Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mack and Mr. Frank Jones entertained a few friends at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. The principal subject of discussion was a big fat wild goose received as a present from eastern Oregon friends. The guests were very loud in their praise of Mrs. Mack's efficiency in the culinary art.

H. G. Lake has been spending a short holiday vacation at his home here. He is principal of the Sweet Home high school at Albany. Mr. Lake says there is much excitement at Sweet Home over the discovery of oil prospects and arrangements are being made to begin drilling at once. Options have been taken on property and an outfit is being assembled. The work is in the hands of experienced oil men.

Miss Helen King, of Tacoma, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ruegg this week.

Charles E. Mewhirter is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mewhirter. Mr. Mewhirter has just received his discharge from the U. S. Marines after serving four years and four months. A great deal of this time was spent in foreign service.

Clyde Ruegg, a student at the University of Washington, is home for the holidays.

Newell Fancher and Lyle Winters enjoyed a trip up Larch mountain early this week.

H. E. Davis of Baker, Oregon, was visiting friends here this week.

Preparations are complete for the Christmas cantata to be given at Zion Evangelical church on Friday evening, December 31, by the choir. The program will begin at 8 o'clock. On New Year's day a service will be held in the English language at the church at 10:30. Sunday services will be preaching in German at 10:30. Sunday school at the usual hour and League meeting in the evening at 7:30.

Roy McClung, of Boring, spent Sunday with C. A. Hill and family. Florence Hill visited friends in Boring on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The regular installation of officers of Gresham grange will be held at the regular February meeting, when J. J. Johnson and his team will put on the work. The installation will not be at the January meeting, as is the usual custom, on account of the inability of some of the officers-elect to be present at that time.

Miss Viola Dinger is home from Oregon Agricultural College for the holidays. Miss Dinger is a student in her senior year and is also a member of the faculty. She teaches classes in algebra and is on the schedule committee.

Mrs. A. M. Allshouse returned home early this week after a trip in the east covering four months. She visited relatives and friends in New York, Philadelphia, Michigan and Wisconsin. Mr. Allshouse went to Seattle to meet his wife.

In accordance with the usual custom, business houses of Gresham will be closed on New Year's day. Holiday hours will be observed at the postoffice.

Dr. C. J. McCusker, professor of obstetrics in the University of Oregon, will lecture at the Gresham library next Tuesday afternoon, January 4, under the auspices of the Multnomah County Public Health association. His subject will be "Pre-natal Care." Members of the home nursing class, women of the neighborhood and any interested are invited to attend. The lecture hour is 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gardner received a Christmas remembrance from their son, F. H. Gardner, from Modesto, California, in the shape of a box of delicious oranges freshly picked from the tree. The members of the Outlook force can testify to the fine quality of the fruit.

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty.
Stillman Andrews, Melvin Andrews, and Lester Talmadge, accused of operating a still were found not guilty by the federal jury after the expiration of a two-day trial which closed Wednesday.

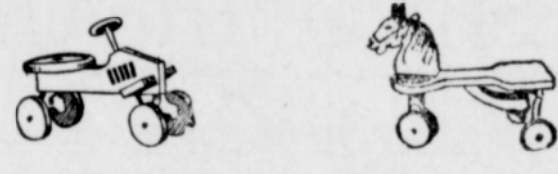

The three men were arrested near Pleasant Home in a raid made by M. M. Squire and Edward Wolfe of the revenue department. All three men denied knowledge of the still which was cleverly concealed in the underbrush. They made counter attacks by accusing the officers of drunkenness but these charges were refuted.

Mr. and Mrs. Hessel Poisoned by Candy.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Hessel are ill at their home today as the result of ptomaine poisoning which attacked them both last night. Both were reported to be seriously ill for a time but greatly improved today. The attack is supposed to be due to the eating of candy in which they indulged last night.

"Butter and eggs firm in Seattle," says a news item. We've heard of many queer firms but that's a new one.
