S. B. Hall spent yesterday at Banks in Washington county judging the dairy cows and hog show. He reports a very good show but not in the same class as the Multnomah county fair.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Bliss on the 19th, a boy.

There will be no services at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday. All members and friends are invited to attend the missionary services at the Friedens church in Sellwood, 15th and Tacoma streets. The morning service will begin at 10:45 and the afternoon service at 2:15.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yerkes, of Portland, are happy over the arrival of a baby boy in their home. Mrs. Yerkes will be remembered as Oral Raney.

Theo. Doyle, who until very recently has been a member of Chevrolet salesman force, has resigned his position as salesman and is now accessory man at C. E. Osburn & Co., and will be on the road every day in the week with auto supplies. Will also give demonstration with Sampson trucks and tractors. Mr. Doyle is well known throughout this district and his pleasing manner commends him to all he meets.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jennings, Jr., had the bad luck to lose their little girl that was born on the 20th.

S. B. Hall in company with State Inspector W. S. Carpenter made a final inspection of the potato fields in this part of the county one day this week for the purpose of clearing the fields of late potatoes showed that blight had started as a result of the early warm rains but the colder rains of the past few days had checked it.

A service in the interest of religious education will be held at the Zion Evangelical church next Tuesday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock. Rev. F. H. Freund of Portland, the president of this district, and Rev. F. C. Rueggberg of Payette, Idaho, will be the speakers. A cordial welcome is extended to all members and friends.

W. C. T. U. will have a meeting at the library Tuesday evening, October 26 at 8 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss measures to come before the voters at the coming election. Judge G. W. Stapleton and Attorney C. G. Schneider and others will discuss these measures and everyone will be given an opportunity to express themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss have gone to California to spend the winter. The big red bus has discontinued its Portland-Gresham trips.

Mrs. Mary Faught was surprised on her 55th birthday by a number of her friends, who came in and spent the afternoon.

R. C. Frost and wife, of Montana, are visiting with Mrs. Frost's mother, Mrs. C. A. Carothers.

The Beaver State Motor factory has shut down for an indefinite time. It is expected, however, that work will be resumed within a few weeks. The closing was made necessary on account of the uncertain condition of the market and the inability of the management to secure certain materials.

A public reception given in honor of the new pastor of the M. E. church Rev. A. S. Hisey and family will be given Monday evening, October, 25th at the church. The teachers of the schools, members of the community and especially the young people of the high school are urgently invited to be there. Children under 10, unless attended, are not expected. A program of music and refreshments has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

Rev. E. A. Cook, of the Baptist church, left Monday for Los Angeles, where he goes for his bride. Rev. Bloomfield of Portland will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Harriet Timmerman motored to Portland Wednesday evening to visit her son, E. P. Canny, who is in the Good Samaritan hospital with a badly broken bone of the right arm.

One night this week Constable Squires picked up Cleo Earb, Glen Oldenhouse and Eva Cauley at the Condon hotel. The girls had escaped from Frazier Home in Portland. They were turned over to the authorities.

Rev. J. B. Yates, pastor of the Free Methodist church, has moved here with his wife. They are occupying the parsonage on Fourth street. Regular announcements of services are as follows: Sunday school at 10 and preaching at 11 every Sunday morning, prayer meeting on Wednesday evenings. A cordial invitation to all is extended.

Services will be held as usual at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, beginning with Sunday school at 10, preaching by the pastor, Rev. A. S. Hisey, at 11 and at 7:30 o'clock and Epworth League at 6:30. The latter meeting will be led by Miss Elsie Smith. Special music is being prepared for the services.

Mrs. Violet Thornton of Rainier came up to attend the funeral of John Cunningham. She returned today and was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. P. A. Gould.

H. L. St. Clair, who was reported in the last Outlook as seriously ill, is now much improved. He is being nursed at his home by Mrs. D. S. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fallens, who recently came here from Crystal, North Dakota, have rooms in the Howitt building while they are looking for a permanent location. They have been looking the country over and say they are much pleased with it.
