COME EARLY

POWELL VALLEY

Clifford and Clyde Resare are visiting at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. C. R. Keller.

Miss Emma Johnson was the guest of Miss Mildred Pullen at Hogan station Saturday evening and Sunday.

Mrs. Emil Lind and baby, Mrs. Larry Foch and baby and Miss Hilma Lind called on Mrs. Swan-Magnuson one afternoon last week.

A number of local people attended a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustafson in Portland Sunday in honor of the latter's birthday. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Swan Magnuson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmblad and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmblad, Chas. Unis, Miss Ellen Unis, Richard Staffenson and Andrew Rydberg, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palmblad and Mr. and Mrs. David Palmblad and son, of Oak Grove were also present. The latter family have just returned from a week's vacation at Mist, Ore.

Nellie Johnson, Myrtle Anderson, Earnest Anderson and John Johnson enjoyed a trip to Government Camp Sunday in John's car. They found that huckleberries are in their prime and that the woods were full of pickers. They report meeting the Sam Carrell family on their way to the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Unis have returned from a short visit at the coast and are at home.

Frank Gustafson purchased a new model Ford Saturday. He had the touring body exchanged for the delivery body of his old car but the new car is a self-starter and has the new improvements.

Mrs. Alta Gentry and son Russell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz at Pleasant Home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson and children and Miss Helen Larson made a trip to Eagle Creek on the Columbia river highway last Friday.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood attended church at Montavilla Sunday morning.

Henry Fritz has just returned from a trip to Waldport. The weather there was too cold, Mr. Fritz declares. There is some danger in publishing a statement like that during this hot weather for it might precipitate a rush of local people to that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fritz, Wm. Fritz and Mrs. I. T. Wood visited friends in Portland Monday evening.

CORBETT

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Stearns, of Sherwood, came Saturday to move their household goods from here to their new home at Sherwood. Mr. Stearns was formerly the station agent here in the employ of the O. W. R. & N. and during their three years' residence here gained many friends.

Geo. Chamberlain and son, Harold, spent several days at the coast recently.

Fred C. Reed sold his Saxon car to Hans Herricksen who is trying to learn to manipulate the gears and get the machine under control.

A. P. Miller, of Portland, was here Tuesday in the interest of the Grange Insurance company.

PLEASANT HOME

Miss Doris Martin returned last week from Salem and has again taken up her studies at the business college in Portland.

Markell's store is looking fine with a new coat of paint. Paint is the wonder worker of the age—and nothing speaks so well for a town as well painted public buildings and homes.

Mrs. Willis Markell and mother, Mrs. Joseph Manary, were Gresham visitors Monday.

Miss Jean Lent and Miss Helen Bickford were Portland visitors Monday.

Mrs. Maud Oliff and daughter, Vivian Halley, from Bellingham, Washington, are making an extended visit at the home of the former's father, Geo. Murray.

The fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held at Pleasant Home Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. All officers and members are requested to have reports ready and be on hand to help finish up the year's work. Thursday afternoon a conference will be held at Troutdale also.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bauder and son Edgar left for Seaside Friday. They were accompanied by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ferry Smith of Portland.

The Baptist Aid society and Sunday school are planning on a picnic at Dodge Park Thursday of this week. Everyone will lay off work and enjoy a real picnic with lots of fun and plenty of eats. The crowd will go up on the 10 o'clock car in the morning coming home on the last car about 6 p. m. Those in charge of the arrangements extend an invitation to any who wish to attend.

Farmers' co-operative livestock shipping associations in the United States do a half-billion dollars worth of business annually and are still growing.

The Spiritualist camp meeting will open July 25th and continue its various meetings until August 22d. Mediums and speakers from all over the United States and Canada. All phases of the cult will be demonstrated. This season promises to be the greatest ever held on the coast.—Adv.

COTTRELL PEOPLE WANT HIGH SCHOOL

Cottrell, August 16, 1920.—Editor

Gresham Outlook:—Please find room in your paper for a few lines in answer to Mr. Wagoner in regard to the Cottrell school district in the issue of August 13. We will admit we were defeated 14 to 24 in our vote to consolidate with Gresham high, by parties I am sorry to say, who are opposed to education on account of a few cents taxes, and by parties whose children are grown and are not interested in the education of the children of this generation. If we who are interested in the education of our children had asked to go into Sandy at first, we would have lost 31 to seven instead of 14 to 24. Yes, we had a petition to split the district signed by two-thirds of all voters in the district, more than the law requires, and our honorable school clerk refused to sign it, and as he has no children, and a few acres of land, I suppose he was justified in refusing to do his duty. We have forced the issue upon them, and if we go into Sandy it will cost us at least a 15 mill tax to run the Sandy school, instead of five at Gresham and Gresham district joins Cottrell instead of being three miles apart, and as for the Sandy school having six districts, yes with a valuation of an average of $120,000, or about $700,000 valuation with a small school building, and Cottrell will add to this $125,000, all told $800,000 or $900,000. But, as I said before, we have forced the issue, it is a school we want and school we're going to have, and if the tightwads want to pay three times as much to go to Sandy, all good and well, they will have a long time to repent of their mistake.

CHAS. E. GOSSETT.

BIBLE TEACHINGS ARE INTERPRETED DIFFERENTLY

Gresham, Aug. 16, 1920.—To the Gresham Outlook:—The writer has had the privilege of attending several meetings held by the two evangelists in "the little church on Powell street." Gresham is indeed fortunate in procuring, even for a limited time, the services of two such zealous and earnest preachers. The Lord undoubtedly appreciates their zeal in endeavoring to win converts, but I wonder if he thoroughly approves their methods.

Entangled, by great misfortune, in an argument with said evangelists the writer admitted to a hope of salvation based on faith in the Bible, Christ and God; also, alas, admitted to the acceptance of a different interpretation of the Bible from the one these worthy men expound. Nightly they assure one of the Heavenly glories to be won by a simple acceptance of Christ. Yet, to my great surprise and grief, a personal talk revealed yet another to whose majesty and power one must bow in order to achieve salvation—in other words, his satanic majesty the devil.

Christ is quoted as saying: "Satan is a liar and the father of lies" and I was willing and anxious to believe him. Also, I had previously found joy in various beautiful lines found in the Scriptures, such as, "Love thinketh no evil," and "Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God," etc. However, it seems there is a grievous error somewhere. There can be no "pure in heart"; there can be no earthly object for meditation upon which one may reflect without "thinking evil." These gentlemen say so. We are evil, very evil, evil through and through from birth to the grave. If one presumes to cheat the devil of his due,—falls to acknowledge his dominion in all earthly matters—is guilty, in fact, of attempting to snub the devil, God in his wrath will cast one forever into hell.

This may all be true, but considering that there are at present 168 different Christian denominations it is suggested in all good part that a certain respect be granted an honest faith. To assure one holding a faith that differs from their own that that faith is a paved road to hell is neither just nor Christian. "Judge not that ye be not judged."

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping.

True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion.

In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease."

But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone.

For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.

MOODY INSTITUTE OPENS BIBLE SCHOOL

The church people of Oregon who heretofore have had to journey to other states to attend summer conferences now have the best the country affords in this line near at hand. The first annual summer Bible schools of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago which opened July 25 at Gladstone Park and Ashland, Oregon, to continue until August 22, are being attended by a large number of Christian workers, clergymen and others attracted by a program of wide range and the strong list of speakers. These include Dr. Lewis Sperry Chaffer, noted Bible teacher of New York, Rev. George E. Guille and Rev. B. B. Sutcliffe, of the Extension Staff of The Moody Bible Institute, Dr. W. B. Hinson, the well-known Portland pastor, and Dr. W. P. White, pastor for 19 years at Albany, Ore., and now Regional Director of The Moody Institute for the Pacific Coast.

The purpose of these schools is intensive study of the Bible. No charge is made for tuition, and tents with floors are furnished those in attendance at nominal rates. It is planned to continue these schools annually.

Dr. James M. Gray, Dean of The Moody Bible Institute, is to give Bible addresses in Portland during the month of November.
