

For EASTER

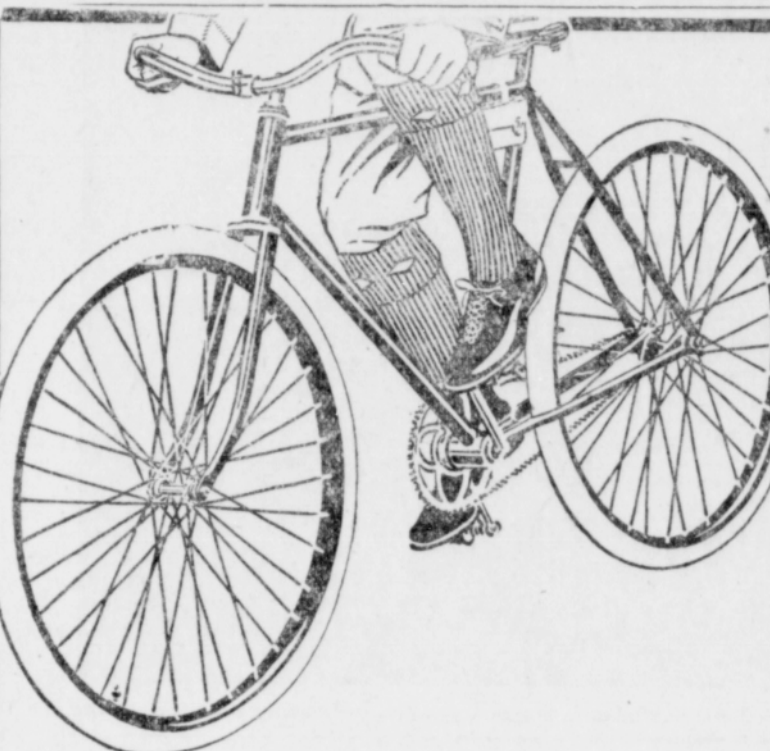

Commencing Saturday, March 27

We will begin showing the new Spring Modes in Millinery. Hats inspired by models from master designers, the hats presented here for this occasion are no less a joy to their creators than to the women who will wear them. A real Gresham Hat Shop Millinery event—exclusiveness characterized by smartness.

Interpretations from the foremost Paris modistes and originations from New York's leading designers.

You are cordially invited to attend this display.

POWELL VALLEY

Olaf Shuholm left last Wednesday for an extended visit with old relatives and friends in Sweden. Mr. Shuholm expects to be gone all summer.

The members of the Parent-Teacher association who braved the weather, enjoyed a rather lively meeting at the schoolhouse Friday evening. An open discussion of many questions of the day, occupied the time.

Miss Pearl Gustafson is the happy possessor of an organ which her parents purchased for her last week.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the Mission church next Thursday afternoon, April 1st. Mrs. Chas. Sedgwick will be the hostess. A very nice program has been arranged and it is expected that there will be a good attendance. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Rev. Daniel Halstrom of Portland will preach at the Mission church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Halstrom has declined the call to accept the pastorate of the Mission church. He does not care to make a change at this time. Rev. A. R. Anderson who is well known to Powell Valley people, will preach at the Mission church in the evening next Sunday, April 4. An invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Mrs. George Rogers is in the Sellwood hospital following two serious operations for cancers. The operations were on Monday and Wednesday of last week. She is improving slowly. Many friends and acquaintances wish Mrs. Rogers a speedy recovery. She is well known in this neighborhood where she spent her childhood.

J. T. Cowan, who recently purchased the farm formerly owned by Swen Staffenson, is to hold a sale at his place next Monday afternoon. He will sell a number of cows, some other stock, and farm implements.

Carl Nelson and Olaf Shuholm have had telephones installed recently. They are the first in that section to install phones.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nordblom had as their guests last week the latter's sister, Mrs. Hannah Wicklund, and Mrs. Wicklund's sister-in-law, Mrs. Emma Friedstrom from Seattle. The two ladies came down from Seattle to get the two smallest daughters of the late Edward Swanson who died from influenza a few weeks ago leaving a family of little children and an invalid wife. Knowing that it was impossible for her to keep the family together Mrs. Swanson chose to let responsible people adopt the youngest of the children rather than leave it to chance to decide where they should be placed. Mrs. Friedstrom adopted the youngest, Marian, and Mrs. Wicklund the next one, Violet. Neither of the ladies have any children and they were perfectly delighted with the new daughters who are very sweet children. They left Thursday for Seattle where they both live. Elsie, the oldest one of the Swanson children came out with her small sisters but she returned home Wednesday.

Easter Sunday will be observed in the Smith Memorial church at 10 a. m. In the Sunday school there will be a bright song service. At 11 a. m. preaching service with joyful Easter music followed by the communion. Everybody especially invited.

TROUTDALE

Rev. E. E. Gilbert, the district superintendent, preached at the Troutdale church last Sunday evening to one of the largest audiences that has gathered here this year. Everyone was delighted with Rev. Gilbert's clear exposition of the gospel. The pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, is continuing the services this week.

Definite arrangements have not been completed for the services Wednesday evening but the pastor expects to get another well known minister to preach that evening.

Thursday evening the subject will be "The Man Who Went Back on His Pal." Friday evening the topic will be "The Day of Suffering."

There will be no services Saturday evening. Announcements for next week's services will be made later.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

Mrs. Edward Bachstrand and children, Edward and Elizabeth, visited Mrs. Bachstrand's mother, Mrs. Hendrickson, in Portland over the weekend.

Mrs. Marion Wood and son Everett, are at Fisher's Landing near Vancouver, Washington, where Mrs. Wood was called by the illness and death of her only sister, Mrs. Grace Strunk. Mrs. Strunk died of uric poisoning after only a few weeks illness. She leaves her husband, Alfred Strunk, and two children, a daughter, aged 13 years, and a son, aged 17 years, a father, one sister, and two brothers. Mrs. Strunk is known to a number of the older residents of this neighborhood where she has often visited and where she spent some time as a child.

The funeral services were conducted from her home this afternoon at 1 o'clock. W. S. Wood, Howard and Edna Wood and Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood attended from here.

CORBETT

Miss Minerva Powell, teacher of the grades at the high school, received the sad intelligence Friday that her sister, Miss Rose Powell of Portland, was struck by an automobile, which caused her death a half hour after the accident occurred.

Mrs. Laura Reed Hansen and baby returned to Portland Saturday after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Myrta Reed.

Action against persons who dump refuse along the highways of Portland was promised the Woman's Ad club of Portland by the county commissioners. We sincerely hope that holds good this far from the city as the Corbett hill road seems to be the dumping grounds for a number of people in this precinct. Only recently, while near Corbett station we saw half decayed apples dumped by the road and on our beautiful and far-famed Columbia highway, near the Bell Bros. garage garbage had been thrown beside the highway.

SANDY BLUFF

Word was received here of the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Low, at Bull Run. Mrs. Low will be remembered as Miss Myrtle Corder.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and daughters, Vesta and Ruth, visited Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Laura Barnes.

Harry King of Grass Valley, Oregon, visited a few days of last week with his sister, Mrs. Laura Barnes.

Last Monday being the birthday of both Mrs. E. E. VanFleet and Mrs. Bauman, teachers of Cottrell school, a very pleasant surprise was given both the teachers and the children by the parents and patrons of the school district. The children rendered several very pretty songs and some of their physical exercises, which were very much enjoyed by the visitors. The parents served cake and cocoa as a light lunch. Many good wishes for many more happy birthdays were received by the teachers.

Mrs. A. D. Ogden is home again after having spent several weeks nursing in Portland.

Rev. Mr. Cummings, of the Portland sanatorium, conducted the services here on Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Reber will preach here again on the 18th of April.

Miss Ruth Whitehead was a weekend visitor in Portland.

PLEASANT HOME

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society is planning to hold an apron sale at the church Friday evening, April 9. The ladies have prepared aprons, large and small, of all sizes and kinds, and for all occasions. There will be a splendid program given the evening of the sale and refreshments will be served. A good time is anticipated.

Mrs. M. Lennartz visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chandler in Forest Grove.

The teachers of Orient attended the teachers' meeting in Portland last Saturday. The question of teacher's salaries was taken up but nothing definite was decided upon.

COTTRELL

There will be all-day services at the Cottrell community church next Sunday. Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock. Rev. F. S. Pitts will preach at 11 o'clock. Every one is invited to attend and bring their dinner with them and join their neighbors in an all-day service. There will be preaching at 2 o'clock in the afternoon also. Sermons appropriate to the Easter day and a happy meeting with friends and neighbors will make this a day long to be remembered. Come one and all

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.
