A THANKSGIVING IDEA.

Thanksgiving Day is a national event. It is one of the few festivals, or observances, which concern not only the individual but the nation as a whole.

The usual Thanksgiving proclamation appeals to the individual—all individuals—and especially to families, urging that it be made a homecoming event; also that religious services be held as an expression of the devoutness of the thanksgiving spirit.

This is well, but it applies more to conditions in New England and is an outgrowth of long established custom there. It is almost foreign in idea and impossible of accomplishment in the great west where families are more scattered.

And the religious idea fails to permeate the Thanksgiving observance in the "wild and woolly" west as much as it does in the "cultured" east. In fact, it is difficult to get out a "corporal's guard" to a Thanksgiving service in one of our churches in this locality. The service is often combined with the usual weekly prayer meeting. The occasion is usually considered an auspicious time for a community dance which is well attended.

The Outlook contends that this is not carrying out the Thanksgiving idea as it should be. There should be a civic recognition of the day and the idea. There should be a well attended public gathering called by the civic authorities, with a rousing program, with appropriate literary and musical features, with one or two short addresses, and a prayer all emphasizing the local, state and national reasons for thanksgiving, which will, of course, include the personal and family reasons. A social hour following should give a rare occasion for neighborly social intercourse on the part of all the people of the community.

The larger cities have their municipal auditoriums and provide to some extent for the social and educational advancement and enjoyment of their people. Why may not the civic authorities of our larger towns do a little planning and accomplish something along the same lines to the advantage of all? Think it over.

REPUBLICANS SOLEMN AFTER GREAT VICTORY.

With a majority of 152 in the House and 22 in the Senate, the republican party has returned to power with a solemn sense of responsibility after ten years of democratic control.

The fact that the house majority is larger than ever given any party in the history of the country and that the senate majority is sufficient to make sure of the passage of all party measures, does the cause elation among the leaders in either branch of congress so much as a determination to do away with the evils in administration which caused the landslide in their favor.

It is only within the facts to say that no party ever came to power with such a serious sense of responsibility as the republican party at this time. The republican party is the party of constructive effort. It lost congress in 1910, and lost the presidency in 1912 and in 1916. It returns to take up the burden where it laid it down, having in the meantime during the war outwitted the democrats in patriotic subversion of partisanship. It is united as it has never been before.

President-elect Harding's experiences in Texas suggest that as chief executive he may not always expect smooth seas and pleasant journeying.

Lloyd Riches has purchased the Malheur Enterprise from Bruce Dennis and enters the newspaper field again as publisher. It will be a live paper if Lloyd Riches has anything to do with it. Mr. Riches is well known in this part of the state through his long connection with the Oregon City Enterprise and as secretary of the Oregon State Editorial association.

A French scientist has discovered that it is not necessary to be vaccinated on the arm to make one immune to smallpox germs. The inoculation can be taken internally, perhaps by way of a sugar-coated pill. In view of this new discovery how fortunate Oregon did not pass the anti-vaccination measure.

Complete reorganization of the government executive departments is contemplated by the incoming republican administration as among its first moves for betterment.

Among the chief moves in bringing this about are the abolition of the Department of the Interior and the creation of a Department of Public Works and a Department of Public Welfare, with the head of each in the cabinet. For this great change Senator Medill McCormick, of Illinois, will introduce a bill at the beginning of the final session of the present congress next month. He has worked out a comprehensive plan.

The Red Cross has identified and photographed the graves of 59,000 American soldiers, and has sent 58,000 of these records to relatives and friends.

COMMUNITY STUDENT TO VISIT FESTIVAL

W. H. NATION

The needs of a community are reflected in the needs of the country. You cannot have a country of slipshod, poorly governed cities and towns, and at the same time have a progressive country any more than you can have a community that is better than the average of its citizens.

The Chautauqua is preeminently a community activity and no program is quite complete without a day devoted to self study under the direction of a constructive critic. It is one thing to listen to criticisms that offer no remedy—most any one can tear down—but it is quite a different matter to study with a keen observer who has traveled much, and carefully studied many communities.

Just as a doctor's knowledge is the result of study and observation, so are W. H. Nation's lectures the results of many conferences with community officers in every part of the United States.

Mr. Nation will lecture on the fourth night, constructively criticizing and counseling audiences upon community problems.

Ensilage should not be fed for at least two weeks after being put in the silo. By this time all the fermentation will have taken place and there will be a uniform feed throughout the silo. Two inches should be taken off the entire surface every day to keep the silage from spoiling.

Potatoes should be dried before storing on account of the wet, late fall. They should be stored in a cool, dry place where there is enough ventilation to carry away any moisture caused by sweating. The best temperature to keep potatoes is from 36 to 38 degrees F.

Feed regularly and liberally and keep the hens busy if you want a satisfactory result from your hens.

Spoiled silage should be thrown away where it will not be eaten, as it is harmful not only to dairy cows but to every other kind of stock.

Bargains in the want ads.

Ten Thousand Dollars an Acre. According to a news item in the Daily Oregonian this is the price quoted on a 49-acre tract of land surrounding the "figure eight" on the Columbia river highway and offered for sale to the county commissioners by the Latourell family, its present owners. No action on the matter, which was put up to the board by John B. Yeon, was taken, although Mr. Latourell is to leave for the south and wished to have an interview with the commissioners before departing. Mr. Yeon urged purchase of the property to save the beauty of the highway and prevent encroachments of commercialism.

Senator Louis Lachmund, local hop broker, recently gave C. A. McLaughlin of Independence a check said to be the largest ever paid in Marion county for a farm crop. He received $183,728.69 for hops bought for English dealers. They were grown on a 275-acre tract.
