The Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday evening. A short program has been arranged and a community sing is planned for the evening. Refreshments will be served. This promises to be one of the most interesting meetings that has been held for some time. Every one is invited to attend.

Mrs. Ruby Breithaupt from Ontario, Oregon and Miss Elsie Elliott have been visiting their father, A. B. Elliott. They returned to their home Monday evening. Mrs. Breithaupt's husband is the county agent of Malheur county.

Rev. J. Truedson returned last Thursday from Carlton where he attended a mission meeting. Other pastors present were Rev. A. V. Anderson, Rev. V. G. Ogren of Portland, Rev. D. S. Nystrom and Rev. E. A. Larson of Astoria.

PLEASANT HOME
Svea Lundbom, who was so seriously injured last week when she fell beneath the disc which she was driving, is getting along as well as can be expected. She still suffers considerable pain but as yet no further trouble has developed. The fact that John Ickler, who was passing along the road, was the first to reach her and render assistance was omitted from the account of the accident last week.

Contracts for enough apple boxes to run a factory all summer have been secured by the Bede lund company of Portland, which has just commenced erection of its box factory.
