CANNON'S Dry Goods Store

NEVER BEFORE!
NEVER AGAIN!

SUCH A SALE

READ! THEN COME!

Without an equal and standing forth as the Greatest Sale in the history of Gresham, the Great Closing Out Sale of Cannon's fine stock of merchandise continues to draw crowds of people who all appreciate the marvelous savings offered and everything is in readiness for a big day Saturday. We are absolutely and positively going out of business and we are cutting and slashing prices in our firm determination to clear the store of every vestige of merchandise and no reasonable offer will be refused for any part or all of this stock. HERE IS A MATCHLESS OPPORTUNITY

Our entire stock of new, clean, up-to-date, Dry Goods, Furnishing Goods, Shoes, Corsets, Rubbers, Rubber Boots, etc., consists of the best merchandise that money can buy must and will be sold. SO THINK WHAT THIS SALE MEANS TO YOU. When other merchants are reaping their harvest of profits, and compelled to sell you merchandise at the highest prices ever known in the history of the United States, we are sacrificing our entire stock and offering it for sale at prices less than any merchant can buy the same goods for at wholesale today.

PLEASE BEAR IN MIND

The good things were not for one day or one week only, but each and every day of this mighty sale you will find new and attractive bargains, and it will continue so until every article in this stock is closed out completely.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Queen Esthers are planning a Hallowe'en masquerade party to be given at the grange hall on the evening of October 30 to which all young people are invited. Prizes will be given for the best masked girl and the best masked boy. Further announcements will be made of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie are planning to leave tomorrow morning for Seaside for an indefinite stay. They have sold a part of their property there and expect to build themselves a new cabin. They may be away for several weeks.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold a public reception for the teachers of the Gresham grade school and of Union high school next Thursday evening, October 21, at the library. Plans for an interesting program of speaking and music and a social evening are under way.

The Gresham local of the Oregon Dairymen's League will meet at the grange hall on next Monday evening, October 18. Business of vital importance to dairymen will be discussed and a large attendance is anticipated.

Rev. R. E. Myers and family left for their new work at Woodburn on Wednesday of this week. A large number of friends called on them to bid them God speed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen, where they spent the last two days before leaving.

J. C. Kilgore has been nursing an injured foot for the past week or more, as the result of stepping on a nail. He is getting around on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Wanehane, Idaho people who have just arrived here, are taking up their temporary residence in the Harmon house on Powell street.

Mrs. Hengstler and her nephew Glenn Swann, friends of Mrs. Radford reached their journey's end Thursday evening. They motored here in a Dodge car from Panoia, Colorado, a 1600-mile trip. On their long drive they experienced only one blow-out and two slow leaks which speaks well for the Dodge. The rain and mud in this part of the country was a marked contrast to the dust found in eastern Oregon.

Mrs. J. W. Wiedanen, daughter of Benj. Matthews, visited home folks and friends here a couple of weeks, leaving for her home in Heppner, yesterday.

The M. A. Ross Post, G. A. R., and Women's Relief Corps will meet in regular session Saturday. Mrs. Elizabeth Conaway of Gordon Granger corps, state inspector will be present.

The class in home nursing that was organized last Tuesday by Miss Young, the county public health nurse and Miss Doyle, the president of the Red Cross of Portland chapter, met at 2 o'clock today. Miss N. Tucker, an instructor in home nursing, is in charge of this work. There must be ten in class but the more that come the more interesting this study will be. Everyone is invited to be present at the next meeting, Tuesday, October 19, at 2 o'clock.

The usual services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, beginning with Sunday school at 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the pastor, Rev. A. S. Hisey, will preach. Mrs. Wm. Averill will sing a solo in connection with this service. Epworth League will meet at 6:30 and at 7:30 the pastor will preach. A cordial welcome is extended to all these services.

Mrs. J. H. Cone and son Raymond arrived this week from Lone Rock, Oregon, where they have been for several months. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Thompson, who have been occupying their house during their absence, expect to go in a few days to Centerville, Washington, for an extended stay. Mr. Cone will remain at Lone Rock for about a month looking after his lumber business at that place.

Lightning struck the residence of Albert Ekstrom in Thompson addition yesterday, but did no damage whatever. The bolt came down the chimney and a flash of fire was thrown out into the room.

A. S. Hisey, new pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, arrived with his family from St. Helens yesterday and moved directly into the parsonage.

The Gresham Patron-Teacher association will meet in the grade school assembly hall on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as much important business must be transacted. Miss Ethel I. Calkins, county leader of the children's industrial clubs, will be the speaker of the afternoon.

Frank Jones is able to get around with the help of crutches and was in his office on Main street yesterday greeting friends. Mr. Jones was injured by a falling pole while at work on the fair grounds about three weeks ago.

J. T. Delk has purchased three lots of the Independent Land Co., through E. H. Kelly, and is starting to clear the lots and begin a house. The lots are on Hood avenue just south of R. R. Carlson's.

License announced in the daily paper in Vancouver list are Harry S. McMurray 25 years of age and Leta F. Trimble 18 both of Gresham.

GRESHAM LEGION MEN TO EAT TUESDAY EVE.

The regular meeting of Gresham Post No. 30, the American Legion will be held in Carlson's (M. W. A.) hall, Tuesday night, October 19. All members are specially requested to be present.

After the business session refreshments will be served. It is also probable that a short program will be prepared.

The adjutant has on hand blanks for making application for victory medals, and also postals to be sent to the congressmen by the members of the Post, stating the attitude of this organization toward beneficial soldier legislation. These will be given to the members who attend.

Frank Davey of Salem was a business visitor in this vicinity today.
