POWELL VALLEY

Henry Treber is painting his house. The building looks very attractive since it is painted.

Little Dagmar Liedfors celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday with a little party. There were a dozen little folks present and they enjoyed the afternoon playing games. A delicious lunch was served the little folks at the close of the afternoon. Miss Dagmar received a number of pretty presents.

Through an oversight on the part of the reporter the date of the reception to the Powell Valley canning team was omitted. It has been learned that a number did not know of the reception in time to attend. The omission was not noticed in time to make any correction although it was regretted.

Rev. John Huleen of Aberdeen, Washington, will preach at the Swedish Mission church next Friday and Saturday evenings, and Sunday at 11 o'clock and at 8 in the evening.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand and son, Clarence, motored to Albany last Saturday where they visited with Mrs. Ekstrand's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edholm, returning Sunday evening.

Wm. Donaghy has returned from a three months' sojourn in California. Miss Birdie McLean of Superior, Wisconsin, is a guest at the home of her brother, Jas. McLean.

Fred Borgas was a Gresham visitor one day this week.

Pleasant Valley school opened last Monday with a record enrollment for the first day. Miss Victoria Worsheim is principal and Miss Beatrice Rolfe in charge of the primary room.

PLEASANT HOME

"An Offspring of Purified Christianity," will be the topic at the Pleasant Home Methodist church, Sunday morning, September 19. Everyone is invited to this service at 11 a. m., and to the Sunday school, which meets at 10 o'clock under the direction of the superintendent, G. H. Bleckford. Come to the church that pulls up stream.

CEDAR AND VICTORY

Mrs. C. P. Tallman is spending a few days at her home in Cedar district.

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Harvey and family spent last Saturday in Portland in celebration of Mr. Harvey's birthday.

TROUTDALE

Sunday's worship at Troutdale this week will be held at 8 o'clock. The pastor's topic will be "An Offspring of Purified Christianity."

KELSO

Following are the songs written for the occasion and sung by the ladies' trio of Kelso at the Sandy road celebration—the first to the tune of "Let the Rest of the World Go By", a parody on that song.

To the Highway.

Was the struggle and strife
Of the pioneer's life
Really worth while after all
I've been thinking today
'Twas their labor and faith
Led us where the west winds call.

CHORUS.

With a highway like you
A friend, good and true,
Our need will be fulfilled
And joyfully will build
Till our country will be known
As God's alone
Most wonderful place to call a home

We'll find perfect peace
Where joys never cease
Out here beneath a kindly sky
We'll build many a nest
In this wonderful west
Where all the rest of the world will go by.

The future will hold
New problems untold
But we'll meet them every one,
With heart, head and hand
Together we'll stand
Till victory is won.

By MRS. ROBT. JONSRUD.

The following was sung to the tune of "There's a Long, Long Trail."
There's a long highway a-winding
Up to grand old Mt. Hood
Through fields of golden harvests
Where the pioneer stood.
There's been lots of earnest fighting
To make our dreams all come true—
And now we'll show the whole world
What our Clackamas county can do.
EUNICE JONSRUD.
