

For a GLORIOUS FOURTH

BREEZY ITEMS TELL OF BORING DOINGS

Telford, Jarl and Streeben represented road district No. 3 at the mass meeting in Oregon City, called by the Clackamas County Development League for the purpose of discussing the pavement problems.

Miss Bertha Shank has taken the place of Miss Mary Bock as telephone operator at Damascus central.

Among Tuesday's marriage licenses was one issued to John Chitwood of Damascus and Edna Berke of Gresham.

Last Sunday being the fourth, fifth or sixth anniversary of something or other the John and Fred Anderson families, the Eric Bartel family and the Herman Johnson family—19 souls all told—had a picnic in the Johnson pasture in the shade of Oregon's first growth firs and hemlocks.

Albert Wolfhagen, who was operated on at the Oregon City hospital two weeks ago, is mending nicely. He expects to be home in a few days and has been feeling so fine that he has threatened to sneak off ahead of time.

Now is the time to bury your millions, hide your diamonds back of the clock and tie the dog and the piano down in the slashing. Deputy Assessor W. A. Morand is out with a big book, a pencil a foot long and an eye that seems to see through metal, wood or whitewash.

Wednesday, Miss Gladys Kunich became the bride of Elmer Fieg both of Portland. Mrs. Fieg is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Vinzant.

Advertisement for Schanno's Confectionery, featuring 'Weatherly Ice Cream' and 'The Kiddies' Verdict'.

NOTED FRATERNALIST PASSES IN PORTLAND

A. L. Keenan, well and favorably known throughout Multnomah county and especially to the members of the Woodmen of the World camps, died at his home in Portland early on Tuesday morning last.

Mr. Keenan was born in Illinois June 23, 1860, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1871, settling at Milwaukie. Later the family moved to Portland and he began his business as a street contractor in company with his brother, A. D. Keenan.

He became best known in his connection with the Waverly Baby Home of which he was one of the organizers and of which he was treasurer until his death. In fraternal circles he cast his lot with Multnomah camp, Woodmen of the World, the largest Woodmen camp in the United States, serving as consul commander and clerk and doing his full duty in other important positions.

He was twice married and leaves a widow and three children. He is also survived by his brother and a sister, Mrs. Maude Shaver. Funeral services were held today at the First Evangelical church in Portland with committal services at the Sellwood crematorium in charge of the officers of Multnomah camp.

W. C. Burch left yesterday for his summer's work as a fire patrol in the Columbia National forest in Washington. He was accompanied by his son, Clair. The two will live on the top of Lookout mountain and watch for forest fires.

Miss Miriam Brown left this morning for Heppner where she will spend the summer.

A 13 1/2-pound baby girl arrived yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jelken of Rockwood.

C. I. Raker has bought Mrs. Mary Leslie's property on Main street. Mrs. Fieta Hibbard, mother of Mrs. Raker will occupy the house.

PLANS BIG FOR MONDAY'S CELEBRATION; AMERICAN LEGION PREPARES FOR CROWD

Plans for the Fourth of July celebration to be held July 5 are about completed and are the most ambitious of any celebration that has ever been given in Gresham.

The M. A. Ross Post of the G. A. R. will ride in automobiles furnished by American Legion men. E. E. Chipman will be color bearer and lead the G. A. R. division.

The Japanese will have some unusual stunts in the parade and will also furnish fireworks in the evening. The Japanese are planning on a tea garden at the fair grounds during the day.

Thousands of people are expected here as the gasoline shortage will keep people from going long distances and it is said that many Portland people are planning on coming here.

All of the business houses that have not already done so are urged to get busy on suitable floats and cars to show that Gresham business men are up-to-date and progressive.

At 10:30 there will be a program in the grove and Mayor Kenney will give the address of welcome. Judge Jacob Kanzer of Portland will be the main speaker and will deliver a patriotic address.

The marriage vows were taken under a bower of roses. The couple was unattended excepting by little Virginia Harris, sister of the groom, who bore the ring in an Easter lily.

Notice to the Public. The Good Eats restaurant on the corner of Main and Powell is now open for business. Give us a trial and we will give you satisfaction.

Advertisement for F. D. Kribs, offering lumber at greatly reduced prices.

CLUB MEMBERS ARE ENJOYING O. A. C. TRIP

The following are parts of letters received from Amy Gustafson describing her experiences at the summer school at Oregon Agricultural College during this week and last.

Tuesday, June 22.—Lillie and I arrived at Corvallis about 15 minutes to 5 p. m. and we had supper at Waldo Hall.

Practice house which is a great big house which is run by the college. It sure is a dandy house. From 6 to 10 college girls who want to learn how to take care of a home do all of the work.

This morning at 8 o'clock the boys were all in swimming. We are all going to go through the college buildings now.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock there will be an airplane exhibition flight and air stunts over the town. This promise to be one of the real events of the day.

The wedding of John Kohlen Honey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Honey, and Miss Margaret Fargo Larsson of Seattle took place on Monday, June 28 at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Calvin Shipley Larsson in Seattle.

The happy couple are now on a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Portland where Mr. Honey is employed by the International Lumber company.

Monday, June 28.—I told you in the letter I wrote yesterday that all of the club boys and girls went to Sunday school in the morning at the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kilgore, of Chicago, are visiting relatives here and at Estacada.

GIANTS WIN, 7-0; BIG GAMES COMING

The Gresham Giants are scheduled to meet the North Pacific Eagles on the home field next Sunday, July 4 where they will play for the Class A-1 league leadership.

Last Sunday the Giants played against the National Broom Co. and won with a score of 7 to 0 in favor of the home team.

The batteries were for Gresham, Stockton and Heitzman; for the Nationals, Moore and Turple.

Immediately after the parade Monday, July 5, the home team will meet the Eastern and Western Lumber Co.'s team on the home field in a second game.

Yesterday we were over to the Practice house which is a great big house which is run by the college. It sure is a dandy house.

Monday, June 28.—I told you in the letter I wrote yesterday that all of the club boys and girls went to Sunday school in the morning at the Methodist church.

There are lots of nice girls here and we have lots of fun with the three girls of the Tillamook canning team.

The installation of officers was held by the Odd Fellow lodge last night at their hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kilgore, of Chicago, are visiting relatives here and at Estacada.

JOHN M. CHITWOOD WEDS EDNA BERKE

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Berke, in Pleasant Valley when their daughter, Edna, was united in marriage to John M. Chitwood of Damascus, Wednesday evening, June 30th.

The marriage was solemnized at 8:30 p. m. in presence of relatives and friends, Rev. Mr. Murphy, of Portland officiating.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin with a veil becomingly arranged with orange blossoms. She carried white roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Hazel, who wore light green and carried pink roses. Ottilie Berke acted as best man.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of cedar and roses with a white bell in the center. Miss Jessie Mulbridge sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Henrietta Troge, who also played the wedding march.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served. Miss Lillie and Signa Rystrom of Minneapolis and Miss Laura Moore assisted about the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Chitwood later took their departure for "no one knows where," to be gone a short time and will make their home near Damascus.

Mrs. Chitwood has taught in the Pleasant Valley school a number of terms and it was with regrets and tears that the little people bade her goodbye this spring, knowing she was not to meet them at the door when school opened in September.

Many useful and beautiful gifts were given these popular young people.

Advertisement for Kyanize White Enamel, featuring a testimonial from a young boy and the company name Jones Lumber Co.