GRESHAM LOCALS

Yesterday afternoon the Ladies' Aid of the Zion Evangelical church met at the home of Mrs. John Roberts. A very pleasant afternoon was spent. The ladies have commenced work for the bazaar to be held some time next fall.

The regular preaching services will be held at the Zion Evangelical church Sunday, 10:30 a. m. The services will be conducted in the German language. Sunday school will convene at 11:40 a. m. and the Young People's League will meet in the evening at 8 o'clock.

The Areme club of the Eastern Star chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. Will Hessel Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All ladies of the Eastern Star are invited to attend.

Paul Letsinger, of Corbett, is quarantined at his home with diphtheria which he contracted while attending school in Portland. He is getting along nicely and is not considered in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie are planning to leave Saturday morning for Seaside where they intend to build a home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cruickshank left this week for Argentina, South America, where they expect to remain for some time. They will go via New York stopping at Panama en route.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McCarter have moved into the house owned by Rev. S. G. Roper.

Miss Montague has two attractive college exhibits this week, one at the library and one at the high school. The exhibit includes catalogues and folders from practically all the colleges of the Northwest.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman on Thursday were Mrs. W. E. Craswell and Mrs. L. E. Craswell and little son, Lawrence Jr., of Cottrell.

Mrs. Charlie Calkins has gone to Portland to stay for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Johnson. A guest at the Calkins home this week is Arthur Calkins of Vancouver, Washington, a cousin of Mr. Calkins.

A letter to the Outlook from Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wiles, who have spent the past winter in California, brings the information that they expect to be home about the first of May.

A. E. Hill, for several years on the force of the Outlook Publishing company, has gone to Montavilla to operate a job printing office in connection with his son, Mark, and his brother, Bill.

Miss Emma B. Johnson has received word of the election of her nephew, Ivan Winsor of Miles City, Montana, to the Kappa Tau honorary scholarship fraternity at the University of Montana at Missoula. This is considered one of the highest of the campus honors at the State University. To be eligible for a place on the membership roll, students must maintain a high scholarship standard for three years. Only juniors are taken into the society.

Mrs. Updegraff of Boise, Idaho, is visiting friends in Portland and Gresham. Mrs. Updegraff will be remembered as Miss Eva Anderson.
