These figures are not the latest but are probably relatively correct at this time near the close of 1920.

The registration given for Oregon January 1, 1920, is 83,332. This is short of last year's total and so far this year Oregon's registration has gone up to about 102,000. This is a higher per cent of increase than the expected the year 1921 will bring the Coolidge is admirably adapted. Oregon registration of autos and trucks up to at least 125,000.
