GRESHAM, MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1920

$1.50 PER YEAR

W. H. M. S. HOLDS CONFERENCE HERE

The fifteenth Annual Conference of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Salem district closed Thursday afternoon after one of the best meetings ever held.

Wednesday afternoon the election of officers was held and all the district officers re-elected.

The officers are as follows: President, Mrs. K. Burleson, McMinnville; first vice-president, Mrs. O. Eastman, Gresham; second vice-president, Mrs. Clara Jack, Oregon City; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Emma V. Huddle, McMinnville; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. M. W. Patton, Forest Grove.

Several changes were made in the department secretaries. Those who will serve for the coming year are as follows: Young Peoples' Work, Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson of Newberg; Children's Work, Mrs. A. G. Olsen, Literature, Mrs. C. J. Littler of Forest Grove; Temperance, Mrs. J. F. Dunlap of Salem; Mite Box, Mrs. Geo. Osborn of Oregon City; Permanent Fund, Mrs. Honnold of McMinnville; Evangelism, Mrs. C. O. Branson of Monmouth; Supplies, Mrs. M. C. Wire of Oregon City; Christian Stewardship, Mrs. S. L. Carlyle of Forest Grove; Working Fund, Mrs. Etta Loomis of Silverton.

Wednesday evening Mrs. J. H. Parsons of Tacoma, National Bureau Secretary for Alaska, spoke on "Alaska" to an interested audience. A great deal of interest in the Jessie Lee Home for children was created by Mrs. Parsons' explanation of the work being done. At the close of the meeting a collection was taken amounting to more than $12.00. This sum, it was later voted, should be turned over to Mrs. Parsons for work in the Jessie Lee Home.

Thursday, Miss Olla Davis, superintendent of the Portland Settlement Center, gave an inspiring talk and later both Miss Davis and Mrs. Parsons told the ladies just what should be included in Christmas boxes and other gifts to these homes.

Mrs. Geo. H. Alden of Salem gave talks on several subjects that inspired those present to go out and work for a larger organization.

Gresham Society won the silk flag offered to the Society which won the largest number of points. The points are based on the number of departments in the society and other points in efficiency of the work being done.

There were twenty-five delegates present from other societies. One of the important actions taken by this meeting was that of appointing a committee to arrange some method of financing a larger number of delegates who could attend the conventions. Delegates from other places were: Mesdames, E. A. Underhill, E. J. Swafford, W. D. Littler, Geo. H. Alden, and J. T. Dunlap of Salem; Mrs. Chas. E. Gibson and Mrs. F. D. Kennedy of Newberg; Mrs. Emma V. Huddle, McMinnville; Mesdames, Geo. Osborn, M. T. Wire, A. F. Jack, J. F. Spizer, Byron Hoag, and L. P. Horton, of Oregon City; Mrs. Etta Loomis and Mrs. A. H. Smith of Silverton; Mrs. E. J. Maple and Mrs. C. J. Littler of Forest Grove; Mrs. Lulu R. Lilly of Stoughton; Mrs. J. H. Parsons of Tacoma; Mesdames, E. S. Collins, J. Wesley Wiseman, H. Peterson, A. B. Calder and Miss Olla G. Davis of Portland.

The next meeting of the District convention will be held at Silverton next year the exact date to be announced later.

JOHN CREEK IS GOOD FISHING GROUNDS

The second grade pupils with their teacher, Miss Mabel Inglis, enjoyed a picnic down on Johnson creek Tuesday afternoon. Everybody brought a picnic lunch and had a fine time during the lunch hour. Miss Inglis surprised the class with a big box of jolly pink and white candy sticks.

After the picnic the children had a wonderful time playing games and fishing for crawdads.

To Clyde Jennings fell the honor of catching the largest crawfish. It was almost as large as a lobster. The little Japanese boy Euchl caught a little minnow with his hand to the great delight of all the children. Ilae Schwedler created some excitement when she landed a mussel but to Lawrence Aylsworth fell the largest game for he caught a duck. The fact that the duck was a celluloid one did not detract from the interest in the least. Those who didn't care to fish gathered buttercups which were in their prime. Some of the other grades went on picnics also and there has been various plans of celebrating the close of school for this term.

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD SUNDAY

The Gresham Post, American Legion, and the Women's auxiliary of the Legion will join in Memorial Day exercises which will be held at the Methodist church Sunday morning, May 23. Members of both organizations are requested to meet at the fountain at 10:30 a. m. and march to the church in a body. The auxiliary request that all those who expect to join the organization in the near future join with them at this meeting. All will be welcome.

The G. A. R. Post and Women's Relief Corp announce that they will meet at Chipman's store at the same hour.

For Sale. Used implements and machinery in good condition. Engines, cream separators, harrows, plows, ensilage cutters. It will save you to investigate. W. A. Hessel, Gresham, Ore.

Dance. The Security Benefit association will give a dance on Saturday evening, May 29, at Metzger's hall, Gresham.—Adv.

It pays to advertise.

HUNTING BIG GAME IN ALASKA

Doctor Price Tells Thrilling Story at Chautauqua.

A splendid lecture feature of Chautauqua is scheduled for the fourth night in the coming of Charles S. Price in his great illustrated lecture, "Hunting Big Game in Alaska." It is a lecture of thrills, of intense interest, of real humor. Mr. Price was a member of the U. S. Alaskan floating court, the only court of its kind in the world. His stories of Far North experiences are unique upon the American platform.

The pictures are undoubtedly the best ever shown of the big game of Alaska including unusual scenes in whale harpooning, the fur seal herds on the Pribilof Islands, Kodiak and grizzly bear, etc.

AMERICAN LEGION PLANS CELEBRATION

A big Fourth of July celebration for the benefit of the American Legion will be given in Gresham this year and if all of the plans carry out it will be one of the most elaborate celebrations ever held here.

The personnel of the committees which were appointed last evening at a committee meeting of the A. L. promise that all plans will be fully carried out.

There will be a queen who will be elected in a manner similar to the way the queen last year was elected. There will be a large parade in which the soldiers in uniform will participate. Every business house it is expected will take part in the parade and expectations are that it will be far ahead of anything of the kind that has ever been put on here.

A sham battle, horse racing, baseball and other sports will be put on the program. In all it is expected that there will be something live doing every minute.

Of course there will be a band and music. Ice cream, and other "eats" will as a matter of course, have an important place on the program.

The following committees have been appointed and any further information may be obtained from Chase E. St. Clair, secretary of the Fourth of July committee. The committee for making arrangements for the queen contest are, A. Meyers, A. Hammar, Glenwood Miller, O. A. Eastman.

Parade committee—Judge Geo. W. Stapleton, John Brown, C. J. Lundquist. This committee were instructed to choose as many as they needed to assist them.

Finance committee—A. Meyers, K. A. Miller, Ellsworth D. Raker. Committee in charge of concessions—T. R. Howitt, E. J. Brugger, O. A. Eastman.

Decorating committee—F. L. Mack, C. R. Knarr, J. E. Metzger. Publicity committee—Mrs. H. H. Eling, H. L. St. Clair, Cecil Duke. Program committee—Geo. F. Honey, Elmer F. Goodwin, Dr. A. W. Botkin and Mrs. K. A. Miller.

Sports committee—F. E. Todd, J. G. Mast, Oscar Stone.

Committee on races—H. A. Lewis, chairman. Other members of this committee will be appointed later.

The general committee request that these committees get busy on plans for their division of the work and that everybody start boosting for the American Legion Fourth of July celebration.

Concert Artists at Chautauqua Stearns-Gregg Company With Fay Epperson Brings Two Splendid Programs of Music and Entertainment

The Stearns-Gregg Concert company will bring to you on the last day two concerts of splendid music. With violin, cello and piano, they interpret the great classics as do few trios on the platform today. Each is an artist of recognized standing in her own field of musical endeavor and long association has made their ensemble playing nearly perfect. They demonstrate that there is a high and permanent place on the Chautauqua platform for the great instrumental classics. Ethel Stearns, cellist, and Vera Stearns, violinist, play with dazzling technique and real musical understanding. Lorna Gregg, pianist, is one of the most gifted musicians of the West.

Fay Epperson, child impersonator, reader and whistler, rounds out this splendid organization as the fourth member. Her remarkable talent and ability has won for her a high place among the Chautauqua entertainers of the country.

Your Chautauqua is made possible by the local patriotism and public spirit of a group of business men of this community. They have personally pledged themselves to the sale of tickets necessary to bring the Chautauqua here. They are doing this without the hope of a cent of financial gain, but solely to uphold the community and make it a better place for you to live.

Buy your season ticket today. It will not only bring you a 200 per cent saving over single admissions, but it will put you shoulder to shoulder with the rest of your citizens who are working to make the Chautauqua a genuine success.

Read the program carefully. See what a splendid five days' offering of instruction, entertainment and information there is in store for you. Then think how little it costs to attend on the season ticket plan.

The Chautauqua is the one distinctive American institution which this country possesses. It is the natural outgrowth of the early lyceum of New England—the town meeting, where great men of their day were wont to expound their vigorous philosophies, for the Chautauqua is just a town meeting of a new kind. In no other institution is so clearly epitomized the true democracy. In no other gathering do the people of a town so nearly lose the distinctions of caste and class and become as one. It is an institution which rejuvenates our democracy—where the millionaire and the laborer may meet on a common ground of interest in the worthwhile things of life.

Ida M. Tarbell says: "One of the best institutions in this country is the Chautauqua Summer Platform. Certainly in the stress of these times it should be preserved if any institution is to be preserved. It does a variety of things that we have great need should be done now. It brings a fresh element into a social life of the town—a very desirable thing particularly in the smaller community. It will give stimulating ideas about the great questions that the country must understand and study. Everything now depends upon the country keeping its mind steady and active and inspiring people to full co-operation. The Chautauqua Platform will do this in a wonderfully direct way. Every community ought to be willing to sacrifice, if necessary to keep Chautauqua alive in the community."

"A MAD WOMAN" OBJECTS TO CHICKENS Gresham, Ore., May 18, 1920.—Editor Outlook:—What can a poor woman do when her neighbors will keep chickens. Here I've been wanting a flower garden so bad and just when I get it good and started them white chickens next door come over and it's all over with my flowers. It's enough to make a deacon swear. I am asking you what to do since you had an ad in your paper once that you answered questions for folks. I can't sign my name because of the neighbors but I wish you would tell me what to do in your paper. Thanking you kindly for the information, I remain Yours truly, A MAD WOMAN.

P. S. As I said I can't sign my name because of my neighbors. The Outlook suggests that she wring their necks. Bargains in the want ads.

OPENING NIGHT AT CHAUTAUQUA

Marion Ballou Fisk Brings Clever Cartoon Entertainment.

Marion Ballou Fisk is known throughout the Lyceum and Chautauqua world as one of its foremost cartoonist and lecture-entertainers. For thirteen consecutive years she has maintained this place. She began her work as a protegee of the late Dwight L. Moody and worked for years in that part of Chicago, made famous by Upton Sinclair in "The Jungle." Here she became known as the "Little Mother of the Slums," and her humanitarian work received so much recognition that she was called to the platform.

"SNOW WHITE" TO BE PRESENTED BY LYNCH

Lynch school will close Monday, the 24th, with a splendid little play, "Snow White," given by the pupils.

The teachers of Lynch school have been doing exceptionally good work this year. They are Miss Canning, principal, and Mrs. Bangs in the primary room. Miss Canning's good work is shown in the fact that both of her eight grade classes for this year and last have finished their work and received their diplomas. Last year there were six pupils, five of whom are now attending Union High. This year Elizabeth Grant and Grant McMillan finished their work.

Next year Miss Canning and Miss Clara Sales, a graduate of U. H. S., will have charge of Lynch school. Miss Sales has been attending Normal the past year.

The little playlet "Snow White" promises to be a very pleasing entertainment. Following is the list of characters:

- Queen, Agnes Dickson. Queen's maid, Daisy Daly. Snow White, Mildred Kummell. Snow White's playmates, Helen Lawrence, Rachel Headley, Vera Grant, Grace Lynch, Jane Dickson, Alta Hendrickson, Margaret Koerner, Audrey Freeman. Prince, Donald Confrey. Prince's attendants, Ford Modden, Carl Wicklander. Huntsman, Clifford Middleton. Court Chamberlain, Arthur Eddy.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST TO BE HELD MONDAY

The first Annual Declamatory Contest will be held in the High School auditorium May 24, 1920, at 12:50 P. M. Members of the different classes have been chosen to compete in the contest and the contestants have been practicing for some time. One boy and one girl from each class were chosen but two have dropped out of the race.

Each contestant is working for the honor of their class and the winners of the first three places will have their names engraved on a bronze tablet which will be placed in the assembly hall as a gift from Miss Wyeth. Judges will be Mrs. H. H. Eling, Miss H. Ruth Montague and C. M. Quicksall. All patrons and friends are invited to attend.

The Program is as follows: 1. Annunciation to the Shepherds, (Ben Hur)—Lew Wallace. 2. "Gentlemen, the King!"—Barr. 3. Anne of Green Gables—Montgomery. 4. Music—"Fleur D'Avril (Amboise)—Miss Florence Richey. 5. Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm—Wiggins. 6. The bear story Alex list made up his own self—Riley. 7. The Mustard Plaster—Selected.

AUXILIARY TO MEET SAME NIGHT AS A. L.

At the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion which was held at the library recently, all of the officers were re-elected for the coming year.

Other arrangements and plans made included the plan of holding the regular auxiliary meetings on the same night that the American Legion meets. This plan, it is thought, will prove more convenient for out of town members.

In view of this plan it was decided that the offer of the use of the American Legion Club room for the meetings could not be accepted.

Owing to the fact that the meetings continue later than the regular closing hour of the library it was thought best to make arrangements for renting a hall for future meetings of the Auxiliary.

MISSING MAN IS LOCATED AT GRESHAM

Mr. Wilcox, postmaster at Fairview, who disappeared Wednesday after leaving a note that indicated that he intended to commit suicide was found in Gresham Thursday morning and taken to his home at Fairview where he is resting at the present.

Mr. Wilcox was last seen in Fairview at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning and it was later discovered that he had left taking with him a revolver and leaving a note saying he was going to do away with himself. This was found about 5 o'clock and parties were formed to search the surrounding territory in vain.

It was learned that he had been seen in Gresham between 11 and 12 o'clock when he had tried to buy some drugs but was refused. Later at 2 o'clock he was seen on the Base Line road. No further trace was found of him until he turned up in Gresham Thursday morning after having been to Bull Run over night. Friends in Gresham recognized him and took him to his home where he is being cared for.
