Mr. and Mrs. John Wrath and Mr. and Mrs. James Wrath of Chicago and C. E. Kilgore and daughter Alice, of Estacada, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kilgore, Thursday. The Wraths are old time friends of the Kilgores and stopped for a short visit with them while on a trip through the western states. They have just been through southern California and leave today (Friday) for Chicago via way of Seattle and the northern route.

The seventh and eighth grades had their library lesson at the library Wednesday morning. There were about 50 or 60 pupils present and a most profitable morning was spent under the direction of the librarian Miss H. Ruth Montague. Principal C. M. Quicksall and Mrs. Gertrude Bangs, teachers of the seventh and eighth grades were also present.

The Junior class party will be held at union high school this evening and elaborate preparations are being made for the affair.

Theo. Mercer of the Cedar district is improving his property near the Standard oil tanks with a modern 5-room bungalow. He is doing the work himself and has the basement excavated and gravel on the ground ready for the basement. He plans to remain in Cedar district this year and is operating the J. H. Wilson farm.

Mrs. J. N. Faris of Portland spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Rusher.

Dr. Grinnell, a medical missionary from China, who spoke at the Free Methodist church last Wednesday evening was a guest at the home of Mrs. H. C. Larsen Thursday. Dr. Grinnell's wife and Mrs. Larsen's daughter were intimate friends from the time they were about three years of age until the death of the latter several years ago.

Leonard Blair, of Oregon City, 14 years old, came to Gresham a few days ago looking for his father, Henry Blair. It developed that the boy had been in some trouble at school and Wednesday school officials came to Gresham and took the boy home.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Cone, Wednesday, February 23. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Benj. Cameron, Mrs. P. Michel, Mrs. C. W. Gleason. All are cordially invited to attend.

J. H. Hoss had the misfortune to be severely hurt today. He was driving with a load of wood down the hill past the Elkhorn ranch when a small truck frightened his team and the horses tried to turn around with the load, throwing him with great force against a fence and cutting a deep gash on his head, also injuring his back. Mr. Gordy, who was with Mr. Hoss, escaped with a barbed wire cut on his face.

J. B. Gordon of Mabton, Washington, is visiting with his uncle, D. S. Johnson.

An important meeting of L. O. L. members will be held at Wall's hall, Sellwood, on Monday evening, February 21. Mr. Stone will speak. All members are invited to attend.

W. L. Crowe, son-in-law of Mrs. A. Hughes, returned on Wednesday evening from a trip to the Orient where he went four months ago to look after business matters. His duties took him to Japan and China. Mrs. Crowe went to Victoria, B. C., to meet her husband and returned with him.

Mrs. D. S. Johnson has been confined to her bed for the past month or more and is now slowly improving.

Cecil Metzger has an attractive display of potted plants in his store window. He brought out a few the first of the week and they sold so rapidly he is thinking of starting a florist's shop in connection with his grocery business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dewey of Glendale, Douglas county, Oregon spent today Friday with Mrs. Maggie Elm. They are on their wedding trip. E. D. Dewey and wife of Portland were also guests of Mrs. Elm, who is a sister of the men.

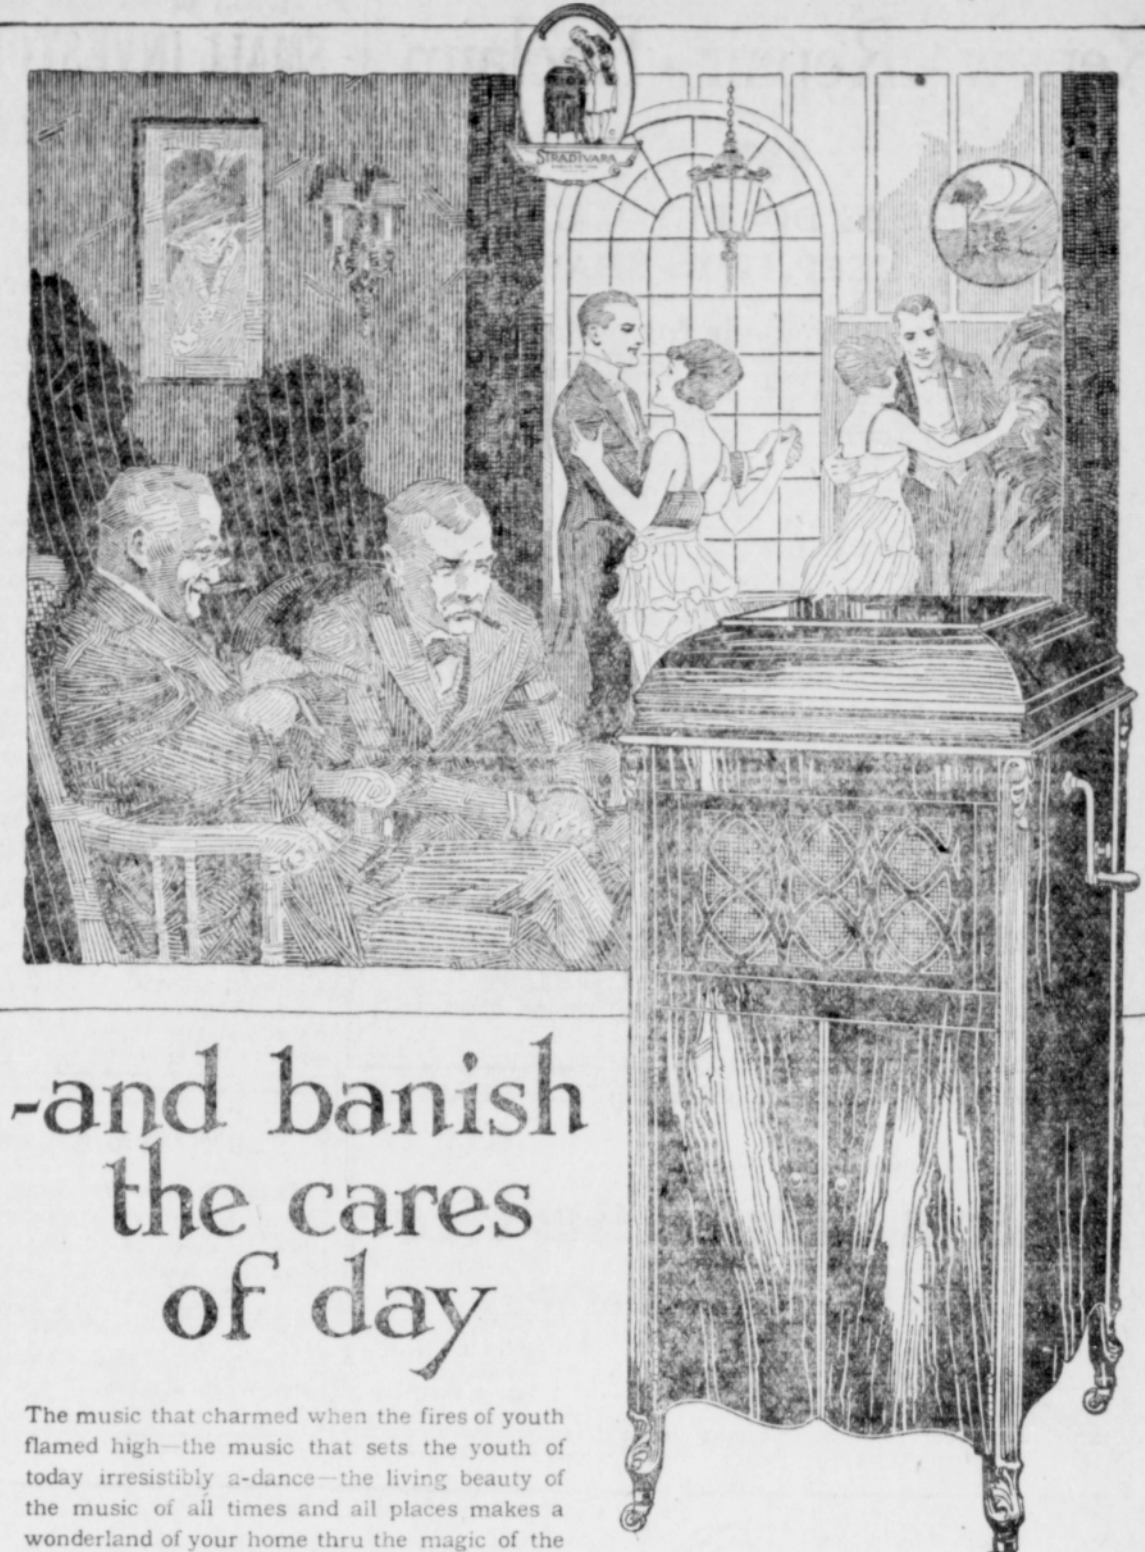

MRS. RADFORD ENJOYS SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Lizzie Radford was agreeably surprised today (Friday) when a number of friends and relatives gathered in honor of her birthday. The affair had been kept a secret and Mrs. Radford had not had a suspicion of the surprise in store for her until the guests arrived shortly before noon bringing a bountiful dinner with them.

Those present at the dinner included Mrs. E. Dukes, Sandy Bluff, and Mrs. Edw. Sell of Powell Valley, daughter of Mrs. Radford, Mrs. Alice Gage of Gresham, whose birthday also fell on this day, Mrs. Hans Kock, Mrs. S. F. Pitts, Mrs. T. Pitts, Mrs. V. Hengstler, Mrs. J. S. Donaldson, Mrs. J. Caldo, Mrs. D. Radford, Laurence and Tommy Kesterson and Harriet Radford.

The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social time. The ladies are all former neighbors and friends and this proved a delightful renewal of old friendships.
