Obituary of David Brooks.
David Brooks was born October 2, 1843 at Ottawa, Canada and died in Gresham, Oregon, November 25, 1920 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. Beadle. He was united in marriage to Jane Conley November 3, 1869 and the following year moved to Iowa. In 1884 he came with his family to Oregon settling near Eugene and later lived at Ashland, Beaverton and Gresham.

Mr. Brooks joined the Methodist Episcopal church at an early age later uniting with the Christian church in which communion he remained a faithful member until the day of his death. His life was marked with many good qualities and especially unselfishness his first thought always being for others.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. A. J. Ware were held at the Baptist church November 28 at 9:30 a. m., after which the body was laid to rest in Cooper Mountain cemetery near Beaverton by the side of his wife who preceded him in death about seven years. One son James A. Brooks died at Ashland in 1906.

Immediate survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Richard Beadle of Gresham, and three sons, John M. Brooks, Chico, California; Wm. P. Brooks, Beaverton, Oregon; Joseph S. Brooks, Wasco, Oregon; also five sisters, Mrs. John Conley, Gresham, Oregon; Mrs. Rachel Tisdale, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Alice Whitehead, Mrs. Charlotte Sharman and Mrs. Martha Tisdale, all of Ontario, Canada.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our Gresham friends and to all others for their help and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved father and brother, David Brooks, and especially to those who furnished music, flowers and the use of their autos.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beadle, John M. Brooks, William P. Brooks, Joseph S. Brooks, Mrs. John Conley.

WE SAY—FORWARD MARCH! KEEP GOING—IF YOU WANT TO MAKE A SHOWING.

THE PERSON WHO WANTS TO KEEP ON progressing must make certain that his health is "right side up with care." One good way to make certain of this is to purchase meats whose quality-guaranteedness will make him feel certain that his digestion will assimilate the proper food values. One way to make certain of that is to buy your meats here.

Another Royal Suggestion Griddle Cakes and Waffles

From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

THERE is an art in making flapjack pancakes, griddle cakes or waffles, call them what you will. But it is an art very easily and quickly acquired if you follow the right recipes. The secret, of course, is Royal Baking Powder.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar, derived from grapes.

Griddle Cakes
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon shortening

Mix and sift dry ingredients; add beaten eggs, milk and melted shortening; mix well. Bake immediately on hot griddle.

Waffles
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
2 eggs
1 tablespoon melted shortening

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; add milk to yolks of eggs; mix thoroughly and add to dry ingredients; add melted shortening and mix in beaten whites of eggs. Bake in well-greased hot waffle iron until brown. Serve hot with maple syrup. It should take about 1 1/2 minutes to bake each waffle.
