"HUMORESQUE" FILM OF INTENSE APPEAL

Fannie Huret's most appealing story, "Humoresque," has been transferred to the screen and will be the feature attraction at the Gresham Theater next Saturday and Sunday. The intensely human atmosphere of the novel is said to have been incorporated into the picture with singular success.

The story centers around Leon Kantor, a boy of the Ghetto who shows an intense love for music. His mother who has always wanted a musician-son, is delighted and on his seventh birthday buys him a violin. Leon's playmate is pretty Gina Ginsberg. Fifteen years later, Leon is a recognized genius. On the night of his triumph at a big concert given for his people of the Ghetto, he enlists. Leon returns from France with a shattered shoulder and it is said that he will never be able to play the violin again. Leon's music is his all. He becomes morose and discouraged. Before the war he had become engaged to Gina. Now he wishes to release her from marrying him—a cripple. But in a very wonderful way he is restored to full strength and, to the joy of his mother and Gina, turns toward new conquests in the realm of music.

MRS. E. E. HAMILTON HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Bertha Kussrow was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Thursday evening by Mrs. E. E. Hamilton to a number of the employees of the Blumauer-Frank drug company of Portland. Miss Kussrow who has been employed for the past two years by the Blumauer-Frank company is leaving Saturday for the east where she will be married. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Shortridge, Mrs. Edith Reese, Mrs. M. Wendall and daughter Helen, the Misses Margaret and Luella Mattheu and Hazel Cox and Stewart Olson. After the luncheon the party went to the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman where they visited the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Macho.

Miss Elsie Witzel Bride of G. L. Turner.

Miss Elsie Witzel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Witzel of Damascus, became the bride of Garrett L. Turner at a simple home wedding Wednesday, March 30, at 11 a. m. Rev. H. R. Gebhardt, pastor of the Zion Evangelical church of Gresham officiating. Only the bride's family and immediate relatives were present.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Turner will make their home with the bride's parents for a short time.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Preaching services will follow as usual the Sunday school hour at the Bethel Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. J. E. Brown, will give the morning message on the subject, "Attaining Immortality." The regular communion service with the reception of new members will follow. The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30 and following that the evening song service will be enjoyed and the pastor will discuss the subject, "Breaking the Marriage Vow."

"After Easter—What?" will be the topic of the Sunday morning sermon at the Zion Evangelical church April 3 at 10:30 o'clock. The service will be in the English language. Sunday school will convene at 11:40 a. m.

The Gresham Local of the Dairy-men's League will hold their regular meeting Monday evening, April 4 at the grange hall. All members are requested to be present.

Miss Helen Baker of Centralia, Washington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mat Schanno for a short time.

The engagement of Miss Marguerite Volbrecht and Donald W. H. Morris of Seattle was announced at a delightful dinner party at the home of the bride elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Volbrecht Easter Sunday. Mr. Morris will graduate from the commercial course at O. A. C. in June. Miss Volbrecht is working in the registrar's office at O. A. C.

Miss Mildred St. Clair has gone to Salem to spend a few days with her sister, Miss Winifred and to hear the Glee Club concert. The two will return home on Saturday and next week is spring vacation at Willamette University.

William Trimble moved his family to Cedar Mill this week, where he has been working for about a year. Lois and Alice will remain here until the close of school.

Miss Hester Thorpe visited with friends in Gresham this week. She was recently graduated from the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth and has now gone to Bandon where she will teach an eight months' school beginning on April 4.

SARJU THE OUTCAST AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

The evening services at the M. E. church will be made more attractive than usual by the story of a Hindu outcast who became a great and useful man. The life of Sarju will be illustrated by a short set of views. A synopsis of reports on the first year's work of the Centenary will be a part of the evening service.

The subject of the pastor's morning sermon will be "Is the Bible out of Date?"

The choir will render a fine anthem at each service. At the morning service "God be Merciful." In the evening, "Love That Will Not Let Me Go." Epworth League topic, "Thy Kingdom Come, in My Church."
