GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and little son have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Brown's father, F. W. Hoecker, on the Base Line road.

Henry Sell is having the interior of his building on Main street lathed and plastered. The work is being done in the part occupied by Schanno's confectionery. The work has just about demoralized the appearance of Mrs. Schanno's store but she is patiently enduring the mess and fuss in anticipation of the improved condition when the work is completed.

The services at the Zion Evangelical church Sunday will be in the German language. Preaching service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, and will commence at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 11:45 a. m. An offering will be taken for the church extension fund. The Young People's society will meet at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins are rejoicing over the birth of a baby son last week. Mother and son are doing well. Mrs. A. J. McClung of Boring is caring for them.

Fred Todd, and his mother, Mrs. R. H. Todd, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker made the Columbia River trip Wednesday afternoon. They declare it was most wonderful under the clear sky that prevailed that day. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for San Diego, California where they will make their home. They have lived in Gresham about a year.

A letter to the Outlook from Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gardner, who recently went to Parma, Idaho, brings the information that they are well pleased with the country but like Gresham better. Cold nights but warm sunshiney days are the rule and there have been several snow storms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whetstone are moving into their new bungalow on Hood avenue which is nearly completed.

The high school pupils were given a surprise visit one day this week from Town Fire Marshal Carl Dahl, who gave the fire alarm and had the satisfaction of seeing the building completely emptied of pupils and teachers in 35 seconds.

Mrs. Lulu Arthur is employed at Withrow's confectionery.

Mrs. Stanley Sutliff is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. George Wheeler of Yakima, Washington.

Mrs. P. Michel has been ill for the past week but is now improving.

Bobby, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metzger, has been moved to the porch on the recent beautiful, sunny afternoons. He has been confined to his bed with heart trouble for several months.

J. N. Clanahan was removed to his home from Good Samaritan hospital this week. He is still very weak but is slowly improving. Mrs. Clanahan and their son, Dr. J. E. Clanahan, have been with him constantly during his illness in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McManus have secured the lower floor of the Bishop residence on Second street and will move there in a few days. They have been living in the house in Regner addition recently purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley, who will move into their new home at once.

Mrs. B. W. Emery visited in Portland this week with her daughter, Miss Ruby Emery, who is engaged in nursing.

Miss Irene Lynch, who has for the past two months been employed in a Portland wholesale millinery store helping in getting the spring hats ready for trade, has returned to Gresham, and will open the Gresham Hat shop Monday with a new line of spring hats.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley were in Gresham today (Friday). They have moved out part of their furniture and expect to move here Monday when they will occupy the home which they purchased from Mrs. Mary Russel recently.

The Wednesday Study club will hold an open session next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The Hon. Milton A. Miller will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Miller's subject will be the Adoption of the Constitution of the United States. The public is invited to attend.

The senior class play "Merely Mary Ann" will be given on Friday, March 18. The practice work has been going on for more than a week. May Louise Wilson, a dramatic instructor from Portland, is coaching the play. This is one of the best plays that the school has attempted to give and one which Mrs. Wilson has put on several times.

Active work has been commenced on the remodeling of the Free Methodist parsonage. The plan is to make a modern 7-room bungalow by raising the roof and adding some additional rooms.

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood of Cedar district called on Mrs. J. H. Wilson, Thursday.

Mrs. P. A. Gould has returned home after several weeks spent with her daughters in The Dalles and LaGrande.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Faris, of Portland, were in Gresham yesterday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher.

MAYFLOWER PHOTOPLAY CORPORATION Presents

GEORGE LOANE TUCKER'S PRODUCTION

"THE MIRACLE MAN"

from the play by GEORGE M. COHAN. Based on the story by FRANK L. PACKARD

Twisted Backs and Diseased Nerves Gave Way Before the Patriarch's Faith and Trust in Infinite Goodness. But Twisted Ideals and Diseased Imaginations Still Offered a Sullen and Rebellious Opposition.

WE SAY—FORWARD MARCH! KEEP GOING IF YOU WANT TO MAKE A SHOWING!

THE PERSON WHO WANTS TO KEEP ON

progressing must make certain that his health is "right side up with care." One good way to make certain of this is to purchase meats whose quality-guaranteedness will make him feel certain that his digestion will assimilate the proper food values. One way to make certain of that is to buy your meats here.
