

Republic Tires do last longer—we know it by personal experience in hundreds of cases.

The Prodim Process does make the tread tough.

We have seen scores of Republic Tires on which the Staggard tread was scarcely rubbed when any other tread would have been worn down to the fabric.

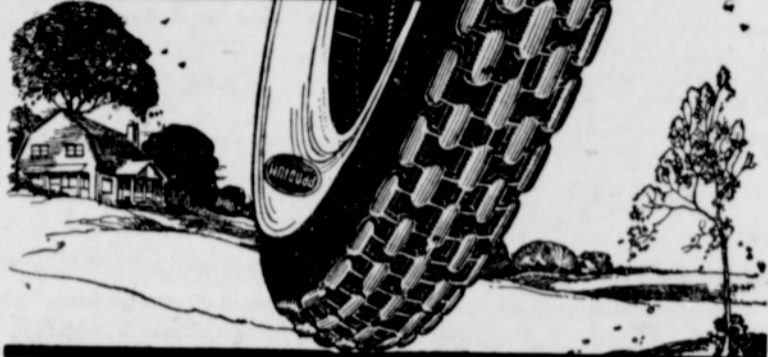

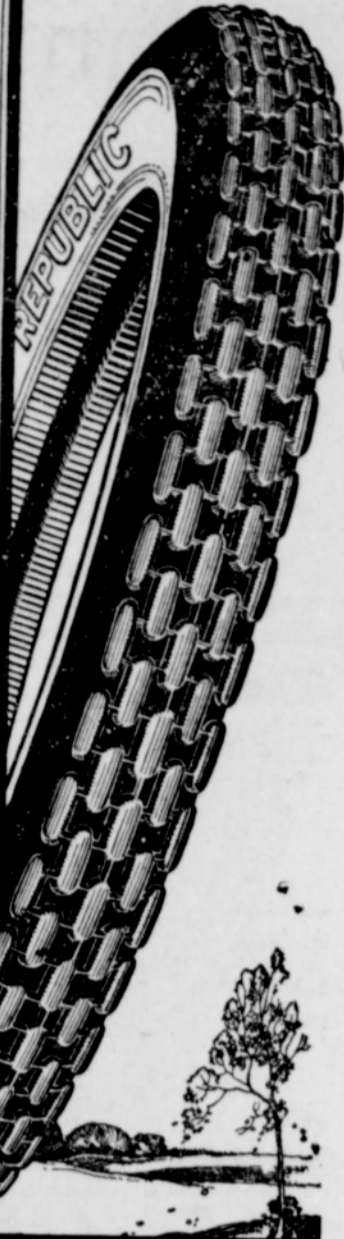

Another thing we know by observation in hundreds of cases is that this tough Staggard tread does not chip nor cut as others do.

The Prodim Process does all that the makers claim and more in making Republic Tires last longer.

That is why we are not only dealers and distributors for Republic Tires—but believers in them and enthusiastic endorsers of their value.

If you'll give us the chance to prove their longer life we know you'll never buy anything but Republic Tires again.

TROUTDALE

Services will be held as usual at the church next Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid social given recently on the J. R. Knarr lawn was quite well attended, considering the cool, cloudy weather we were having. The lawn was beautifully arranged for the comfort of the guests with electric lights twinkling in the trees, and seats placed about the grounds. Ice cream and cakes were served on tables on the lawn. The cool weather and the auto tragedy which had just happened prevented many from attending, but those who came enjoyed the evening very much.

A very small attendance was noted at the annual school election Monday evening. J. S. Hudson was elected director in place of R. D. Bailey, who had moved to Gresham, and Mrs. Clara Larsson was re-elected clerk.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow attended the state convention of Troutdale chapter Eastern Star last week in Portland. Mrs. Ed Hubbard looked after the Harlow household in her absence. Mrs. Hubbard will be at the Harlow home till after the first of July.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, July 7th in the church unless otherwise designated. Important business will come up.

SANDY BLUFF

Alonzo Radford is home again after going to the Good Samaritan hospital and undergoing an operation for an abscess on his face.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Radford and Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. Radford's mother, spent Sunday with Mr. Radford's father, Fred Radford and sister, Mrs. Ida Dukes.

Percy Osborn visited with his father, S. C. Osborn, over Sunday. Mrs. James Chandler and son Jerome are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brook.

Albert Ault visited home folks over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Crose were also callers at the Ault house.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron spent several days visiting in Portland. Zaidie Ault visited in Portland with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Crose for several days.

Cottrell voted the high school measure down on Saturday last.

When the Fourth comes on Sunday it usually means a three-day celebration. At Gresham the three days will be crowded into one and that will be Monday.

BORING AND VICINITY.

Albert Welch has nearly completed his new barn. Haying season has put a stop to building operations for the present.

Mrs. Roy White is taking in the rose festival.

Guy Osburn works contrary to most human kind. When others are rushing by train loads to the city to take in the sights, he turns his back on the whole business and comes out to his farm for hay-making, which ordinary folks never did consider any celebration.

The John Hoffmeister bungalow and Bohna cottage are looking smart in their new coat of paint.

Matt Anderson, Sr., returned to Garfield Wednesday after a few days' visit with his children near Boring. Mr. Anderson is looking as fine as any one could.

A fine new house is being put up by Mrs. Ruth Wilson on her farm.

F. W. Berens has just completed an attractive cottage. The interior is admirably arranged for convenience and appearance.

Another Portland visitor this week is Mrs. Phil Schantlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Board and family from Nevada have been visiting the Bob Lovelace family. Mrs. Board is a sister of Mr. Lovelace.

Miss Pauline Heacock is enjoying a visit from her cousin, Mrs. Lloyd, from Idaho.

Genevieve Johnston, all the way from Portland, is the guest of Marguerite and Thelma Welch. She plans to stay until the cherries hatch out.

FAIRVIEW

The school election was well attended, all the seats in the room being taken by voters. O. F. Cady, the local merchant, was elected director for three years and Mrs. Louise Morrison clerk for the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Richards have with them their daughter, Mrs. M. W. Hanel, of Hugton, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell of Bairdsdale have sold their chicken farm on account of the ill health of Mr. Odell. They will live for the present with their son and daughter in Portland.

The children's day exercises at Smith Memorial church last Sunday were very well rendered and have received much praise. Besides the children's program and the infant baptism some fine musical numbers were given by Mrs. Ella Hoberg Tripp and Mrs. Hammond of Portland.

Word has been received from Dr. E. E. Benson, who has been in attendance at the General Presbyterian Assembly in Philadelphia, that he has been sent to Europe on a mission by the assembly and will not return here before September. Rev. F. G. Strange will act as pastor of his church for a few Sundays.

Leslie St. Clair left last week for eastern Oregon with his truck to engage in road work. When last heard from he was at Redmond.

Miss Fox of the county library was much encouraged by the patronage by Fairview people of the book wagon. In spite of the many attractions calling people to Portland, a number of people were present at the city hall and a good many books were issued. Miss Fox says that the book wagon will call without fail at the city hall each Tuesday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. R. J. Copeland and children have been visiting at Camas, Washington. Mrs. Copeland's mother, Mrs. Chappell, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cady entertained during Shriner week Harold Martin and his sister, Miss Marjorie, from the University of Washington, who had motored down for the festivities. They left this morning for their home in Spokane.

One of the happy surprises of Shriner week was the discovery in the crowd of old friends and neighbors of the McKay and Cavanagh families from New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Murray and daughter, Jean. The visitors were entertained at luncheon at the McKay home yesterday and in the afternoon enjoyed a trip over the Columbia river highway with the Cavanaghs. They were enthusiastic about the beauties of the scenery and the geniality and enthusiasm of the westerners.

The young people's class of Smith Memorial Sunday school held a farewell party one evening this week at the home of Mrs. Maud Pratt in honor of Frank Greenman, who has since left to take up work in a forest reserve.

Melrose and Victory

Lester Conrad has sold his 10-acre farm to James Barry of Portland. Mr. Barry will not occupy the farm himself. A family have already moved onto the place. They are Mr. and Mrs. Frasier from Portland.

Percy Conrad returned home this week from South Bend, Indiana where he has been working in the Oliver Chilled Plow company's plant for about a year. After a visit with the home folks he expects to go to Albany. Orle Conrad, who is running a farm near Albany spent the week-end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carothers of Gresham and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, and grandparents, Rosy Allen and Mrs. Dolly Fadden of Centralia, Missouri, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood today.

The adult Bible class of the Hiff Sunday school will take for discussion at the study hour next Sunday the question "What influence has heredity and environment on the will to do good?"

PLEASANT HOME

At the Methodist church next Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, will deliver the third sermon of the series on "The Church a Factor in World History." The special topic will include a statement of the meaning of the 13th chapter of Revelation, which speaks of the beast whose number is 666, and also the 17th chapter, which speaks of the fall of Babylon.
