On Enemies.
 We should worry about our enemies! The best and bravest soldiers in France had cooties.
 Davy Crockett said: "Be sure you're right; then go ahead!"
 Some literary fellow who must have been in a good fight has written:
 You have no enemies, you say?
 Alas, my friend, the boast is poor! He who has mingled in the fray
 Of duty that the brave endure
 Must have made foes; if you have none—
 Small is the work that you have done!
 You've hit no traitor on the hip,
 You've dashed no cup from perjured lip,
 You've never turned a wrong to right—
 You've been a coward in the fight!

As a coffee roasting center Portland is the second city on the coast.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. K. A. Miller to straighten up the financial affairs of the auxiliary. The auxiliary took in about $100 at the Fourth of July celebration on their booth. The bills are not all paid but it is expected the auxiliary will clear at least $50 on their venture. The president requests that all bills against the auxiliary be presented at this meeting.

Wm. McKray, of Baker, Oregon, called on John Brown Tuesday afternoon. Mr. McKray is an old settler here, having attended school here in 1886 when Ben Rollins taught the Gresham school. Mr. McKray has not visited Gresham in 25 years. He is interested in mining near Baker City.

Gresham grange will meet in regular session next Saturday evening, when a number of candidates will be given initiatory work in the first and second degrees. Following the work refreshments of ice cream and cake will be served.

W. J. Hollenbeck from Rupert, Idaho, came Sunday evening and joined his wife and children who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern. All of Mr. and Mrs. Kern's children, grand children and children-in-law are here visiting and a very happy time is being had in this extended family reunion.

Mrs. R. C. Linville and son Lo and baby Allen spent the week-end with Mrs. Linville's sister, Mrs. C. W. Gleason.

J. W. McDonald and Mrs. Maggie Uim spent the Fourth seeing the sights at Vancouver and Columbia Beach and finished the day seeing "the pictures" at Portland.

Gresham grange will hold its regular session on Saturday evening, July 10 at 8 o'clock, instead of during the day. This will be a very important meeting and should be well attended by members. It will be made a social time as well as a business meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Stanley is enjoying a visit from her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Enghausser of Creston, Iowa.

John W. Pugh of Clatskanie, a pioneer of this vicinity, is visiting with relatives and friends here. He enjoyed the celebration in Gresham with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Tarr.

A business meeting of the Gresham W. C. T. U. will be held at the library on Wednesday afternoon, July 6, at 2:30 o'clock. The change in day is made necessary because of the fact that the library is not open on Thursdays during the summer.

Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair and baby and Mrs. H. M. Shaw of Fairview were guests of the H. L. St. Clair family on Monday and took in the celebration.

J. Fred McGrew, the Willamette University student who is representing his institution in this vicinity, gave several interesting readings in connection with the evening program at the celebration, which were very much appreciated.

People from Gresham and vicinity who celebrated yesterday at Estacada were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carothers and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and daughter, Mrs. Dolly Faddis, of Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood and daughter, Miss Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Anderson, who went to join in a gathering of relatives and old neighbors in honor of the Smiths, former residents of Estacada. About seventy-five people joined in picnic gathering and dinner.

Mrs. N. E. Greene's educated horse and dogs had a prominent part in the parade. All were decorated with the national colors, silver fringed. The Great Dane dogs were labeled, "Guardians of the First State Bank," and they looked perfectly able to make a success of their job. The mother of one of them is night watch in a New York bank. The educated horse performed a number of surprising feats in front of the grand stand in the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Green, who has trained him.

Joseph Whetstone, a prominent newspaper man of Montana, was a caller in Gresham today. He is on his return from attending the democratic convention at Frisco.

Dentist—"Do you want your tooth pulled?"
 Patient—"Certainly not; but it has to be pulled just the same."

Regular meeting of Gresham Lodge No. 125, I.O.O.F., in the Odd Fellows hall, every Thursday evening. Visitors welcome.

HENRY GAINES HAWN

Henry Gaines Hawn of San Francisco, an authority on community building, is one of several speakers now touring the state in connection with the expansion movement of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce.

The State Chamber is making a state-wide appeal for a budget of $450,000, covering a period of three years, to carry on its development work.

The movement has been endorsed by more than two hundred leading men throughout Oregon. Eighty community executive committees have been organized to co-operate with the State Chamber in the canvass throughout the state which will be conducted during June and July.

Oregon gasoline and distillate tax produces $498,928 for road funds since February 26, 1919.

The American Can company is to erect a $1,500,000 plant building in Portland.

Library Hours for Summer Months.
 Vacation hours are now in force at the Gresham branch library, which will continue until September 1. They are as follows: 2:30 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; 2:30 to 5:30 on Saturdays. The library will not be opened on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
