"THE HONEY BEE"

From the novel by Samuel Merwin, starring

MARGUERITA SYLVA

Sparkling with fun and laughter, gripping with its vital human drama, entertaining with its novel comedy situations and a spectacular boxing match.

LUNCHEON HONORS PROSPECTIVE BRIDE

Mrs. William Stanley and her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Kaser, were joint hostesses on last Tuesday afternoon at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Miriam Brown, whose marriage to Albert Atkins of Heppner, Oregon will be an event of New Year's day.

Red and green formed the color scheme for the house and table decorations and reminded one of the Christmas season. The principal decorative feature was a Christmas tree, trimmed with red hearts and loaded with gifts from the guests, who were all old friends of Miss Brown's. Three little people, Florence Stanley, Beverly and Landon Kaser, bore the gifts from the tree to the honor guest. The gifts were all cut glass, aluminum or silver.

The luncheon table was no less attractive than the tree. The centerpiece was a Christmas tree, from the top of which red and green streamers radiated to the place cards on the table.

FAIRVIEW

The entertainment given in the city hall on Friday evening was attended by a large crowd and the program, given mostly by the school children, was good.

Mrs. J. W. Richards and children, ft.

of Salem, visited relatives and friends here over Christmas. Other relatives of the Richard family who spent Christmas with them were their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hanel of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanel of Hillsboro and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanel of Portland.

Mrs. C. E. Morrison and son, Billy, spent Christmas at Bend visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing of Amboy, Washington, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Jenkins Moore. Mrs. Moore entertained on Christmas day her daughters and their families and sons Elmer, Jenkins and children.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moller on Christmas day were the latter's mother, Mrs. M. Douthit of Portland, and brothers Henry Douthit and family, of Victory, and George Douthit, of Kerry, Oregon.

Miss Ethel Calkins, county club leader, was in Fairview on Wednesday and organized a girl's sewing club with 12 members. They chose Mrs. J. W. Moller as their leader and named their club Fairview Sunshine club. They will meet with their leader every two weeks on Wednesday afternoons. The girls expect to keep the sun shining and make it a success.

Boost for neighborhood improvements, don't let others do everything while you sit by and reap the benefit.

TROUTDALE

The Wm. Spence family had as Christmas guests Robt. Spence and family and a nephew, Arthur Matches, of Dayton, Oregon.

365 Happy Days in the Year

You owe it to yourself—to your wife and to your children—to get away from the work and worries of each day into the glorious Oregon country which lies all around you.

You might as well be a hermit in the midst of abundance as live in Oregon without quick transportation to the beauty spots so close to your home.

Make a New Year's resolution now. Get a Ford Sedan. Bring happiness for yourself and every member of your family into every day of the New Year. No other investment can bring so much pleasure and satisfaction or save so much time at so small a cost as a Ford Sedan.

Henry Ford fixes the price himself. It is the same everywhere except for freight. And that price is now lower than before the war. It has been cut below actual cost of production. This present low price may be increased soon. So decide today. Resolve to have a new Ford Sedan delivered at once and have 365 happy days the coming year.
