LOCAL DOINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Samuel C. Lancaster, engineer of the Columbia River highway will speak this evening, Tuesday, at the Gresham Theater at 8 p. m. Mr. Lancaster will speak on the World's Beautiful Highways. There will also be pictures and many features of interest to all. Mr. Lancaster will also speak on "How and Why American is Saving Armenia from Destruction." There will be several speakers.

There will be no charges and everyone is invited to attend. Misses Helen Bliss, Grace Fieldhouse and Bertha Spencer, from the Oregon State Normal, and Miss Winifred St. Clair from Willamette spent the week-end at home, visiting their parents and friends over Easter.

Mrs. M. Miz entertained on last Saturday, her daughter, Mrs. Simmons of Portland and the latter's friends, Miss Edith Traver, a missionary of China, home on a furlough.

A recent issue of the Pacific Christian Advocate announces the birth of a baby daughter, March 1st to Rev. and Mrs. Stanford Moore of Portland. Rev. Moore is pastor of the Epworth M. E. church in Portland. Mrs. Moore will be remembered as Miss Lois Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gill, who lives near Gresham. Mrs. Moore was a teacher in the Powell Valley school before her marriage. The baby daughter has been named Frances Elaine.

Miss Emma Johnson, has moved from the house on Fifth street which was owned by Mrs. S. R. Bradfield, to apartments in the First State Bank building.

J. H. Cone and son, R. L. Cone, and W. B. Corey are leaving Thursday for Lone Rock, Oregon where they will spend the summer. They are interested in a sawmill at that place.

The revival meeting at Rockwood is progressing nicely. The attendance, in view of the weather, has been good and people are being converted. The meetings are now entering the second week and will end Friday night, April 9th. Rev. Robt. Brymer, the evangelist, is making himself felt in the hearts and lives of the people. His messages of love and his kind personality are causing him to be loved by all who are attending. The services on Sunday were crowded so that extra seating space was made necessary.

L. C. Miz of Helena, Montana, spent last Friday with his mother, Mrs. M. Miz.

Gresham grange will hold its regular meeting next Saturday, April 10 in grange hall. An interesting talk is expected from C. L. Smith, otherwise known as "Corn Smith" who will exploit "Corn and Silos." It is hoped that another speaker and music will add to the attractions of the program. All grangers and their friends are urged to attend, following the usual good grange dinner.

The Gresham social club dance which was scheduled for Friday evening, April 9, has been postponed to Friday, April 16, on account of the senior class play which will be given on the former date. The dance will be given in the Masonic hall. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dowsett will serve punch.

E. P. and John Canny visited a couple of days this week at the home of their mother, Mrs. Harritt Timmerman and family. They have been working in the logging camps at Mist, Oregon.

WELFARE STATION TO BE ESTABLISHED HERE

A child welfare station will be established in Gresham at the library if the plans of Miss Ruth B. Young, Multnomah county public health nurse, carry out and from the expression of determination and enthusiasm on that young lady's face there is no doubt but that they will be carried out.

Several Portland physicians have promised their aid, among them Dr. J. M. Short, well known here, and several specialists in children's work. The local doctors have promised to lend their aid, also, and the movement is meeting with remarkable success.

This will be the only station of its kind in the county and Gresham is very fortunate in having the opportunity to have such a splendid work carried on here.

It is planned to make the work constructive, there will be no competition, each child will be examined and recommendations made to suit that particular case.

Miss Young is delighted with the facilities to be found at the library. It is planned to hold the first meeting the last Wednesday in April if that date proves satisfactory.

Miss Young will meet with the women of the community at the W. C. T. U. meeting at Mrs. W. J. Ott's next Thursday afternoon where she will explain the work and the dates will be voted upon.

Miss Young spends the first and third week of every month in Gresham and vicinity.

In a new world with an enlarged vision of service the First State Bank is conscious of the obligations and alive to the opportunities of constructive banking.

That this is so is evidenced by the following:

March 22d	Resources
1918	$355,947.62
1919	494,880.29
1920	711,369.10

And the fact that it is a part of the Federal Reserve System.
