QUALITY AND SERVICE

THE WINCHESTER STORE

GRESHAM LOCALS

Harold and Keith Lyman returned home Wednesday from Willamette University. Keith left immediately for Seabeck, Washington to attend a 10-day conference of the Y. M. C. A. This conference is held at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Seabeck which is located north of Seattle. Harold has commenced work at the cannery.

The Frank Jones company have installed three septic tanks during the past week. One was installed on the Bird Leg Poultry farm which is owned by Mr. Reed, one was installed on the property owned by Mrs. Pearl Erickson near the Lindsay building and one on Mrs. Sadie Burr's place.

The Methodist choir planned to give a concert at the church next week but owing to the fact that this date conflicted with rose festival and Shriners week in Portland and especially the electrical parade the program has been postponed until Thursday, July 1. This will be a "thank you" to the public who contributed to the purchase of a piano recently. A program will be published later.

Edna Mewhirter was elected president of the Gradatum club at a recent meeting. Doris Zimmerman is vice president; Joyce Kidder is secretary, and Florence Kern, treasurer. The girls plan to make scrap books for use in the hospitals, to give little plays, take up a reading course and have picnics and parties this summer.

Miss Bernita Bennison and sister Mrs. Alf Swennes of Mill City, Oregon are visiting with their mother, Mrs. S. J. Bennison.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Alder moved into their new home in Cleveland addition this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos Wiles have just had a garage built on their place in Davidson addition. Both the garage and house have been newly painted.

The Sell building on Main street is undergoing extensive repairs which includes the tearing down of the old porch which has covered the walk in front of the building. Besides adding much to the general appearance of the building the removal of the porch makes the store rooms much lighter. The porch shut off a great deal of light especially on cloudy days. The work is being done by Frank Jones and Henry Sell, owner of the building.

The meeting of the Ladies' Aid which was to be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson will be postponed until further notice.

Clyde Ruegg is visiting the home folks. He came Tuesday evening and will spend ten days here. Clyde is a naval reserve and for the past winter has been working on a freighter. He left Seattle last fall and has been in 16 different ports since that time. Among the important cities he has visited are Liverpool, London, New York, Boston and San Francisco. He expects to attend school in Seattle this winter.

W. A. Hessel and wife enjoyed an outing to Clear Lake during the past week-end. They made the trip in an Overland-4 leaving here Saturday and returning Tuesday. They traveled an average of 23 1/2 miles per gallon. Considering the roads this was a good record.

Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck and two younger children, Ruth and Carl, are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kern. They came Tuesday. Mr. Hollenbeck and oldest son, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kern will be here in a short time. They are driving through in a machine.

Another Royal Suggestion

BISCUITS, BUNS and ROLLS

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

BISCUIT! What delicate this word suggests. So tender they fairly melt in the mouth, and of such glorious flavor that the appetite is never satisfied. These are the kind of biscuits anyone can make with Royal Baking Powder and these unusual recipes.

Biscuits

2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup milk or half milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt, add shortening and rub in very lightly; add liquid slowly; roll or pat on floured board to about one inch in thickness (handle as little as possible); cut with biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 to 20 minutes.

Royal Cinnamon Buns

2 1/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
4 tablespoons seeded raisins

Sift 2 tablespoons of measured sugar with flour, salt and baking powder; rub shortening in lightly; add beaten egg to water and add slowly. Roll out 1/4 inch thick on floured board; brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll as for jelly roll; cut into 1 1/2 inch pieces; place with cut edges up on well-greased pan; sprinkle with a little sugar and cinnamon. Bake in moderate oven 30 to 35 minutes; remove from pan at once.

Parker House Rolls

4 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
6 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons shortening
1 1/4 cups milk

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Add melted shortening to milk and add slowly to dry ingredients stirring until smooth. Knead lightly on floured board and roll out 1/4 inch thick. Cut with biscuit cutter. Crease each circle with back of knife on side of center. Butter the small section and fold larger part well over the small. Place one inch apart in greased pan. Allow to stand 15 minutes in warm place. Brush each with melted butter and bake in moderate oven 15 to 20 minutes.
