LOCAL MAN INSPIRED BY SERMON SUNDAY

Gresham, Oregon, March 21.—To the Gresham Outlook:—After listening to the sermon today by Rev. R. E. Myers my thoughts ran back as it were in a dream, many years since and I have just been wondering,

Why is it, that as through this world we glide

The human heart is never satisfied? As we through life on pinion wings doth soar

The aching heart still longs for something more.

We sigh for fame, the laurel wreath we wear,

Find it a bauble dimmed with grief and care;

At length 'tis worthless, pleasure brings no more.

Again the aching heart craves something more.

We bring it down and next to wealth we flee

Seek pleasure's haunt and revel in its glee;

Drink nature's beauty and all her wealth explore,

Yet every fountain murmurs, something more.

The State University, the Agricultural College, and the Oregon Normal School now have 5400 full time students. The number does not include any of the thousands of short course, correspondence-study, or summer schools students. The income from the state for these three institutions has increased only three and eight-tenths per cent in seven years, although their attendance has increased 150 per cent.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

The adult class of the Miss M. E. Sunday school will continue the study of Lesson IX, "Past, Present and Future Work of the Holy Spirit." The subject of the children's talk by the pastor will be "New Boxing Gloves." The junior class should see that their lesson books are finished, for the quarter is nearly over and there is a prize offered to the pupil who has the best lesson book. The books must be completed, however, and all of the verses written in if they win. If the books are ready next Sunday the prize, a Bible, will be awarded Easter Sunday. The missionary program has been postponed to the next Sunday, which will be Easter Sunday. Several recitations have been given out to the pupils and everyone will be expected to have a Bible verse which contains a promise. Other announcements will be made later regarding Easter services.

CORBETT

The entertainment which was advertised for Saturday evening at the Corbett High school has been postponed until Monday, March 29. A Mather Hilburn, impersonator, who was to give the entertainment could not come on that date. The entertainment will be given at the high school at 8 p. m. Monday.

Mr. Hilburn is said to be a delightful entertainer. His impersonation of the folks from "Jack Oaks Country" in Arkansas is said to be most clever and amusing. The program is largely humorous but the other selections are equally well done.

Mrs. Laura Reed Hensen and baby of Portland, are visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Reed.

Floyd Reed's little son, Donald, has been quite ill, at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Blackhall, in Portland.

Mrs. Clara Smith was in the metropolis on business Monday.

BIG PROFIT IN MILK AND BUTTER

Small Investment Brings Big Return Mr. Weaver's Plan is Simple.

"I bought a package of Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders from my local dealer and after feeding it to my Jersey Cow, she increased from six quarts to 12 quarts of milk per day, and after continuing the Powders for 30 days longer, she increased in butter fat from 5 pounds to 10 pounds per week, and at the end of 5 months, she was making 12 pounds of butter fat per week."—L. B. Weaver, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mr. Weaver followed the advice of Dr. LeGear, and is money ahead. You can get the same results. Get Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders from your dealer; feed it to your horses, milk cows, steers, hogs, and sheep as directed. Satisfaction or money back.—Dr. L. D. LeGear Med. Co., St. Louis, Mo.—Adv.
