To Find Flaws in Diamonds.
Common white cigarette paper will help to show flaws in diamonds. First, to clean your ring thoroughly, roll up a single white paper into a compact cone-shaped roll, smaller in size than a match; insert the pointed end of this between two prongs of the ring, and draw it all the way through; finish by polishing the surface of the stone with a crumpledup paper.

Now take a fresh paper and, holding it at right angles to the ring, place the center of it over the stone. Fold each end down, holding between thumb and finger. Touch your tongue to the paper-covered diamond to moisten it. Any black spots in the stone will now show through in a startling fashion.—Popular Science Monthly.

REPUBLIC Tires do last longer.

They last longer because of the Prodiun Process.

This Republic discovery toughens the rubber. It strengthens it. It gives longer life and greater resistance to wear.

That is why, in the end, Republic Tires give such universal economy and satisfaction.

That is why they are good tires for you to buy.

KELSO

Mrs. Joseph A. Jonsrud and little sons, Russell, Roland and Kenneth, of Grants Pass, Oregon, spent a few days last week with the Gilbert and Robert Jonsrud families.

T. B. Bowen has sold his place and will move to Sandy.

The schoolhouse is being renovated, and the floors oiled in preparation for the opening of school September 13.

R. E. Jarl has been working up at his mill above Marmot for the last two weeks.

A near auto accident happened Sunday on the Deep creek hill when the driver failed to make a sharp turn, coming up the hill. In backing up the brake failed to hold, and only an immense stump near the roadside prevented the car from backing over the steep hillside. It took some time and ingenuity to get the big Hudson car back in the road, with the two lady occupants happy over their good fortune in their narrow escape. The good samaritans in this case were Albert Rodlun and Mr. Carlson of the Ridge. Isaac Scott had previously attempted to pull the heavy car back into the road with his Chevrolet, but failed.

PLEASANT HOME

A very interesting session of the Methodist Sunday school was held Sunday and there was a large attendance in most of the classes. Mrs. E. E. VanFleet's class won the attendance banner for having the largest number present. The total attendance was more than 50.

There were nearly a dozen members of the 11th Sunday school present at the Sunday school session Sunday and the superintendent, G. H. Bickford, welcomed them to the ranks of workers at the Pleasant Home M. E. Sunday school. By a rising vote the Pleasant Home Sunday school invited the members of the 11th Sunday school to continue to attend at Pleasant Home.

Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m. next Sunday and all are invited to attend. The lesson topic is an interesting one and concerns the weaknesses in the character of David. Last Sunday the lesson emphasized the strong points in his character and a great many admirers of the life of David were disclosed in the discussion of this side of his character.

Continuing the series on church history, the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, will speak on the subject, "The Growth of Centralization in the Medieval Church" at the Pleasant Home Methodist church at 11 a. m. Sunday.

POWELL VALLEY

Miss Freida Peterson was the guest of Miss Elizabeth Cady at Fairview last week.

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad were Rev. E. Douhan of Denver, Colorado, Rev. G. Sholander of Portland and Rev. John Frelberg of Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Richard Gustafson and family of Portland spent a week here visiting parents and other relatives.

About 30 of the young people gathered at the Danielson home Tuesday evening in honor of the birthday of Minnie Danielson. Games formed an important part of a jolly evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour and all departed after having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palmblad spent the week-end with Chas. Unis and daughter, Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sture, of Sandy, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmblad last Sunday afternoon.

A new milking machine has been installed at the Chas. Unis farm and everybody on the place is feeling happy.

Little Melba Magnuson is improving rapidly from her recent injury. In some way she injured the bone just below her knee and caused a gathering to form. After lancing it began to improve and is now doing nicely. At first it was feared the bone was injured seriously but an X-ray failed to disclose any trouble.

There will be no preaching services at the Lutheran church Sunday as Rev. J. Truedson, the pastor, will be at Mist, Oregon.

TROUTDALE

Next Sunday at the Methodist church Rev. Earl B. Cotton will present another phase of the early church history. The special topic for this the fifth Sunday of the series, will be "The Growth of Centralization in the Medieval Church." All are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Nelson and son Donald, former residents here, who have been in Minneapolis for several years, returned last Sunday to live at their home, Hope Gardens, west of Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Nagel have sold their home which they bought about a year ago from Mrs. Flora Parker, to Agostino Lisi, from Bridal Veil, who expects to take charge as soon as the Nagels find another home. They expect to live nearer Portland.

The First Day Adventists are holding their annual camp meeting on their camp grounds down by the Sandy river.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Greivish, of Portland, visited friends here Sunday.

FAIRVIEW

The Misses Freda Peterson of Powell Valley and Hazel Morton, of Portland, spent part of last week with Miss Elizabeth Cady.

A dark horse will have to show some speed.

Almost every day one or more persons say to the Outlook, "I am getting splendid returns on my ad."

BORING AND VICINITY.

By RICA ANDERSON.

Monday morning great excitement prevailed for some moments when the natives heard the familiar peck-peck of a threshing machine. Long distance craning located the machine and crew at Jake DeYoung's. Since then stacking has been rushing among the men folks. The ladies have been busy filling the cookie jars. Threshing is no longer the big occasion it used to be in the early days, but it still creates a little of the stir and flutter of those times. And right here fits to perfection a report of a "weeding bee" last Tuesday to which we were not invited as it was one exclusively for kids. This is the how of it. Mrs. John Hoffmeister was the hostess. Irene Sunderlund, Richard Witzel, Helen and Walter Schubert, Marguerite, Thelma and Venard Welch, Annie Boese and Irene Johnson were the guests. At 8:00 o'clock in the morning these weed pullers gathered at the Hoffmeister potato field taking their places one at the end of each row. Then the weed-pulling began. Sailing through a cloud of dust came Johnson weed, cockle burs, thistles, sheep sorrel, sour grass and dog fennel. There wasn't one least bit of a pest those sharp eyes didn't see. At 10 o'clock the loveliest treat was served the guests. Mrs. Hoffmeister came out to the field with sandwiches and delicious loganberry ade. This put such pep into the bunch that it is a wonder a single potato plant was left. By noon the work was finished. A great big dinner was waiting for them to which they did flatteringly justice. One of the guests said, "We had so much fun at the table." In the afternoon they played all over the house—mostly in the basement. They couldn't keep from yelling like little Indians once in a while, but when they inquired if they made too much noise, they were told that it wasn't half noisy enough. That was stepping on the accelerator. Of course, they had the best of times, and when they were paid in honest-to-goodness real money that simply put the day on the calendar.

Oregon is not as dry as it might be. Mr. Berrens sank a well to a depth of 17 feet and there are five feet of water in it now.

This is the month the politicians refer to when they speak of "the fly in the ointment."

A number of our young men are in eastern Oregon where they went to work as harvest hands. Harry Schantin returned this week from the grain fields, where he was chief rider of the horse on the header. His two cousins sat behind him on the same horse.

Have you heard Oliver Peterson clod smash? If you haven't, you've missed something.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Campbell made a flying trip to the capitol city one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of Portland, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Mildred, and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison all of Gresham, were valley visitors Sunday evening.

Leland Moore was home from Coquille for a couple of days during the fore part of the week.

Earl Chilcote has sold his home for a consideration of $3000. C. E. Cleveland, a Gresham real estate dealer, negotiated the sale.

Jas. McLane is building an addition to his barn.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Alder visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, at Sandy recently.

A number of Melrose and Victory people attended Sunday school and church at Pleasant Home Sunday. Others attended at Gresham. There will be no services at 11th in the future unless special notice is given. All those who have been attending here are requested to attend their nearest and most convenient place of worship.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guthrie one day this week.

LUSTED

Miss Beatrice Iverall, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robertson.

Mrs. Evelyn Sherrill of Seattle, Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harris Hamilton at Bull Run.

Joe Pitts, Jr., has moved onto Guy Feder's place, where he is engaged in cutting wood.

Those who joined in the picnic Sunday at Dodge park from here were, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lusted, Mr. and Mrs. G. Robertson, Miss Beatrice Iverall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton and daughter, Mildred, visited their son, Harris, at the Good Samaritan hospital last Sunday.

To Our Friends and Patrons.
All parties wanting wood saved will do well to have it done as soon as possible and avoid the rush later on. We guarantee satisfaction, prompt service, even lengths. Thanking one and all for past favors we are at your service.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.
