RELIABILITY SERVICE

TRACTORS, TRACTOR IMPLEMENTS, WITH ALL POWER DRIVEN MACHINERY

THE UNIVERSAL CAR
The Ford Touring Car

SURELY the most universal of all cars. Serving, satisfying, and money-making, day after day, year after year, everywhere throughout the world of civilization. It stands in a class by itself—the one universal car. A source of pleasure and a bearer of burdens, on the farm and in the city. Anywhere and everywhere the Ford Touring Car stands supreme in its service-giving, satisfying, money-making qualities.

That reliable, satisfactory, economical, dependable "Ford After-Service" which is making the Ford dealer and the Ford car twin factors for prosperity, is, as you know, universal in its possibilities because wherever you go the Ford dealer is prepared to take care of your wants and nowhere are they better prepared than right in our shops. We have everything in the way of labor-saving, time-saving machinery, Ford-taught and skilled workmen, and the genuine Ford-made parts. We want you to remember this because it means that your car need never be idle.

We can now give you reasonably prompt deliveries and it is only fair to us that you should leave your orders with as little delay as possible, if you want us to be prompt in making delivery you will be prompt in placing your order.

PLEASANT HOME

The Pioneers were organized at Pleasant Home last Saturday with Wesley Hause, president, and Freelia Collins, secretary. The organization is similar in its nature and aims to that of the Boy Scouts. These boys are very enthusiastic over the work and already a number of others have expressed a desire to join the group. The officers have already outlined a program of work and fun and one which they are capable of carrying. The work of the Pioneers is under the supervision of Rev. Earl B. Cotton. All boys between the ages of 12 and 15 are eligible to membership.

The stereopticon lecture is scheduled for Thursday evening, March 10, at the Methodist church. The subject of the lecture is "Hindustan's Answer to Hindenburg." Fourteen pupils of the Sunday school have won free tickets to the lecture by having been present at the last four sessions of the Sunday school. This is the largest number of free tickets that has been issued for any lecture and indicates a growth in the regular attendance.

The Bible class officers and teachers are not in the contest for free tickets and the number given does not include any from those divisions.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz entertained at dinner Friday evening, March 4 in honor of the birthdays of their daughter, Miss Anna, and Mrs. F. B. Lake. Other guests present were Mr. Lake, Miss Lulu Eddy of Sandy and Rev. Earl B. Cotton.

A. G. Rich has torn down the old livery barn and has started a new modern residence on the same location.

The Ohmet families are planning to move into the house formerly owned by Wm. Calvin. The house is being repapered and made attractive. Wm. Calvin is visiting with his son in Idaho.

Miss Anna Lennartz and Miss Mabel Sloop of the Methodist Sunday school and Miss Wilma Chase and Miss Myrtle Nashahh from the Baptist Sunday school were elected delegates to the older girl's conference at McMinnville, March 18, 19, 20. Miss Ellen Stone will probably act as chaperon. The girls are anticipating a very enjoyable and profitable time.

Mrs. J. F. Collins and daughter, Helen, were guests of Mrs. C. M. Quicksall of Gresham, Monday.

Mrs. M. Lennartz entertained the officers of the Girl Reserves at her home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell had as guests Sunday the latter's mother, Mrs. Jos. Manary, her brothers, Ross of Cottrell, and James of Portland, and her nephews, Gordon Manary of Portland and Lloyd E. Dunn, a student of Pullman college.

Mrs. Altha Hutchinson was married last Tuesday at Vancouver, to J. R. Graves of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Graves will make their home in Portland where Mr. Graves is a motorman employed by the P. R. L. & P. Co.

Miss Inez Bell is spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Clarence Lake in Portland.

COTTRELL

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Splawn spent Monday with Mr. Splawn's brother and family in the Cedar district.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Baker have rented S. F. Pitt's farm for a year.

Mrs. May Landon of Lents is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. R. Goger.

There are services every Sunday at the Cottrell community church, Sunday school at 10 and preaching at 11 o'clock. Preparation are under way for special services on Easter. There will be an all-day meeting. Every one is requested to come and bring lunch.

Leonard Pitts, who is stationed at Camp Travis in Texas, had the misfortune to get kicked by a horse and had two ribs broken. He was in the hospital for several days.

Frank Blackburn of LaCamas, Washington, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blackburn.

Mr. Otto Hand and two children of Hood River are visiting with Mrs. Hand's sister, Mrs. A. Bram.

Miss Mable Wagner of Portland spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner.

L. E. Craswell and Wallace Manary were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Joseph Manary and son Ross were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Markell of Pleasant Home. James Manary and son Gordon of Portland and Loyd Dunn of Centralia were also visitors at the Markell and Manary homes.

The Misses Gladys and Dorothy Williams and Lois Manning of Portland spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Phair. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamilton and family also of Portland spent Sunday with the Phairs.

CEDAR AND VICTORY

Mrs. G. W. Alder returned Monday evening from Sheridan where she has been visiting relatives. Her brother, Wm. Metzger, who has been visiting there returned with her and is staying at the Alder home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wahl and son from Portland visited at the Al Stafford home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wood enjoyed a trip to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad and daughter Ada spent last Friday at their former home. While here they enjoyed a number of visits by phone with old neighbors. The Conrads have purchased a piece of property between Aurora and Woodburn and expect to build there this summer. They will be located on the Pacific highway.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eberle and Mrs. A. H. Burns were Portland visitors last Friday.

NOTICE TO OUR PATRONS

Extensive alterations have been made at our First and Alder Streets Passenger Station and much better accommodations have been provided for our patrons.

This building is now being used exclusively by us and, in addition to the ticket office, lost articles' bureau and express office, we have installed an "ELECTRIC STORE," where Mazda lamps and electrical appliances may be purchased, applications made for electric light and power, and where light and power bills may be paid.

This will make it possible for our patrons to transact such matters of business with our company without going up town to our main offices in the Electric building, and you will receive the same courteous and attentive service.
