

VICTORY SCHOOL PLANS PROGRAMS AND SUPPER

A group of small plays, readings, solos and musical selections will be given at the Victory schoolhouse Friday evening by the Parent-Teacher association for the purpose of raising funds for the standardization of the school.

The principal feature of the evening will be the one-act farce "Mrs. Stubbins' Book Agent." The play has been given at Troutdale and Fairview recently before packed houses and everyone speaks of it in the highest terms. It is said to be brimful of laughter and clean fun and the characters are all capable of producing a first class play. The cast is as follows:

David Stubbins, "not so stupid as he seems", Clarence Parsons.

Peleg P. Gelep, a book agent, Herbert Bradley.

Deacon Wheezy, a widower with matrimonial intentions, Geo. P. Lumsden.

Mrs. Elvira Stubbins, "with a mind of her own", Mrs. L. A. Harlow.

Miss Amelia Marryme, a sentimental love-sick old maid, Janet M. Grant.

Mrs. Christine Donough will give a reading.

"Advertising for a Servant," is another playlet which is exceptionally well rendered by Mrs. L. Wilhelm, Miss Marion Robertson, Miss Fay Lord, and Mrs. A. Stafford.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton will give a short talk on "Community Cooperation."

The Misses Fay Lord, Ruth Ickler and Esther Wilhelm will give a short playlet entitled "Making Jelly for the Minister."

Other numbers will include solos by Miss Marion Robertson and Rev. Earl B. Cotton, recitations by Miss Esther Wilhelm, Percy Carlsson, Robert and Margaret Kerslake and Floyd and Eva Stafford.

There will be a small admission at the door and a chicken pie supper will follow the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustafson and family, of Portland, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olsen and Mrs. Emma Johnson motored to Warren to visit P. N. Almqvist and family Sunday.

A meeting of representatives of the different sections of the school district of the two churches and the Parent-Teacher association met with the school board at the Powell Valley schoolhouse Monday evening to discuss plans for raising the district's quota for the Chinese and Near-East relief funds. This meeting was called by Karl J. Hagberg, chairman of the drive in this section. Mr. Hagberg was appointed by Geo. W. Stapleton, county chairman. There were about 15 persons present at the meeting. It was voted to canvass the district from house to house and the families of the district were divided among the following solicitors who volunteered to do their bit of the work: F. O. Ekstrom, J. Nelson, Mrs. C. P. Christensen, Wm. Peterson, Karl J. Hagberg, C. R. Keller, T. L. Anderson, Carl Nelson, Simon Lind, Mrs. Albert Palmblad and Mrs. Alta Gentry. The solicitors will commence work Wednesday or Thursday and will complete the work by Monday of next week when they will report at the schoolhouse for a summing up of results. Elsewhere in this paper will be found a story of the needs of the people of these destitute countries and everyone should do as much as possible. The district quota for the two relief funds is $92 or more than $1.00 per family.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Arvidson Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindgren of Powell Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Carlsson of Portland and Captain and Mrs. O. E. Orsland of San Francisco. Mr. Orsland is captain of the boat Willamette which is in Portland now.

LARGE STILL LOCATED NEAR CLUB GROUNDS      ORIENT AND LINCOLN TEAM TO PLAY AGAIN

Deputy sheriffs located last Thursday on the old Wilson place about a half mile from the Columbia river highway near the Portland Automobile club, a still which they declare was one of the cleanest and best equipped they had ever seen.

Nick Boslik, who has been renting the house for about two weeks, was arrested and fined in the district court.

Ten gallons of moonshine and 20 barrels, each containing 50 gallons of mash, were found in the upper story of the house by Deputy Sheriffs Schirmer, Christofferson and Beeman, who made the arrest. The deputy sheriffs said Boslik told them he paid $175 for the main container, exclusive of all other equipment.

The Orient basket ball team will play the last game of the season at Orient grange hall, Friday evening when they will meet for the third time the Lincoln Leaguers team from Portland.

The first game these teams played was a most exciting one as two five-minute sessions were played to break the tie. Orient team lost by two points.

The last game was won by a large score by the Orient boys but the Leaguers want to play again as two of their regular players were unable to play at the second game.

They are bringing out their team of girls and there will be a game between the Orient girls and the Portland team.

The baseball season will open immediately and plans for the organization of a team will be discussed after the game Friday.

Fordson Farm Tractor

More than 100,000 Fordson tractors have been sold to farmers in the United States. They are helping those farmers do more and better work in less time and at less cost. North, East, South, West—everywhere the Fordson has proven itself a money-maker and a real necessity to the farmer. Besides it is helping mightily to solve the labor problem.

These one hundred thousand and more practical farmers have affirmed the economy—the exceptionally low fuel and operating cost—of the Fordson; its time and labor-saving qualities and its ability to increase production. The Fordson was built to be the most economical tractor; it is compact and devoid of excessive weight. And it is built of the same strong iron and steel as is the Ford car.

Winter or bad weather does not hinder the Fordson's usefulness. Day or night—twenty-four hours a day if you choose—you can utilize the Fordson.

Only so many Fordsons are allotted this territory. Orders are being filled in sequence—first come first served. Let us have yours now.

There's a practical use for the Fordson every day of the year. Let's tell you. Come in and have a tractor talk. Give us the chance to make a demonstration on your own farm.
