PLEASANT HOME

Irvin Ickler is reported somewhat improved following a severe attack of measles.

Only a small number braved the unusually stormy weather Friday evening and attended the stereopticon lecture at the Methodist church. Two songs, "Speed Away" and "Whip-poor-will" were sung by W. R. Crosier and H. L. Ball and Miss Edith Felt gave two delightful violin solos.

Mrs. Martin Legnartz, Mrs. Idelle Whilon and Mrs. H. L. Ball went to Portland Monday on business for the Ladies' Aid society. While there they purchased an individual communion set for use at the Methodist church.

Mrs. M. Lennartz left Monday for Ashland where she will spend a few weeks visiting. She expects to spend most of the time with the I. N. L. Shriner family, and in sight-seeing trips in southern Oregon.

The Cameron and Hogg Tie Jugglers played with the Orient team Monday evening. The score was 14 to 7 in favor of the Tie Jugglers. Both teams have been recently organized and have had but very little practice. The Jugglers are from Bull Run and this is their first game of the season and none of the players have been practicing for some time. The Orient team was only recently organized and have only played one other game. Recently they played against the Gresham Amateur Athletic association and won an easy victory. At Monday's game only two of the regular players were present, the others were detained on business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Andrews have purchased the 4 1/2 acres which was formerly owned by Herbert Simmons. Mr. Andrews purchased the place from A. E. Hooker, an attorney, in Portland. He will build a new bungalow of modern type on their new site and expects to make their home here permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinski, of Portland, have rented the Rauw place recently vacated by Wm. J. Phair and have moved onto the place. Mrs. Klinski will be remembered as Dolly Morgan.

Members of Multnomah grange are practicing for a "circus" which will be given at the grange hall Saturday evening, February 19. This entertainment promises something unusually clever in an entertainment line. Fuller announcements will be made later.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Thursday, February 10. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

A bountiful dinner was served at noon, after which the lecturer, Lydia Ostrand, had charge of the meeting. Several took part and the program was enjoyed greatly by all. The grange will give a benefit social dance on the evening of February 12.

Fred C. Reed was in Portland Friday and Saturday on business.

Rev. Mr. Murphy preached a forceful and very interesting sermon Sunday morning. The Sunday school is proving a place of interest, there being 52 in attendance Sunday, Feb. 6.

Mrs. Geo. Chamberlain is entertaining her niece from Portland.

This section was visited with a fine snow storm Friday night. Saturday morning the ground was covered with about three inches of snow, which had nearly all melted away by evening. However, this did not seem to retard the growth of "stagger weed" as it is now about three inches tall.
