CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER HERE

E. N. WHEELER.

E. N. Wheeler, republican candidate for county commissioner, was a Gresham visitor Thursday. He was here in the interests of his campaign.

Mr. Wheeler has been a resident of Portland for more than 40 years and is fully conversant with the conditions and needs of the county. He has always taken an interest in county development.

Mr. Wheeler is a practical, conservative business man and his campaign slogan is, "A business administration and the best possible value for every dollar disbursed."

An experienced business man, active church worker, and an active member in civic organizations, Mr. Wheeler will give good service if elected.

Mr. Wheeler makes the following statement:

"If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office put forth my very best endeavors toward a conservative and business-like administration and will conduct the affairs of the office with careful attention and consideration.

Realizing the magnitude of the business of Multnomah county to be transacted each year I will pledge myself to secure for the taxpayers the best possible value for each dollar voted out of the county treasury."

OLIVER M. HICKEY.

Oliver M. Hickey, an attorney of Portland, has announced his candidacy for delegate to the National republican convention, to be held in Chicago, in June.

He has pledged himself to vote for the choice of the republican party at the primaries.

Mr. Hickey was born in this state and has lived here continuously, residing in the eastern part of Multnomah county.
