Official paper of the Town of Gresham. Official paper of the Town of Fairview.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A bill to increase the salary of the county school superintendent for Multnomah county is before the solons at Salem. We have not been able to learn if this has the recommendation of the Multnomah delegation but we believe it will not meet the approval of the county districts of Multnomah county. Doubtless the office could easily be made worth more than at present to the taxpayers but that will likely be at some future date. When a county school superintendent is elected by the county districts which he serves, or is chosen by a board elected by those districts, it is believed the schools will get a more efficient and valuable service. The present office is too much of a political job to be really efficient.

Lotisso, the wife murderer, will soon have another trial. If another jury fails to agree the jury system will come in for some hard raps. It ought to be provided that in case of failure of a jury to agree the judge, who has heard the case and knows both the law and the evidence, must decide the case. When a jury has six or seven choices before it, from conviction of first degree to acquittal, and fails to agree, all the ends of justice would be accomplished if the court could render a decision and save the taxpayers from further expense.

The Eastern Clackamas News of Estacada reports that an effort will be made to revive the East Clackamas fair which has been suspended during the past ten years. Those interested are to be commended for their local enterprise. We believe these smaller fairs are a great help in a locality.

The editor acknowledges with thanks the fine compliments on his recent poem "Memory's Ship." They have come not only from local readers but from a distance. The poem has been copied in several papers, among them the Willowa Sun which featured it on the front page. Today we are privileged to give our readers an exceptionally fine poem in theme and style by a local author.

PLEASANT HOME
 The first of a group of story sermons will be given at the Methodist church Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton. The Sunday school will meet at the usual hour, 10 a. m. The attendance has been very good for the past few Sundays and it is hoped that it will continue to increase. The Workers conference will be held following this service.

Irwin Ickler is ill with measles and a number of others in the community are ill with the same complaint.

Miss Inez Bell returned home Sunday to stay with her grandmother, Mrs. M. Shumway. For the past few months Miss Bell has been assisting her mother in a camp near Linnton, Oregon.

Miss Irene Cotton visited with her brother, Rev. E. B. Cotton and his guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cotton of Minneapolis, Minnesota, last Friday. Rev. Mr. Cotton spent a few days this week in Salem visiting with his parents and these guests, who are spending some time there.

AMES
 A dance was given in the hall here last Saturday night. A large crowd was present. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served during the evening. On February 12, there will be a Valentine party, oyster supper included.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Irwin last Sunday.

School has been closed here two weeks on account of the illness of R. Kayser, the teacher. He is being cared for in Portland. He has pneumonia. The school board met early this week to decide on getting another teacher if Mr. Kayser is not able to resume his duties soon.

GRESHAM PLEASSED BY QUICK RESULTS

Everyone is pleased with the quick results of simple witchhazel, camphor, hydrastis, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash. One man's eyes were so badly strained he could not read without pain. Two applications relieved him. A lady with weak, inflamed eyes was greatly helped by ONE bottle. We guarantee a small bottle of Lavoptik to help ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. THE LOOM OF LIFE.

'Tis a wondrous machine our perception surveys,
 As we trace out the windings and devious ways
 That thread in and out through the intricate maze
 Of the woof of the loom of life.

The machine may start off without clashing of gears,
 Giving promise of running serenely for years,
 But a bearing may break, and thus trouble appears
 In the woof of the loom of life.

We may plan our design for a fabric free
 From rav'lings and rents, where all things agree
 To blend in a blissful harmony
 In the woof of the loom of life.

But the shuttle may falter and fail to go
 In its rythmical sojournings, to and fro,
 Then a sorry defect will forever show
 In the woof of the loom of life.

'Tho we watch every thread with diligent care,
 Yet one may break here and another there,
 And the scheme be disfigured beyond repair,
 In the woof of the loom of life.

The dyes that were thought to be fast and true
 May fade out, with time, to an ugly hue,
 And the fabric we've made be displeasing to view
 In the woof of the loom of life.

Some schemer may come, as they often do,
 With blandishments many, our precincts to woo,
 And on leaving leave stains of a ruddy hue
 On the woof of the loom of life.

A silken chain through this fabric fine,
 With spangles of gold, was the first design,
 But when finished too often reveals cotton twine
 In the woof of the loom of life.

Yet, if we a careful watch maintain,
 Giving heed to each fiber throughout the chain,
 Curbing each movement and jolt, that fain
 Would aggravate trouble and strife,
 We may safely expect the product to be

A stainless garment, from defects free,
 A blending, unclouded harmony,
 This woof of the loom of life.
 A. W. BOTKIN,
 Gresham, Oregon.

Club Products Valuable.
 The value of the output of Oregon club members in 1920 was $111,586.60, the final report of H. C. Seymour, club leader, shows. The net profits on the products of club work were almost exactly one half the total value, or $55,942.90. Highest profits were produced by the calf clubs, which netted by the youngsters concerned $15,983.21. Pig club work was second in point of net profits. Garden, poultry, potato, corn, cooking, sewing, rabbit, sheep, home-making and canning come next, the milk goat being "the goat" with a profit of $196.66.

Count them, read them, use them.—WanTads.

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS
 Extensive alterations have been made at our First and Alder Streets Passenger Station and much better accommodations have been provided for our patrons.

This building is now being used exclusively by us and, in addition to the ticket office, lost articles' bureau and express office, we have installed an "ELECTRIC STORE," where Mazda lamps and electrical appliances may be purchased, applications made for electric light and power, and where light and power bills may be paid.

This will make it possible for our patrons to transact such matters of business with our company without going up town to our main offices in the Electric building, and you will receive the same courteous and attentive service.

PERISCOPE AUTO WARNING SIGN A SUCCESS

The periscope, danger curve, automobile warning sign has made its appearance. It has been installed by the Montgomery County Automobile Club of Dayton, O. Its most effective service is at night. The principle is mirrors so arranged that an automobile coming down the road will cast its lights into the mirrors, reflecting the light through an intense red lens and warning cars coming from the other direction that a car is coming. The photo shows the periscope warning sign in use in Montgomery county Ohio.
