Winchester Knives For Everything

WHY does a woman prefer a Winchester Kitchen Knife for even such easy cutting as trimming a pie?

Simply because Winchester Knives are made so well, out of such good steel, that she unconsciously forms the habit of using them for everything.

Come in this week and see the special display we are making of Winchester Cutlery, which keeps sharp so long.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Gresham Rebekah lodge will give a basket social at the Odd Fellows hall on Monday evening, September 13. The husbands, wives or sweethearts of the members are expected to be present and all Odd Fellows. It is hoped that large numbers of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows from Boring and Sandy will be present. The ladies are to bring baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Kidder have been entertaining a number of guests this week, among them being Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Kidder and daughter, Janette, of Hastings, Nebraska, and Earl Kidder of St. Maries, Idaho, cousins of Mr. Kidder. G. W. Cook of Portland, brother-in-law of Mrs. Kidder, was a week end guest.

Frank Jones has received word from his son Etsel, from Cordova, Alaska, that he is headed for the Pering sea. He is in charge of government construction work in establishing radio stations.

Services at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday will include Sunday school at 10 o'clock, preaching by the pastor, Rev. R. E. Myers, at 11 o'clock, Epworth League in the evening at 7 and preaching at 8 by the pastor. Miss Edella Towle will sing a solo in connection with the morning service. Miss Mary Good will lead the young people's meeting. All are cordially invited.

Rudolph Mullenhoff went to Corvallis on Monday to make arrangements for his entrance in preparatory work at the college in vocational training. Rudolph's application was the 600th for the season. He was accompanied on his trip by his uncle, Carl Mullenhoff, of Leigh, Nebraska. They were much pleased by what they saw on their trip but agreed that this section is the most attractive of any they saw.

W. G. Lloyd, general adjuster for the National Ben Franklin Insurance company, Frank Barrett, special agent and adjuster for the Dubuque Insurance company, and Toll Thompson, special agent and adjuster for California Insurance company, were in Gresham this morning to examine the machines of the Gresham Steam Laundry which were damaged in the fire Saturday night which practically destroyed the D. C. Ross building on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eling and family have just returned from a week at Seaside and other Oregon beaches. They had a most delightful trip. The Elings made the trip to Crater Lake recently, camping out along the way. This proved a very pleasant and enjoyable outing.

Geo. Beers, real estate agent at Sandy, reports the sale of a fine six and a half acre farm near Pleasant Home to J. W. Wood of Weiser, Idaho. The place was formerly owned by A. Butz.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crane have moved from their old home on the Sandy boulevard to the Sloss place near the Rockwood road, where they will remain temporarily. They retain the same mail address and will soon have a Gresham telephone installed. Mr. Crane's mother, Mrs. Anna Crane, is keeping house for Fred Crane Jr., while the latter's wife is spending a short time in the hop fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson received a telegram this week announcing the birth of a daughter to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Johnson of Langdon, North Dakota. The latter visited in Gresham a year or two ago. This is the 31st grandchild born to the Johnsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Walin and family have returned from a camping trip to Seaside and report a fine time. They camped in the auto camp park at Clatskanie both going and coming and speak highly of the accommodations offered to travellers. Mr. Walin has purchased a tractor for his farm since returning.

Keep Your Batteries Young

The only tonic any battery needs is a little charging now and then. Square treatment and a drink of water once a week go a long way toward keeping it in tiptop shape. Ask Mr. Pugh at C. E. Osburn's garage.—Adv.

Until such time as a new plant can be installed in Gresham the Gresham Steam Laundry will handle the work of their patrons in Portland.—Adv.

You furnish the cans; I have the corn. A. Heiney, Phone 98.

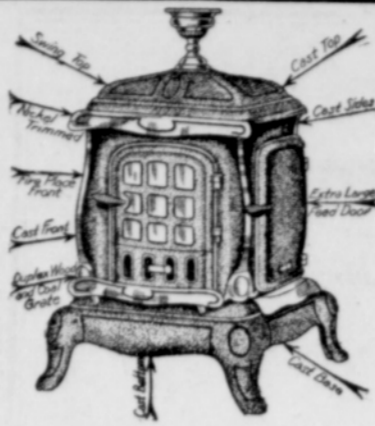

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and words of sympathy in connection with the sickness and funeral of our loved one, the late Mrs. Clara Marston. Appreciation is expressed for the many floral tributes. COLBY MARSTON AND FAMILY.

The Gresham Steam Laundry will continue to handle the work of their patrons until a new plant can be installed. The bundles will be collected and delivered as usual.—Adv.
