

THOMAS MEIGHAN
STAR IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES

"THE MIRACLE MAN" A HIT
Striking Picture Produced by George Loane Tucker.

The absorbing story of "The Miracle Man," which was staged by Geo. M. Cohan to the delight of thousands of New York theater-goers, has been adapted to the screen by Geo. Loane Tucker, and will come to the Gresham Theater Saturday and Sunday. It is a Paramount-Artcraft picture of the finest class.

The central figure in the story is a patriarch in a little village who possesses the power to heal the sick and maimed. Tom Burke, a New York gangster, and his pals scheme to use him as means of enriching themselves. With this view, they visit him and are astounded to discover that his power to heal is absolutely bona fide. How the good that lies latent in the crooks is brought out, is the theme of the drama which is one of the most striking yet produced. Prominent in the strong cast are Thomas Meighan, Elinor Fair, Joseph J. Dowling and Betty Compson.

Matinees both days at 2:30.

for sale. It joins the Blue Ribbon celery gardens and is adapted to the growing of small fruits and gardens.

The next evening with pictures in the series given by Rev. Earl B. Cotton will be held next Wednesday evening, March 2. These pictures are very interesting and a full attendance is desired.

PLEASANT HOME

Mrs. M. Lennartz returned Tuesday evening from a few weeks' visit at Ashland, Oregon. She reports a most delightful trip.

A. B. Wood underwent a second operation at the Good Samaritan hospital Monday. He was doing fairly well Tuesday and friends hope that he may soon be restored to health and strength.

Mrs. J. F. Collins and son Freelin went to Portland Wednesday with the former's grandmother, Mrs. Angelina Collins, who has been visiting at the Collins home for the past three weeks.

Miss E. Eggiman, a trained nurse of Ann Arbor, Michigan, is visiting with her brother, John Eggiman and family.

The subject of the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday, February 27, will be "The Royalty of Youth." The services which will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, will commence at 11 a. m. Sunday school will commence at 10 a. m. This is the Sunday for the missionary program which will be in charge of Mrs. H. L. Ball. At the close of the preaching service the baptismal service will be held. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. M. Lennartz Wednesday afternoon March 2. There is a quantity of work on hand and a good attendance is desired.

AMES

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Hobbs, February 20, a son.

Lloyd Low was quite badly hurt last Tuesday when he was thrown from the train of logs which was being brought in from the woods. He was taken to a Portland hospital. Two ribs were broken and many cuts and bruises were inflicted.

Several ladies here enjoyed the afternoon Wednesday with Mrs. Sig. White and helped her tie two quilts.

School is in session again after being closed for three weeks on account of the illness of R. Kayser, the teacher.

T. Kern was in Portland several days this week receiving treatment for an injured eye into which a piece of steel had lodged while Mr. Kern was doing blacksmith work.

Cedar School Notes.

By PEARL HAYDEN, Teacher.

The children of Cedar school gave a program Tuesday in honor of Washington's birthday. After an enjoyable time the school was then dismissed for the balance of the day and enjoyed the holiday.

Arbor day was celebrated by giving the school grounds a thorough cleaning. All the children participated in the work. Robert Soderquist has been appointed marshal and woe to the child who scatters paper and trash for Robert is proving a good officer.

In the last issue of the Gresham Outlook it was reported by Lusted school that Cedar was to meet them in a spelling contest. Three weeks ago that contest was called off on account of the measles and since then no date has been made. Cedar school wishes that in the future it should be informed as to such a date before and not after it has gone to press, as we do not appreciate the reflections it casts upon our school.

The Parent-Teacher association met at the schoolhouse Friday evening and enjoyed an interesting meeting. A program was given and after the business was attended to refreshments were served. The school room blackboards were appropriately decorated with a border of cherries and hatchets and called forth much appreciation.

Dentistry made painless by nerve blocking methods. Try it. Dr. C. P. Johnson, 611 Morgan Bldg., Portland, Oregon. Main 6749.—Adv.

BORING

Miss Evelyn Seifer, who has been seriously ill, with pneumonia is reported as being somewhat improved.

A large car which broke down on the hill near Tacheron's hill, blocked the highway for several days this week and all Portland bound autos had to go through Pleasant Home.

Measles are still prevalent. Those who had them first have recovered but the second installment of patients are down now. Everyone is doing well, however, and school commenced Monday after a two weeks' vacation.

POWELL VALLEY

Three cases of measles have developed in the district lately. The victims are Miss Stella Keller, Helen Larson and Emery Keller. All are doing well and are under quarantine. The school had a half holiday Tuesday in honor of Washington's birthday.

Services at Sandy and Kelso.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton will preach at Kelso Sunday afternoon, February 27 at 3 o'clock. The subject will be "The Royalty of Youth."

In the evening at 7:45, Rev. Mr. Cotton will preach at Sandy Methodist church. The subject of the evening sermon will be "Union with the Divine."

Dressmaking.

Have rented Mrs. P. A. Gould's residence and am prepared to do all kinds of dressmaking. Miss Leitritz, phone 79x5.

PLEASANT VALLEY

By G. N. SAGER.

Grandma Kretschmer is spending a few weeks with relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miller, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Jenne, Sunday.

G. N. Sager spent several days at the state capitol last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lehman have returned from a six weeks' trip to California. They went as far as the Imperial Valley and Calexico. Mr. and Mrs. Lehman report a splendid time.

Mrs. O. A. Hess and Mrs. John Howe, of Lents, were Valley visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Sager were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Ida Hamilton received a telegram from Santa Rosa, California, Tuesday announcing the sad news of the death of her brother-in-law, Jas. Robinson. Mr. Robinson formerly resided at this place.

David Frost, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is reported to be on the road to recovery.

P. F. Uhlig, who underwent a serious operation in a Portland hospital some weeks ago, has so far recovered as to be able to leave the hospital and is staying with friends in the city. Mr. Uhlig expects to return to his home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Richey have rented the P. P. Jenne home and are moving in.

County Agent S. B. Hall has announced a meeting to be held at the Pleasant Valley grange Wednesday evening, March 2, at which the proposition of organizing a Farm Bureau at this place will be taken up and discussed. This meeting is of vital importance to all farmers and producers and a large attendance is looked for.

The Pleasant Valley community club meets Friday evening. The historical review will cover the Jefferson administration. H. E. Poppleton will be the speaker.

Pleasant Valley grange will hold its regular meeting Saturday evening, February 26. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock.

Jas. McLean had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse Tuesday.

The Washington and Lincoln program rendered by the school at the schoolhouse Monday afternoon was splendid and was thoroughly enjoyed by the patrons and friends who were present.

There will be Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11 o'clock at the grange hall, Sunday.

TROUTDALE

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid will meet next Wednesday afternoon, March 2d, with Mrs. B. Moorehead, who lives on what is known as the Randall place.

Principal Bradley gave a candy pull for the pupils of his room last Saturday evening, in the basement of the church. The children enjoyed the evening very much, pulling taffy and playing games. Mrs. Mary Parsons, Mrs. Anna Richardson, Mrs. Bradley and Miss Belle Parsons assisted with the taffy making and entertaining.

The county council of the Parent-Teacher association which met here last Saturday was much enjoyed by Troutdale folk who attended. Great credit for the home part of the sumptuous lunch at noon is due to the committee in charge. Mrs. J. R. Knarr and Mrs. Lee Evans, who were assisted in serving by a larger committee of mothers and daughters.

The Sandy River acreage lying just west of the city limits, fronting on the Sandy river has been cut into five and seven acre tracts and offered
