Plan to give the children all small libraries. See to it that they have pure instructive books to read. If the love of good books be instilled into the children while very young, they will grow up with tastes already formed and will shun the sensational literature that is broadcast over the land as they would contagious diseases.

An honest heart and an industrious hand—what can not they achieve? If they are yours, don't be afraid of anything.

Good nature, like the little busy bee, collects sweetness from every herb; while ill nature, like the spider, collects poison from honeyed flowers.

GRESHAM LOCALS Grange Picnic Well Attended

"Grandma" Hannah Johnson, in company with her granddaughter, Mrs. Faye Johnson Duncan of Portland, has gone to Bend, Oregon, for a visit with the latter's mother. They expect to be away two or three weeks.

Ernest August Lekberg is the latest arrival at Mrs. D. S. Johnson's private hospital. He was born on Sunday, August 1 and weighed 8 1/2 pounds. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. August Lekberg of Boring.

Mrs. Jane McGann, of Spokane, Washington, is a patient at Mrs. D. S. Johnson's, where she is receiving treatment for throat trouble.

Frank Rice and wife, of Portland, are visiting C. A. Coe and family. They are looking for a suitable location for a home here. Mrs. Coe and Mrs. Rice are sisters.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Metzger on July 28, when some of the neighbors and friends surprised Mrs. Metzger, it being her birthday. Those present besides the host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mrs. D. G. Geddes, Miss Hazel Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. H. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thom and children, Elizabeth and Bobby.

Mrs. C. O. Branson is spending a few days in Gresham visiting friends. She is storing her household goods at the home of Mrs. Emma Gilmore. Mrs. Branson has just finished the summer school session at Monmouth and is on her vacation. She will return to normal next September.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery, Miss Ruby Emery and Dr. and Mrs. Mark Emery and baby Jean, enjoyed a trip over the Columbia River highway Sunday in celebration of Mrs. Mark Emery's birthday. The party went as far as Eagle Creek where they had lunch. During the day they hiked up the trail to the punch bowl.

Chris Borges, of Damascus, a member of the Gresham Post, was among those who attended the state convention of the American Legion at Astoria last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sherwood and daughter Marjory, of Portland, and Mrs. Carrie James of Los Angeles, California, are leaving this morning for the mountains near Bull Run. They are going just as far up the Bull Run river as they can take their machines and will spend some time camping.

Mrs. H. W. Snashall greeted many friends at the Farmers Field day picnic Saturday. This is the first large gathering Mrs. Snashall has attended since her recent illness.

Frank Davey, employed with the Daily Statesman of Salem, was in Gresham yesterday and called on S. B. Hall and at the Outlook office. Mr. Davey is a veteran newspaper man, having owned his first paper in Iowa, which he bought in 1876. He came to Oregon in his young manhood and has been connected with several papers in this state as owner or special correspondent. Mr. Davey will soon be 70 years of age but appears to be much younger. He is a candidate for the legislature on the republican ticket from Marion county.

Mrs. Harry Chase of Latourell is in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, where she recently underwent a serious operation, and where she is reported to be doing well. Mrs. Chase will be remembered in Gresham as Miss Ellen DeHaven.

The Gospel meetings being conducted at the lower hall of the Odd Fellows' building by W. R. Ruddock and H. W. Hathaway will be continued during this week, excepting that no service will be held on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist and son have returned from Manzanita beach where they have been spending their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts have gone to Welches for a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hodge and son John have just returned from Rockaway where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Ford of Portland.

Laurence R. Serrurier, of Stanford University, is visiting at the home of A. M. Mowry of Boring.

There were two very good bucking contests put on at the fair grounds last Saturday afternoon after the athletic contests. The lateness of the hour prevented the carrying out of the complete racing program.

Miss Ruth Young, county health nurse, will be at the library next Friday, August 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Schneider have returned from a wonderful trip by automobile to Spokane and Seattle and surrounding country. They have been away more than two weeks and come back enthusiastic over the trip. While away Mrs. Schneider learned to swim and had the pleasure of swimming in eight different lakes near Spokane.

Mrs. F. L. Mack, secretary of the auxiliary of Gresham Post American Legion, has received a supply of emblems of the auxiliary for distribution to those members who wish to buy them. Mrs. Mack will keep them at the electrical store on Main street, where they may be obtained.

There were a number of milk maids and hired men and they first sang a little verse entitled, "Everybody Works at the Dairying" and in the verse they enumerated every member of the family as well as most of the relatives. They then sang about the milk cans sitting at the gate and "along comes the taxen and takes one away, then there are five full milk cans sitting at the gate". After expenses, loss, wages, etc., had taken their share of the full milk cans, the poor farmer and his family found no full milk cans left at the gate and they went mournfully off the stage, all their work gone for nothing.

Multnomah grange took the opportunity to boost cooperation and take a slap at the middleman. This was carried out by arranging two tables filled with produce with the "farmer" at one and the "middleman" at another. The middleman's prices were nearly double those of the farmer who soon disposed of his supplies to the thrifty buyers. The middle man had to go out of business and the last thing he did was to advertise for a farm because that was the best business when "cooperation" was in force.

Russellville grange had a waiter who served a gasoline cocktail to his patrons with the result that they gave in imitation of a Ford car getting a start on a cold morning.

Everyone thinks this field day was the best that has been held here. Certainly the program was splendid, well carried out and kept everyone entertained for the full day.

Pleasant Valley grange won the silver cup offered by Staples, The Jeweler, for the grange winning the relay race last Saturday.

The winning team was Jenne, Bliss, Burns and Shoeman. The Fairview team came in second. On their team were Townsend, Greenman, Altman and Bozarth.

In the 75-yard dash Wilbur Quirk won first place and B. Harris second. Florence Kern won the first place in the 50-yard dash for girls under 12 years. Viva Anderson came in second.

The tug of war was one of the best lined teams of the contest. It seemed fully a minute before either side gained anything but finally T. J. Kreuder's team began gaining slowly inch by inch but still a decided gain and when the time was called they had the captain over the line.

In the 100-yard race, Walter Jenkins won first place and F. A. Hurst second.

James McDonald won first and Wilbur Nelson second in the race for boys under 12 years.

The 50-yard dash for women was won by Mrs. Alice Leedy and the second place by Lulu Wicklander.

B. Harris and Wilbur Quirk won first place on the three-legged race and Aldeno Miller and Francis Peak second.

Mrs. Mary Thompson won first place in the egg race and Mrs. Pearl Hayden second place. There was a splendid line-up for the egg race: Mesdames K. A. Miller, Frank Peak, Lulu Wicklander, Geo. W. Stapleton, W. R. Kern, Alice Leedy and Frank Heiney.
