MORE HOME OWNERS.

"The red flag never flies over a man who owns his own home."

The above is the epigrammatic remark of a great American citizen. And he is right. The moment a man buys his own home, whether it is in the city or the country, he instinctively, and perhaps unconsciously, feels himself a part owner in the whole country.

No man can have that feeling and be an anarchist or a bolshevist. Bolshevism and anarchism may never get very far in the United States, but both of them have been fed up a whole lot by the fact that many men have been unable to own their own home in the city and their own homestead in the country.

In the cities it has even been hard to rent, and at prices 200 to 500 per cent higher than before the war. But the good days are coming. Patriotic citizens are working to the end that more people shall have homes that they can call their own.

We have great hopes that the strong-organizing farmer movement will result in fewer lawyer-politicians in the councils of the nation and more of the common ordinary citizens of the republic—citizens who will see to it that there is less renting of agricultural lands and more owning, and which is the same thing—less renting in the cities and more house-owning.

They all admit that the rural citizen is the backbone of this nation. THE SUGAR SHORTAGE. It's about time that somebody put a curb on the outrageous prices of sugar.

Depending on what part of the country you are in, you are paying anywhere from 22 to 30 cents a pound. And from the financial centers we hear talk of 35-cent sugar and even higher.

We don't know how much beet sugar enters in this profiteering business. We are pretty sure that the beet grower himself gets little more than his cost of raising beets.

Isn't there some way to relieve the exasperated consumer—also relieve the exasperated retailer, because on him, innocent as he is in the vast majority, falls the denunciations of the public.

House democratic leaders are diligently engaged in trying to block bonus legislation for the soldiers and not get caught at it.

If a political candidate doesn't win, is it fair to call him to too strict account as to his expenses? End of President Caranza. Rather dangerous to be president in Mexico. But then the Mexicans don't count any life worth very much.

If all the Hoover supporters had voted for Wood as they were urged to do, even by the Hoover managers, how splendidly would Johnson have been snowed under in Oregon.

What's $404,000 when it comes to nominating the right man for president? Especially when he pays all but about $40,000 of it himself. Anyway it was clean money spent in legitimate ways.

Our Pleasant Valley correspondent, says among other things, the union high school is not centrally located. We would like to ask where he would locate it more centrally with reference to the districts interested, with reference to population, or with reference to car lines and main highways?

Sugar refiners are said to see little prospect of a decline in sugar prices. They doubtless are aware how little will be done to reduce prices by an administration that permitted the sugar interests in Louisiana to double their figures on the excuse that they had had half a crop and therefore ought to get twice as much.

OPERETTA IS MOST SUCCESSFUL YET GIVEN The operetta "Sylvia" which was given by the Treble Clef club and Glee clubs last Friday evening at the Masonic hall was said by many to be the best production of its kind to be given by the students of Union High.

It was staged by Miss Grace Hartley. Tom G. Taylor was the director. The stage arrangements were beautifully gotten up. The main scene especially was very attractive with its representation of a hay field. The characters acted out their parts well and in every way reflected credit upon themselves, their director and their schools.

Well may this community be proud of the work of Union High school, of its students, its faculty and the advantages it is bringing to this part of the county.

Jersey Day Picnic Successful

Notice is hereby given that I was on the 12th day of May, 1920, by the Probate Department of the Circuit Court of Multnomah County, Oregon, appointed Executor of the Estate of Idella M. Gardon, deceased.

All persons having claims against said estate will present them to my attorney, B. F. Mulkey, at his office at 403 Corbett building. Dated at Portland, Oregon, this 12th day of May, 1920. F. J. GARDON. B. F. MULKEY, 403 Corbett Building. Attorney for the Estate. Date of first publication, May 28, 1920.

The best savings investment for children is in the Union Savings and Loan association. Ask E. L. Thorpe about it.—Adv.

The exchange of ideas on feeding and care, and the comparison of types were features that made the trip especially helpful. An annual trip of the same kind would seem to be an easy way to create and keep up interest in pure bred Jerseys and in the raising of better stock.

Among those making the tour were B. C. Aliman and wife, C. H. Johanson, Samuel Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cavanagh, Mrs. E. D. Hart, B. Nelson, Miss Nellie McKinley and her sister, Mrs. Parker, County Agent S. B. Hall, and nephew Robert Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Brown, J. W. Bailey, Roy C. Stewart, field representative of the Oregon Journal, Mr. Bushnell of the Oregon Farmer, Mr. Dillon, Alta M. Gentry, the high school agricultural students and their teachers and a number of others who made part of the trip.

The Gresham Chautauqua will give you an uplift worth many dollars. You can take it all in for a little over $2. Get your tickets early.

Bids Wanted. Bids will be received by the undersigned until 4 o'clock p. m., June 15th, 1920, for 70 cords of wood to be delivered at schoolhouse not later than September 1st, 1920. Bidder to state kind of wood and number of cords of each. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. C. J. LUNDQUIST, Clerk S. D. No. 4.

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned at the First State Bank, Gresham, Oregon until 4 o'clock p. m., June 15th, 1920 for the furnishing of all material and construction of a playshed upon grounds of School District No. 4 as per plans and specifications in hands of district clerk. Successful bidder to furnish usual penal bond required by law. Certified check of 5 per cent of amount to accompany bid. Bidding to be completed by September 1st, 1920. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. C. J. LUNDQUIST, Clerk S. D. No. 4.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER? There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.
