Obituary of Mrs. Martha Bramhall.

Mrs. Martha Bramhall died last Friday, April 16th, 1920, at the home of her son, Wm. Bramhall, at Battleground, Washington, and was buried in the Gresham cemetery on Monday, April 19th. A large gathering of relatives and friends attended the funeral, which was held in the Methodist church at Gresham.

Martha Jones was born in Indiana, January 31st, 1846, and was married to E. S. Bramhall on December 25, 1859, being not yet 14 years of age at the time of her marriage.

They came to this vicinity in an early day and lived many years in the hills back of Gresham. Ten children were born to this union, of whom eight survive. They are John Bramhall, Bend, Oregon; Mrs. Elona Owens and Wm. Bramhall, of Battleground, Washington; Mrs. Jennie Wood, Manhattan, Kansas; Mrs. Nellie Gotham, Portland, Oregon; J. N. Bramhall, Klamath Falls, Oregon; C. E. and H. E. Bramhall, of Troutdale, Oregon. There are 28 grand children, 31 great grand children, also three brothers and three sisters, of whom Mrs. Henry Parsons of Troutdale is one.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of Oregon for Multnomah County.

Evelyn Hall, Plaintiff vs. Harley Hall, Defendant.

To Harley Hall: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint herein on file in said Court on or before the 14th day of May, 1920, and if you fail to answer the plaintiff will ask for the relief prayed for in her complaint namely, for a decree dissolving the marriage contract existing between yourself and the plaintiff; and for the care and custody of the minor children Gladys Mildred Hall and Pearl Hall.

This summons is published by order Hon. John McCourt granted April 2, 1920 and requiring first publication to be had upon the second day of April and the last upon the fourteenth day of May of said year.

TROUTDALE

A comedy in one act, "Pollin Picks a Wife," will be given Saturday, April 24 at 8 p. m. at Troutdale in Columbia hall, next door to Fox's store, by members of the "True-Blue" class of the Troutdale Methodist Sunday school. A fine musical program is promised besides, including numbers by George Graham, a Scotch comedian of Portland, Mrs. J. A. Larsson and Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Mrs. Boscoe of Portland and Mrs. Lee Evans. Candy will be sold during the evening by girls of the class.

The following are the members of the cast of characters:

Mr. Pollin, a scientific gentleman, Clarence Parsons.

Arthur Swift, a dashing youth, James Spence.

Julius Swift, willing to take a chance, Richard Knarr.

John Randall, a proud father, Emerson Crawford.

Mr. James, a guest, Clyde Monahan.

Mary Randall, a charming lady, Mary McGinnis.

Miss Simplin, a hopeful maiden, Olive Wilson.

Mrs. Randall, a fond mamma, Florence Bramhall.

Mrs. Smith, of volubulous voice, Belle Parsons.

A rather unique "party" was held at the home of Mrs. L. A. Harlow last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Harlow generously gave the use of her home to a Mr. Byrd, representing the ever-wear aluminum, for a demonstration of the popular utensils. A number of ladies were invited in to see how the cooking was done, and to partake of the roast and the vegetables used in the demonstration. Each lady who was present is to be presented with an aluminum souvenir.

Mrs. H. H. Young, wife of the former superintendent of the meat packing plant here, visited with Mrs. L. A. Harlow last Wednesday.

The entertainment given at the church last Friday evening was exceptionally good. It was well written up by a Troutdale resident in Tuesday's Outlook, so that we will only emphasize that it was very much enjoyed by those present.

At the Sunday evening service at the Methodist church the topic will be "The Seven Elements of Public Worship." This is the fourth of the series "Helps to Grace."

MELROSE AND VICTORY

The adult Bible class will take up the study of Lesson 13 at Iliff Sunday school Sunday morning. The topic for discussion is "Bibles that have been lost and never recovered."

The Sunday school meets at 3 p. m. All are invited to attend.

PLEASANT HOME

The fourth topic in the series "Helps to Grace" will be discussed at the Methodist church Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton. The special topic will be "The Seven Elements of Public Worship."

Sunday school meets at 10 o'clock, preaching at 11 a. m.

POWELL VALLEY

Miss Mary Treber, who returned recently from a year and one-half spent in southern California, is visiting in Portland a few days this week.

There are more than 3,000,000 Ford cars in daily operation in the United States. This is a little better than one-half of all the motor cars used in America. The Ford car is every man's necessity. No matter what his business may be, it solves the problem of cheapest transportation. We solicit your order now, because production is limited, and we must make it the rule to supply first orders first.
