loss her husband and nine children, Zada, Ada, Earnest, Albert, Louise, Willis, John, Lucile and Ida, also two sisters and three brothers.

Friends speak of Mrs. Quay as an affectionate mother, kind and capable, who, in spite of her many duties always had a kind, pleasant word for all.

Mrs. Quay was a member of the Methodist church at St. Johns. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at Pleasant Home, Monday afternoon at 10 o'clock. Rev. Earl B. Cotton, the pastor, was in charge of the services. Interment in the Douglas cemetery near Troutdale.

Beautiful flowers, which covered the casket, and the many friends who attended the services told of the esteem in which Mrs. Quay was held.

INCOME TAX IS DUE MARCH 15. All income tax returns covering the year 1919 must be filed by Monday, March 15.

Each taxable return must be accompanied by check or money order for the full amount or at least one-quarter of the amount of tax due.

Cash payments are accepted only at the collector's main office; if sent by mail, they are at the sender's risk.

Residents of Oregon should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Milton A. Miller, Collector of Internal Revenue, Portland, Ore.

Those who must file returns but have not done so are warned that the revenue law imposes heavy penalties for failure to get returns in on time or to make payments on time.

Early filing and early payments are urged, in order to relieve the internal revenue offices as much as possible of an overload on the final day, March 15.

Insure Increased Values. The fire risk which industry and property face today is just about 100 per cent greater than five years ago but few persons realize it until too late.

The insurance field says: "Quite recently a number of cases have been cited in the central west showing the enormous increases in property values and necessity for increased insurance to cover added values."

Now comes a loss from Columbus, Georgia, to add to the illustrations—if anything is needed to point out to local agents that they are derelict in their duty if they do not call these facts to the attention of their customers. Wherever located—east, south, west, Pacific—the mounted values are in evidence.

The Georgia case is interesting. On October 26 the Bullock-Hardaway building burned. In 1910 it was appraised at $25,200 and was insured for $20,000. The adjustment showed that the property appreciated $22,825 in value, over depreciation, in the eight years—90.5 per cent—while the insurance remained stationary. Here is a case where the appreciated value amounted to more than the total insurance carried. And the worst of it all is that there are many other cases that will only be heard of when the loss comes.

SUMMONS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah County. Bertha M. Jaco, Plaintiff vs. Clayton C. Jaco, Defendant.

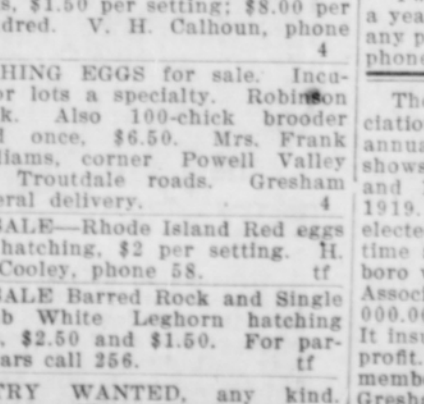

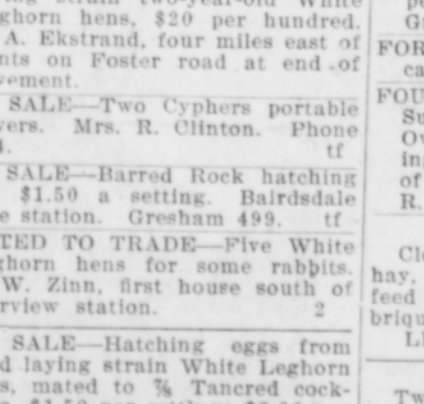

To Clayton C. Jaco, the above named Defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear in said cause or answer said complaint, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, and granting unto plaintiff an absolute divorce from the defendant changing plaintiff's name to Bertha M. Kruppenbacher, and for such other and further relief as plaintiff may be entitled to in the premises.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable John McCourt, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and entered on the 26th day of February, 1920, and the time prescribed for publication thereof is six weeks.

J. J. JOHNSON, Attorney for Plaintiff, 314 Spalding Bldg., Portland, Ore. Dated and first published March 2, 1920.
